12 YEARS OF SPLENDID SERVICE

Colonel Ralph R. Huron, who yesterday completed 12 years of service to his government and this community as postmaster of La Grande, soon will retire from his federal position. And in stepping down from the post in which he has served for more than a decade, he will carry the best wishes of the entire community. His has been a job well done, a service splendidly performed and he leaves a fine record for successors to seek to equal.

During his period in office, Colonel Huron has built up a fine organization until today the La Grande post office is listed among the most efficient in the northwest. Many improvements have taken place in the last 12 years, and most of them found the postmaster directly responsible.

As was to be expected in view of the changing of the administration from Republican to Democratic, a successor of the now majority party has been appointed. Yesterday the word came over the Associated Press wires in the Observer office that Victor Eckley, state representative from Union county the last two terms and a well known La Grande merchant, had been appointed to succeed Colonel Huron.

With full knowledge that a change was to be made because of long honored political practices, the appointment of Rep. Eckley is very gratifying not only to La Grande people, but to the county as a whole. A young man with a splendid record, there is every reason to believe that the newly appointed postmaster will continue the high type of service the city is now enjoying, and will add new laurels to his already long list of accomplishments in public and community service.

TEST TUBE TWINS BORN TO COUPLE IN LONG ISLAND

NEW YORK (AP)—Laboratory babies, in a broad sense of the word, have become a fact, it became known upon the birth of twins to a couple living in Long Island.

Dr. Frances Seymour, woman obstetrician, confirmed the mother's claim to her "test tube" babies and said there had been eight successful deliveries in New York City since experimentation in this line of scientific endeavor was started two years ago by herself and Dr. Alfred Koerner.

Somewhat astonished that word of the birth leaked out, Dr. Seymour said she presumed the parents were happy enough over birth of the children to be unable to contain themselves.

Hesitant to talk at first, she later spoke frankly to avoid public misunderstanding, she said.

Thirteen successful artificial inseminations have been made, she said, eight of them deliveries so far. Eleven, she said, were actually the offspring of the husband and wife concerned and different only in that impregnation was scientific.

"The other two mothers are both prominent business women," she stated. "They wanted babies but were unmarried. They felt they had a right to have children. One now has a baby nine months old. The other will give birth any day now."

In the first instance, the physician pointed out definitely, the babies are actually of the parents' own flesh and blood. In the second, the father is anonymous save to the physician. In the case of eugenic babies, Dr. Seymour said, the fathers are carefully picked and tested.

The name of Cumberland state park in Kentucky has been changed to Pine Mountain park to avoid confusing it with Cumberland Falls state park.

Miss Hilda Anthony served as accompanist.

The concert last evening was given as a benefit for the Scholarship Loan Fund of the La Grande Neighborhood Club and is reported to have been also a decided financial success. Mrs. R. P. Tyler, president of the club presided and introduced the general program.

OLD JOKE ABOUT BRIDE'S BISCUITS IS NOW OBSOLETE

"It may be hard on the professional humorists, but now is the time to render obsolete the standard joke about the 'bride's biscuits' — and dumplings that bounce."

So decrees Mrs. Marian Rogers Spencer, home economist of the Safeway Stores Homemakers' bureau, who will conduct a three-day cooking school in the Sacajawea ballroom beginning Wednesday May 9. Mrs. Spencer will guide homemakers along that royal road to a man's heart as she offers, free of charge, the knowledge gained through intensive food and recipe research by the bureau at its testing kitchen.

This bureau, unique in the west, is designed for the special guidance of western women, explains Mrs. Spencer. Under the direction of Mrs. Julia Lee Wright, noted home economist, the bureau, starting in a modest manner in one room, is now in its third year. Mrs. Wright, also founder of the testing kitchen, now has under her direct supervision, 150 cooking schools covering territory from Kansas City west and from Canada to the Mexican border.

Services dealing with all household and culinary problems are offered free in response to inquiries addressed to the homemakers' bureau at Oakland.

"Bring a pencil and a friend," is the slogan adopted by Mrs. Spencer as she prepares for the modernized cooking school which will be conducted from 2 until 4 p. m. each day. The doors will be open each day at 1 o'clock.

POPULAR MUSIC TO BE TAUGHT

A department of popular music has been announced by the Eastern Oregon School of Music, who recently became associated with the National Association of Modern Music. A personal representative of the association is here arranging for the establishment of the department. The association is an organization of schools which gathered material embracing the best points of many systems of teaching and arranged them in or-daily progression. There is no definite promise made of the length of time required to complete the course, but exponents of the system declare that when the 20 steps in the course are completed the students can play modern piano with professional finish. The 20 steps include elementary, advanced and professional training.

Mrs. Parkinson has been giving piano instruction here for a number of years. Her students and recitals are well known throughout the whole community.
