Annual Tulip And Spring Flower Show To Be Saturday April 21 By Northside Improvement Club

Next Saturday afternoon and evening has been the date chosen by the members of the Northside Improvement club for their annual tulip and spring flower show. The affair will be held at the L. D. S. church, corner Fir and Y and the hours for the afternoon will be from 2:30 to 5:30 o'clock and in the evening from 7:30 to 9:30. Of course, the women state, the public is invited to attend this festival of the flowers, and they anticipate visitors and flower-lovers from all parts of town to be their guests during the stated hours.

They also announce that next week will be observed as "Cleanup Week" on the northside and the co-operation of all residents is sought.

These arrangements were made at the regular meeting held yesterday and which was very largely attended, with discussions most helpful. Mrs. Guy Price, the president, was in charge and during the meeting named some working committees as follows: Mrs. Darnell and Mrs. French for the new flower discussion committee for the months of May and June; Mrs. Helvey and Mrs. Evans, the welcoming committee; Mrs. Bragg and Mrs. Sinden, the entertainment committee for May.

During the program hour, Mother Price gave a reading on "Out Flowers." Mrs. Alex Robertson and Miss Lydia Hug sang two duets, "Roses Kissed By Sunshine" and "Swinging In The Grapevine Swing." Mrs. Robertson, playing the accompaniment. Mrs. Evans gave a talk on providing a program of recreation for the children and told of the program the city is undertaking to give the children clean, healthful and supervised play during the coming summer.

Mrs. E. O. Morris, one of the active and enthusiastic members of the club, gave the following original article under the title "The Northside Improvement Club."

The Northside women have organized a Garden club; They call it the N. I. C. In it they meet and discuss Plans for better homes and gardens gay—

For park, and playground, too—Clean-up week and flower show; The up-to-date and garden pests And things that mar And things that bless; So when you see their fences free Of weeds and noxious grass, Just put it down, it was inspired By that group—N. I. C.

the purpose of purchasing new children's books, particularly those which have been awarded a Newberry prize. The main part of the program will be the repetition of a number of the readings prepared for the declamatory contest. There will be: Sea Fever, by Steve Smith; Us Dogs and Cats, by Elizabeth Webber; Little Jack Straws, by Marjorie Walker; Our Two Opinions, by Johnnie Pyle; Lullaby, by Muriel Houle; Going Back Down to Grandpa's by Juanita Vandermeulen; Old Man and Jim by Helen King; Things At Night by Felix Asa; The Plaint of The Camel, by Faye Willet; Between Two Loves, Lois Rasmussen; The Boys' Glee club will furnish two numbers midway in the program and the sixth grade will present a dramatization of "Sir Percival."

Delphian Chapter Meets Tonight

The Delphian Chapter will meet this evening at 7:30 with Mrs. Hugh Brady at 1808 Third street. Miss Sara Williamson will be the program leader and she will be assisted by Mrs. L. B. Pierce, Mrs. Brandy, Miss Ida McMeekin and Miss Hilda Anthony. The subject to be considered will be "Renaissance Fiction and Chronicle."

Melvina Miller Weds Earl Gray

Word has been received in La Grande of the marriage on April 16 of Miss Melvina Miller, of this city, and Earl E. Gray. The ceremony was performed at the First Methodist church in Vancouver, Wash., the pastor of the church officiating. Mrs. Gray is quite well known locally and was a member of the 1933 graduating

National Secretary To Speak Here

Women of the parish of St. Peter's (Episcopal) church and all other women of La Grande who are interested are invited to hear Mrs. Augustus Taber, secretary of the national Episcopal church, who is stopping off in La Grande from Hood River where she was a guest speaker at the Missionary Diocese of Eastern Oregon. Mrs. Taber will deliver an address on the subject "Women Face A New Task In The Church" which is a very timely topic and one which so impressed the local delegates to Hood River that they persuaded Mrs. Taber to stop here. The meeting is announced for Saturday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at Honan hall.

Riveria P. T. A. Meets Friday

The Riviera Parent Teacher association at its meeting tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, offers a program which it believes will be of interest to all the parents, and especially to the parents of pre-school children invited as announcements will be made about the summer roundup.

A dental talk will be given by Dr. Fred Jones and a health talk by Dr. Lewis Wilkes Ager. Songs will be given by the pupils of the first, sixth and eighth grades. The four contestants from this school in the county declamatory will give their readings. Miss Marion Trill will sing a group of solos.
