GRANGE HALL PERSONALS

Blue Mt. Grangers will hold their regular meeting next Saturday, April 21, at their hall. The H. E. C. is giving a kitchen shower for the grange on that day and each member is to bring something to add to the much needed kitchen equipment. Medical Springs grange will deliver the traveling gravel and will furnish the program at the meeting.

Mrs. Vernon Hassel and two children have returned to La Grande after spending several days at the home of her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Dodson.

U. O. Students To Honor Mothers On May 11, 12, 13

EUGENE, Ore. (Special) — Every mother of every University of Oregon student will be invited to come to Eugene, May 11, 12 and 13 to participate in the annual Mothers' day event, it was declared by Thomas H. Tongue, Hillsboro, president of the Associated Students. Tongue announced the appointment of the committee to handle the event, and also requested all students to write immediately to their mothers and invite them.

The student committee will be headed by Nancy Archbold, Portland, William Meissner, Oregon City, will be assistant chairman. Others on the committee include Althea Peterson, Eugene, banquet; Catherine Collins, Eugene, registration; Douglas Folly, Portland, publicity; Josephine Waffle, Astoria, program, and Dorothy Dibble, Portland, secretary. The faculty committee includes Dr. Earl M. Pallett, general chairman; George H. Godfrey, publicity and advertising; Virgil D. Earl, registration, and Mrs. Genevieve Turnipseed, banquet.

The event this year will be held simultaneously with Junior Weekend, and mothers will not only have their own meetings, Mothers' day banquet and other affairs, but may also enjoy the annual canoe fete, junior prom, frosh-sop underclass mix and other diversions on the program. The
