

PERSONALS

On Spring Vacation—Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Hansen are in La Grande spending a spring vacation at the home of their parents, Rev. and Mrs. H. I. Hansen, and Mr. and Mrs. Sherwood Williams, also with Mrs. Hansen's grandmother, Mrs. Lydia Grandy. Mrs. Hansen was formerly Miss Helen Williams.

To Seattle—Mrs. Ada B. Phyl is spending several days in Seattle visiting relatives and friends. She will also visit in Wenatchee and other Washington cities before returning to her home here.

Is Operated—Mrs. Julia Duncan of Medical Springs, underwent an operation this morning at the Grande Ronde hospital for the removal of a cataract. She is reported to be improving satisfactorily.

Returns—Miss Mae Waldoff returned last night from Portland where she spent the weekend visiting friends and transacting business. She is stenographer in the office of the chamber of commerce.

Is Here—J. E. Watkins, representative of the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company's farm loan department with headquarters at Spokane, has been spending the last four days here on business.

Visiting Here—Mrs. Lester Horstman and small son are visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. Arnett, from her home at Portland.

From Portland—Talph Reynolds, of Portland, spent Monday in La Grande, visiting relatives and friends. He is the son of J. E. Reynolds and brother of Charles and Lee Reynolds.

Returns—Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Sommer have returned to their home here following a two weeks' vacation trip to Arlington and vicinity. They report that the lambing season at Shaliko is remarkably fine and that the prospects are for a very encouraging year in the sheep business there.

Is Back—Miss Virginia Shepherd has returned to her home from Portland where she spent two days visiting relatives. She also attended the state C. E. convention over the weekend and stopped in Portland en route home.

Returns—Mrs. Walter Palmer returned last night from Portland where she spent several days visiting.

Is Ill—J. L. Hedden, manager of Stevens-Van Engelen store, is confined to his home of illness.

Make Stop Here—Mr. and Mrs. Ed B. Clark, of Glenna, Perry, Ida., were visitors in La Grande yesterday at the home of their cousin, Mrs. and Mr. Hubert Anderson, near the city. They continued on their way home this morning, having made the stop here en route from California where they had been spending the winter.

PEARE AGAIN APPOINTED ON STATE BOARD

Dr. William M. Peare, of this city, was late Tuesday reappointed by Governor Julius L. Meier as a member of the state board of optometry examiners. His present term expires next Monday, and his new term will expire April 30, 1937.

AT THE LIBERTY

After almost half a year of production, "The Cat and the Fiddle" comes to the screen of the Liberty theatre starting today as one of the most pretentious offerings of the current show season.

Ramon Novarro and Jeanette MacDonald are co-stars. Each is not only a romantic favorite, but an accomplished singer.

"The Cat and the Fiddle" had a long run in New York and has been presented in other large cities throughout the country. It is a romantic musical drama and includes such hit song numbers as "The Night Was Made For Love," "She Didn't Say Yes," "Try to Forget," "One Moment Alone," "A New Love Is Old" and "The Love Parade."

TRADE LISTLESS IN MARKET TODAY

NEW YORK, Apr. 25 (AP)—Stocks rallied rather feebly behind grain and silver futures, late in today's session. Extreme dullness marked the scattered recoveries and the close was irregular. There was little public participation, floor traders accounting for most of the listless trading. Traders' approximate 900,000 shares.

JOHNNY ROBINSON

Mr. Ray Buell, manager of Zuber Ballroom, has completed arrangements through Music Corporation of America, managers of Guy Lombardo, Ben Bernie, Ted Fio Rito, Gus Arnheim, Wayne King and numerous other nationally known orchestras, to present Johnny Robinson and his thirteen piece aggregation one night, Saturday, April 28, at Zuber Hall. The Robinson orchestra has just completed a series of successful engagements in the Southwestern states playing such outstanding engagements as the Baker Hotel, Dallas, Texas; The Galvez Hotel, Galveston, Texas; The Connor Hotel, Joplin, Missouri; The Club Boga, Oklahoma City, Oklahoma; The Rainbow Ballroom, Denver, Colorado; and others. Robinson will show with his entire organization of stars, floor show, and entertainment including, among other, Miss Bee Brenner, direct from the Club Forrest, New Orleans, and the Washington Yource Hotel, Shreveport, La. Miss Gloria Selter, Danes musical an outstanding star of the Baker Hotel floor show; Stan Helms and Lew Villa, both singers and entertainers of national reputation.

Remember the night! Saturday, April 28, at Zuber Hall. A capacity crowd is expected to receive what the management personally guarantees to be one of the finest musical attractions ever to show in the Northwest.
