Church School Classes Enjoy Evening Dinner

Members of the high school, college and Ever-Ready Sunday school classes of the Christian church, some 135 in number, gathered in the church basement last night for a fellowship banquet.

The program opened with songs by a boys' quartet—Billie Hough, Kenneth Ragain, Alfred Berry, Donald Higgins—with Ola Mae Hough at the piano.

Carol Price gave a toast "To The Endeavor" and the response was given by Muriel Draper, which was followed by a reading by Katherine Roberts.

Herbert Evans, superintendent of schools, was the final speaker, weaving his talk around the theme of physical science's lead over social science, and the need for a balancing.

Local Masons To Attend District Session Saturday

A large party of members of the La Grande Masonic Lodge expect to attend the district meeting to be held at Pendleton Saturday afternoon and evening.

Leslie M. Scott, grand master of the grand lodge of Oregon, and his official staff will be present, together with grand masters and officers of Washington and Idaho and members of the Washington lodges within a radius of 150 miles have also been invited.

Arrangements are being made by J. H. Diehl, worshipful master of the La Grande lodge, and Oscar Warnock and a committee consisting of C. M. Humphreys, Colon R. Eberhard and C. P. Hutchens have charge of transportation.

"Oregon Scenery" Campaign Begins

Income to garages and gas stations is only a small portion in distribution of the tourist's dollar, however, it was explained.

Places such as department, food and drug stores take 26 cents of the tourist's dollar. The balance is distributed to restaurants, hotels, places of amusement, garages and service stations.

It is significant that although California had fewer registered tourists than Oregon in 1933 that state's tourist crop income grossed far more, according to Mr. Gunther. This, he said, is due to the intensive campaigns which have been carried on there to give each tourist the warmest welcome possible.

Who possesses most has least appreciation.
