Step Into Trotter's Today. Step out in Style Tomorrow.

Take those tired shoulders away from the wheel of winter and slip your arms through the sleeves of a fresh new Michaels-Stern suit. You'll feel like a shipwrecked man who has just been picked up by a fifty foot yacht with dinner on the table. Cost a lot? Certainly it doesn't... these other men we are selling spring suits to, have the same financial headaches... the same light, heat and insurance to pay. $25 goes a long way at Trotter's... Hundreds of suits will greet you at the door.

Knights Templar Easter Services Held On Sunday

Following a beautiful custom observed annually by the Knights Templar, Eastern Oregon Commandry No. 6, Easter services were held Sunday at the Masonic hall at 12:30 o'clock. The speaker for the occasion was Rev. W. H. Hertzog who gave an appropriate talk to the 125 persons present, 45 of whom were members of the order. The program included the regular order of service consisting of a prelude by Mrs. Lynne Wright who acted as pianist for the session, and professional, "Onward Christian Soldiers." The scripture lesson was read by the Rev. Mr. Hertzog followed by a vocal solo by Mrs. Hal Bohlenkamp, "Eye Hath Not Seen." The services were closed with apostrophe by Mrs. Wright which directly followed the talk by Mr. Hertzog. C. M. Humphreys acted as prelate during the services, and R. P. Tyler as eminent commander, assisted by other officers. Mrs. A. L. Richardson was in charge of the arrangements for the music for the occasion. Following the services, dinner was served in the dining room to those present, arrangements for which were made by the wives of the officers of the commandry. A number of members were present from out of town, including Union, Baker and North Powder.

TRADE DULL BUT STOCKS HIGHER

NEW YORK, Apr. 3 (AP)—Stocks generally moved within a restricted range today and trading was rather dull during most of the session. A few rails, oils, metals and scattered specialties came back in a mild last-minute rally, but the list as a whole, was inclined to mark time. The close was steady to firm. Transfers approximated 1,250,000 shares. Closing figures included:
