PREVENT FIRE IN HOMES

Newspapers everywhere continue to carry gruesome stories of fatalities from fire. It is high time for spring cleaning of fire hazards. One of the most common and easiest eliminated is accumulation of trash in attics, cellars, barns and garages. Wherever piles of rubbish, paper and oily or paint soaked rags are tolerated, there is a constant invitation to fire through carelessly discarded matches, cigar and cigarettes, as well as spontaneous ignition. The first step in eliminating fire accidents, therefore, is a thorough clean-up of all trash.

Work with a paint brush is recommended, for a spic and span house seldom burns. According to the National Board of Fire Underwriters, carelessness with matches and smoking materials is one of the greatest causes of fire ($30,000,000 in 1932). Continuation of high losses to life and property from this source is an absolute disgrace. Matches should be kept in non-burning containers and out of the reach of children; handy ash trays should be provided and common sense should be exercised while using smoking materials and matches.

In the spring, when heat is no longer needed, is the time to clean the heating plant, repair it if necessary, and get it ready for next fall. Chimneys should be cleaned and inspected at this time. Spring cleaning of fire hazards may require the services of others than yourself. All who thus employ workmen to help them, will be aiding the recovery program at a time when additional work for the unemployed is such a vital need. Do your part!

"Kitcheneering", To Be Here For Three Days

sonal representative following extensive preparations in the famous Bureau kitchen.

Hundreds of local women are familiar with the work of the Homemakers' Bureau either through attendance at "Kitcheneering" courses, through the weekly radio broadcasts throughout the area west of the Mississippi conducted by Mrs. Wright personally, through leaflets and bulletins posted regularly on the Bureau's bulletin boards in Safeway Stores, or through correspondence which the Bureau invites.

Even these women, it is pointed out, may not know that the Homemakers' Bureau is one of the largest organizations of its kind in the country, with a permanent staff of 22 trained women whose sole duties involve service to every customer of Safeway Stores, and that hundreds of thousands of letters asking information on every type of women's household problems are answered authoritatively each year by Bureau experts.

One of the most monumental tasks ever accomplished by the Bureau was the publication, last year, of one of the most comprehensive cook books ever offered to housewives. This book "Recipes You'll Enjoy," was personally edited by Julia Lee Wright, and thousands of copies were sold throughout the nation, exciting highest praise alike from users and home economics experts.

Constant contact with leading home economists throughout the country is maintained by this Safeway organization not only through the regular interchange of the latest ideas, but through personal visitation. Mrs. Wright having made two recent nationwide trips in search of the newest homemaking developments for the sole benefit of Safeway customers. On such trips, Mrs. Wright contacts outstanding economists in the offices of manufacturers and home publications as well as other prominent authorities in the field of domestic science.

With such a strong staff to assist her, and with the many advantages placed at her disposal, experts agree that Mrs. Wright might well be expected to work wonders. Experts also agree that she has done so. And local housewives who are so fortunate as to be able to attend the three-day course in "Kitcheneering" on May 9-10-11 at the Safeway Inn ballroom are expected to agree with them.

Officials in charge of "Kitcheneering" locally announce that doors will open each day promptly at one o'clock, and that Mrs. Spencer will begin each day's course at 2 o'clock.

HEINZ WINNER IN ROUGH MAT TILT

Putting on a rough, slam-bang match, Cowboy Nevis and Bob Doran, middleweight professional wrestlers, headlined a card held last night at the Elks lodge. Heinz won two out of three falls.

In a semi-final, Skeeb Trent, middleweight, won two out of three falls from Hill, of Seattle. This was a 90-min. classic match from the beginning, although both were declared by some of the fans to be the best seen here in some time.

Mr. Smith, Cowboy and "Venus" Moore staged a special event of a comedy nature which was many laughs from the fans.

About 175 lodge members were present.

COMES HERE TO HEAR MAHONEY

W. S. Bean, of Pendleton, accompanied by his family were in La Grande last evening making the trip necessitated to attend the Willis Mahoney political meeting. Mr. Bean is assistant manager of the Pendleton Drug and one of the candidates for the Republican nomination in the wool-growing district now represented by Paul R. Kilkka.

TOP HURLERS IN LEAGUE TAKE IT ON CHIN THURSDAY

By the Associated Press

J. Millard Campbell of Los Angeles and Leroy Herrmann of San Francisco, until yesterday ace hurlers of the Coast league for this season, had a defeat apiece charged against them today after winning their first five 1934 appearances. They went down together yesterday, campbell before the 11-hit attack of Sacramento's Senators at Los Angeles and Herrmann before an Oakland uprising at San Francisco.

The solons lauded on Campbell for two runs in the first inning and four more in the third and tallied once each in the seventh and eighth to win handily, 8-3.

The Oaks chased Herrmann to the showers in the sixth with a slugging bee that neted five runs and led to the first Oakland win of the series, 8-4.

Beaten 4-3 in the first game of a doubleheader at Seattle, the Missions came back to take the nightcap, 8-2.

Bunching five runs in the first inning and adding another in the sixth Hollywood took the series opener from Portland, 6-5. Four Beaver errors gave the Stars two unearned runs. Joe Sullivan was blasted from the Hollywood box in the fifth when Portland scored all five of its runs but gained credit for the victory.

NOWLAND AND BAXTER WILL SEE ACTION

La Grande track fans will be watching for results of the Oregon-Oregon State relay meet at Eugene Saturday afternoon with more than usual interest. The reason is that two La Grandders, Fred Nowland, track Webfoot hurdler and high jumper, and Floyd Baxter, half miler, are among the contestants for the U. of O. Nowland, La Grande high jumper on the O. S. C. squad, may or may not get into action in the relays.

Nowland is scheduled to run in the hurdle trial heats and the high jump, and Baxter is to run in the two-mile relay.

TIGERS PLAYING ELGIN AT IMBLER

All four teams in the Union county baseball league were meeting in a double header at Imbler this afternoon. Over high gusting the league meeting ended with the two game and La Grande High meeting Elgin in the second.

The Tigers were to use the following lineup: Young, pitcher; Walden or Blackman, catcher; Zivkovich, first; Goodenham, second; Beck, shortstep; Robertson, third; Stitt, Arnoldus and P. Leonard, fielders. Walden's father underwent an operation this morning and it was not certain whether the son would play.

The games this afternoon start the second half of the season, and a victory for Imbler over Cove today would almost assure Jimmy King's lads of another championship.

BRIGHTER LIGHTS

When city lights are all afire
And curbstone feet tired to and fro
And when the night is turned to day
And all the people are at play,
With not a thought of lonely things,
Such lovely things as night time brings—
Such things as grow and glow and mold—
Such blessings as will serve to scold.
I'd like to know our Master's thoughts.
When with such wherein all has wrought
A night wherein we all may seem
A time when all may cease to weep—
I'd like to know just what he thinks
Right now while Western sunlight sinks
I'd like to know just what he'd say
While all the night is turned to day
And coaxing lights blot out the gleam
Of Master Moon's softening beam.
And then, where to go the light
Or how to glimpse in its sight—
I wonder—no, I'd like to know.
Just what he thinks in starlight glow
As the jewel gift is turned aside
While man in brighter lights abide.
