

PORTLAND OPENS SEASON AT HOME WITH 3-2 VICTORY

By The Associated Press
The confident prediction of H. L. Baggery, president of the Pacific Coast league, that baseball would stage a come-back this year appeared likely of fulfillment today as far as the northern part of the circuit is concerned.

Some 12,000 fans packed the park at Portland yesterday to see the Beavers defeat the San Francisco Mission, 3 to 2, with a thrilling ninth inning rally while Seattle lost its first home game to Hollywood, 7 to 5, before 8,000 spectators, one of the largest crowds there in the last two years.

With the score tied at 2-2 in the ninth inning, Fred Baseman Earl Steely singled, went to third when Catcher Frank Cox doubled and raced in with Portland's winning run when Shortstop Chet Wilburn lifted a long fly.

Fay Thorne chalked up his third win this season when he pitched Los Angeles to a 5 to 0 victory over Oakland. He allowed the Oaks six hits. Sacramento boosted itself into full possession of second place by defeating the San Francisco Seals, 5 to 2, due largely to the hard hitting of Outsider Jerry Donovan.
