Miss Struthers Weds in Pendleton

At a most impressive ceremony Wednesday evening at the Church of the Redeemer, in Pendleton, Miss Mary Louise Struthers, daughter of Mrs. Roy McNeese, became the bride of Melvin Roberts, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dave Roberts. Bishop William F. Remington read the marriage service.

The church was beautiful with spring flowers in shades of yellow, combined with white, snap dragons, spirea and other blossoms being used. The bride, who was given in marriage by Roy McNeese, was especially lovely in a wedding gown of white satin, cut on princess lines. Her tulle veil was arranged in becoming cap effect, with sprays of orange blossoms. She carried a bouquet of rosebuds.

Miss Atha Demerall, of La Grande, maid of honor, wore an attractive gown of yellow flat crepe, cut on long lines and worn with small turban. Her bouquet was of sweet peonies. Jack Stangler was best man.

For the wedding music, Miss Edith Kaufman played the Mendelssohn and Lohengrin wedding marches, and Wesley McDonald sang "I Love You Truly," the accompaniment being by Miss Kaufman.

A reception at the McNeese home followed the ceremony. Mrs. J. A. Kaufman and Mrs. Garretson, the latter of The Dalles, presided at the table. Mr. and Mrs. Roberts, after a wedding trip to Portland and Seaside, will reside at the Game Farm where Mr. Roberts is employed. For her traveling attire the bride wore a smart dress and coat of navy blue, with white accessories.

Out-of-town guests for the wedding included Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bryant, of Portland; Mr. and Mrs. James Bradburn and daughter Mary of Portland; Mrs. Charles Dupuis of Weston; Mrs. Garretson, of The Dalles; Miss Atha Demerall, Miss Lulu McNeese, Herbert Miller, Miss Mabel Miller and Paul Yeck, of La Grande.
