CIVIC CHOIR HERE IS ONLY ONE IN WEST

speaking, it is several steps higher up the scale than male quartet work—and everybody likes male quartet music.

A Capella music has no less than four parts and often as many as eight parts, and to obtain good results, a great deal of work and rehearsing is necessary. Mr. Loney, however, who is especially qualified for direction of such choirs, has the civic organization in excellent form, and an unusually pleasing program—the first of its kind in the west—is looked forward to. The program will be announced later this week.
