Mr. and Mrs. Aug. J. Stange Announce Betrothal Of Their Daughter, Jane, To Ford Palmer, of Hollywood, Cal.

At a very lovely dinner given last evening at their home, Mr. and Mrs. Aug. J. Stange announced the betrothal of their younger daughter, Miss Jane Stange, to Ford Palmer, of Hollywood, Cal. Twenty-four friends were bidden. Flowers were tastefully used about the Stange home and in the dining room the color arrangement conformed with a scheme of pink and white.

Contract bridge followed the dinner, Mrs. Fred Lanzer receiving the prize for making high score. Mrs. John Ormond for fourth and Miss Judy Moore, consolation. A gift was also presented to Miss Mildred Smith whose approaching marriage was recently announced.

The marriage of Miss Stange and Mr. Palmer will be an event of the late summer and around it will center a great deal of local and state interest. The bride-elect, one of La Grande's popular young women, attended the University of Oregon and also the University of Southern California. She is a member of Delta Gamma. Mr. Palmer, also a student at the University of Southern California, widely known as a football star and captain of last year's team, has visited in La Grande a number of times and has been well received. He is affiliated with Sigma Chi.

Mrs. Monnie Hauser, Worthy Matron, Is Honor Guest

Mrs. Monnie M. Hauser, of Salem, worthy grand matron of the Order of the Eastern Star for the state of Oregon, was a distinguished visitor in La Grande yesterday and was honored at a number of events arranged by the members of Hope Chapter No. 13, Mrs. L. B. Moe, worthy matron, Herbert Hanna, worthy patron and their corps of assistants in office.

In the afternoon at 2:00 o'clock a school of instruction was held by Mrs. Hauser for the officers of the local chapter the ritualistic work being exemplified by the officers and explanations and instructions being given by the worthy grand matron.

Forty members of the local chapter together with some visitors from Baker, attended a no-hostess dinner given at 6:30 o'clock at the Sacajawea Inn honoring the grand officer.

The regular meeting of Hope Chapter in the evening at the Masonic hall was very largely attended by local Stars, the crowd being augmented by a group from Union and also from Baker. After the formal introduction of the grand matron and her presentation to a place of honor, Mrs. Carrie B. Jackson, of Baker, past grand matron, George T. Cochran, past grand patron, Mrs. Hazel Graham, member of the finance committee of the grand chapter, Mrs. Rogers worthy matron from Baker and Mrs. Worth Halsey, worthy matron at Union were also similarly presented. A group of eight past matrons who were present, were introduced.

Six women in pastel gowns, offered a beautiful floral degree for the worthy grand matron, those taking part being Mrs. Hazel Graham, Mrs. Ruth Walker, Mrs. Nannie Diehl, Mrs. Irene Englund, Mrs. Lydia Loney and Mrs. Zepha Nibler.

During the evening the visitor made her official address, this followed by shorter talks by Mrs. Jackson, Mr. Cochran, Mrs. Rogers, Mrs. Halsey, Mrs. Graham, Mr. Ringo, and Mr. Hanna, who in the course of his remarks presented Mrs. Hauser with a lovely gift of linen from Hope chapter.

At the close of the meeting all were invited into the main dining room where refreshments were served from two long tables, having for their decorations lighted tapers and flowers. Mrs. Milo Smith and Mrs. Fred H. Kiddle, poured, and Mrs. J. H. Cummings and Mrs. Harry Turner cut the ices.

Mrs. Hauser went from here to Enterprise where she is conducting a county meeting today, the chapters from Wallawa, Lostine, Joseph and Enterprise participating.

Mystery Surrounds Y. W. E. A. Banquet

Great mystery surrounds the banquet program for the Young Women's Educational auxiliary to be held Tuesday evening, May 1 in the ballroom at the La Grande hotel. This unique organization usually follows a very definite program for its year's work, a central theme for the year, adopted very largely in the programs of each month, climaxing in the banquet when the program, the motif, the new officers for the coming year and the program for the ensuing year are divulged for the first time. And the idea for the banquet is invariably original.

Mrs. Thelma Lyon is chairman of the banquet committee this year and she announces that plans are working out splendidly and that the ticket sale is very encouraging. Plates will be limited to 99 or thereabouts, making it imperative that reservations be made within the next few days to assure a place.

Mrs. Zurbrick Hostess to Club

Mrs. H. A. Zurbrick had four tables for bridge yesterday when she entertained the members of the Clio club at her home, 504 Main street. Tullips in the pastel hues were used for decorations. Prizes were won by Mrs. Norman W. Pries and Mrs. William Siegrist.

The next meeting of the club, which will also be the last for this season will be at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hal Bohlenkamp, 1701 First street, Wednesday and will be a dinner meeting.

At this meeting officers for next year will be elected, the nominating committee being Mrs. Lee Bouvy, Mrs. Joel Richardson and J. W. Leonhart.
