

Mighty Drives By Foxx, Other League Hitters

With the major league baseball season only two days old, the home run marathon between Babe Ruth, the old clouting king, and the young pretender to the throne of great, Jimmie Foxx, already is well under way. The first wallop by this pair of rivals as they met at Philadelphia yesterday, provided the high spot of the second day of the campaign, but there were plenty of other good jobs done on the ball field, including a total of 16 homers for the day and four more five-hit pitching performances.

Foxx, the home run ruler for the past two seasons, connected for his first 19th homer in the second inning of the diamond donnybrook which saw the Yankees square the series with an 11 to 5 triumph over the Athletics. He repeated the feat in the fourth frame, again with empty bases, while the Babe bled his time until the eighth, then outdid his rival's efforts by poling a mighty clout clear across the street to a porch roof, bouncing the ball into an open window of a house. By that time Bill Dickey had settled the game by driving home six runs with a homer, two doubles and a single.

Chick Hafey of Cincinnati and Zeke Bonura, the White Sox rookie first baseman, also fabricated two homers apiece while Chuck Klein hit his second of the year and Joe Medwick joined him at the head of the parade.
