MORE MEN TO GO TO WORK ON HATCHERY

morrow, beginning where the CWA workers left off a few weeks ago. Also, plans were formulating today to increase the size of the crew of men at work on the High school athletic field, to take effect probably tomorrow.

With track meets and baseball games scheduled here this weekend, an attempt will be made to have the track sufficiently leveled to take care of these events. Two shifts may be put to work, one from 7 to 12 and the other from 1 to 6.

No other activity in connection with other Union county FERA projects had been learned of today. The High school and fish hatchery projects are expected to provide for all men eligible at present for this work.

GUNNERS HERE IN LEWISTON SHOOT SUNDAY

Several La Grande Gun club members spent Sunday in Lewiston, competing in the Lewiston club's merchandise shoot. All La Granderians turned in 90 or better scores in the 100-bird event, with Nate Zweifel topping the locals with a 95. Others from here were Aug. J. Stange, A. J. Gower, June Stalcup and Robert Zweifel.

Lewiston is planning on sending a delegation of shooters to the La Grande Gun club's merchandise shoot scheduled for next Sunday, and Spokane also is expecting to send some shooters.

Greenwood School Library Program

Friday afternoon a group of interested parents and friends of the Greenwood school attended the special "Library Day" program. A very interesting program, as had been previously announced, was presented by the children of the various grades. The room was beautifully decorated with spring flowers and a colorful drawing of a Medieval castle which was drawn, under the direction of Miss Vel Rogers, by the sixth grade. There were attractive book exhibits about the room, one of which was the books purchased recently for Greenwood from the Maggie Mahaffey library. Another group were books donated to the school library by pupils of the school and of unusual interest was the exhibit of recent children's books from the East Oregon Normal school. This exhibit was arranged by Miss Azalee Bennett who is now doing her responsible teaching at Greenwood.

Enough money was donated to buy the Newberry Prize book for 1933 which will be announced next fall.

Miss Pierson Tells Of Coming Marriage

The announcement of the approaching marriage of Miss Bernita Pierson and George Moats both well known La Grande young people was announced at a pretty garden party Saturday afternoon, when Miss Pierson entertained a group of her friends at Riverside Park.
