Pomona Grange of Union County Has Full Program At Cove on Last Saturday

Adopting resolutions against the proposed sales tax, against the recent rulings regarding the marketing of eggs, asking the state grange to negotiate with oil companies for a lower rate on gas and oil for grange members, asking that needy persons be required to work for produce, etc., rather than have it handed out by relief agencies speaking opposition to the proposed reduction in freight rates from the east and middle west to the west etc., one relative to the present butter situation, against the proposed move to send city workers out to small acreages, and expressing gratitude to members of the host organization, the early spring meeting of the Union County Pomona grange closed a most successful meeting Saturday evening. Other items of business transacted during the day was the election of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Murchison as alternates to the coming meeting of the Oregon State grange, the election of Mrs. Frank Jasper as "Flora," the conferring of the fifth degree on two candidates, O. W. Clark and Mrs. Grace Love, and the reinstatement of Glenn Nee and the regular routine of business and ritualistic procedure.

In entertaining the county organization Saturday, members of Mr. Fannie grange proved themselves the most gracious of hosts and merited the resolutions given them. The recent addition of a large and airy kitchen, made the entertainment a simple matter and the work was so well organized that the immense roast chicken dinner served at noon to about 75 people and the supper served to about 50 people required a minimum of time and an absence of confusion of any kind. Great quantities of jonquils and daffodils made up the decorations.

While the Pomona master, L. P. Wright, presided during the business sessions, the Pomona lecturer, Mrs. E. G. Cusick, had charge of the open program given in the afternoon. After it was learned that J. D. Mickle of the state dairy department was unable to be present and address the grangers, the following numbers were arranged:

Piano solo, Mrs. C. W. Wicklander. Monologue, Mrs. Edith Gekeler. Address, County Agent H. G. Avery. Vocal solos, Mrs. J. W. Leonard. Address, Ed Eckley. Skit, Who Took The Pie, Josephine and J. Newton Fisher. Vocal solos, Mrs. Frank Jasper. Recitation, M. L. Carter. Monologue, Glenn Nee. Skit, Stage Struck, Mrs. Hazel Lindsay and Mrs. Cora Bloom. Talk, J. A. Nee. Talk, L. F. Wright. Vocal numbers, T. B. Love, playing his own accompaniment on the guitar. Reading, Mrs. Lydia Lantz. Tap dancing, Earnie Miller, accompanied by Mrs. Miller.

Elgin Methodists Plan Big Easterday

ELGIN (Special) — Easter services at the Elgin Methodist church promise much of interest. The first service of the day will be the sunrise prayer meeting at 6:30 o'clock at the church. This will be followed by a waffle breakfast served at the home of Mrs. Mary Smith. This is an annual custom of several years standing.

Sunday school will convene at 10 o'clock as usual, followed by preaching at the regular hour by C. E. Calame. Immediately at the conclusion of this meeting, Mr. Calame as well as all members who care to, will drive to Fairview church in the Scott district on Cricket Flat. Here the annual dinner will be served on long tables under the pine trees in the church yard. At 2:00 o'clock, Mr. Calame will again deliver an Easter sermon.

WALLOWA PERSONALS

The day-old infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne McCauley died Mar. 26 at their home.

Dr. F. C. Brosius, formerly of Elgin, is moving his household effects to Wallowa and will locate here permanently. He has had an office here for the past two months. Mrs. Brosius joined her husband here last week.

Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Galbraith, of Portland, who have been visiting at the home of their daughter, Mrs. Stanley Shell, the past two weeks, returned home Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Shell took her parents to Portland and Mrs. Shell remained for a visit there.

Jack Gregory, student at the University of Oregon, who is spending the spring vacation with his parents, Dr. and Mrs. J. B. Gregory, in La Grande, motored to Wallowa Sunday and visited friends.

Roy Holtberg, receiver of the Farmers' and Stockgrowers' National bank, was taken to the Hot Lake sanatorium Monday, seriously ill of pneumonia.
