Miss Mildred Smith Becomes Bride Of Mr. Daniel Turley At Beautiful Service This Morning

The marriage of Miss Mildred Smith and Daniel Turley was solemnized this morning at a low nuptial mass at Our Lady of the Valley Catholic church, a company of friends having gathered in the church at 7:00 o'clock to witness the sacred and impressive rites. Mrs. A. Rauwolf, presided at the organ and Mr. Whited offered vocal numbers preceding the ceremony. The bridal procession consisted of Miss Constance Ray, maid of honor, the bride on the arm of her father, R. H. Smith, the groom and his brother, Sylvester Turley who served as best man. The mass was celebrated by Rev. Fr. Brady, priest of the parish. The altar was very beautiful, pink tulips and white lilacs being used in profusion.

The bride wore a charteuse green swagger suit with brown accessories and a corsage of lilies-of-the-valley and pink rosebuds. The maid of honor wore a brown sport dress with accessories to match.

A wedding breakfast at the La Grande hotel immediately followed the service at the church. At the table which had for its decorations, yellow tulips and yellow tapers, places were arranged for 14 guests—the bride and groom, the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert H. Smith of Alicel, the groom's mother, Mrs. Turley, of Baker, Sylvester Turley, Miss Stella Van Beveren, Mr. Whited, Leo Bartholomew, Ray Bolger, Miss Constance Ray, Miss Mildred Standley, Mrs. Rauwolf and Rev. Mr. Brady.

Mr. and Mrs. Turley left during the morning for Wallowa Lake where they will spend the next few days and on their return will establish their home at 2003 Third street. Mr. Turley came to La Grande a short time ago from Baker and is connected with one of the oil companies.

Mrs. Turley is well known in both city and valley. She has been quite active in the younger set and until recently was connected with the sales personnel at the Falk store. She attended the University of Idaho at Moscow and was a member of the Alpha Phi house.

Y. W. E. A. Banquet Last Evening Is Big Success

With a setting very appropriate to the day — May Day — the tables being decorated with beautiful May baskets of spring flowers and the place favors smaller May baskets filled with pansies and sweet peas, the annual banquet of the Young Women's Educational auxiliary was held last evening in the ballroom at the La Grande hotel. Places were arranged at the four long tables for the 97 members of the organization and their guests.

The annual business meeting was held, presided over by the president, Mrs. Isis Adler, when the balance in the treasury was disposed of, as is a custom, and the report of the nominating committee read. That report having been unanimously adopted, the officers of the auxiliary next year will be—president, Mrs. Avis Ferris; vice president, Mrs. Effie Sting; secretary-treasurer, Mrs. Grace Tucker.

As toast-mistress, Mrs. Adler had some difficulty getting the program up to the minute as the histo-detector had to come from the Declaration of Independence, the Gay Nineties, Barabara Fritchie and other annoyances to the first speaker of the evening, Mrs. Nell Williams, who discussed "The Past" as the first part of the general theme "The Past, Present and Future." Mrs. Nell first introduced the charter members present, Mrs. Mima McGuire, Mrs. Lou Epling, Miss Blanche Clark, Miss Bertha Wallsinger, Mrs. Cora Scott and Mrs. Thelma Lyons. Mrs. Williams reviewed briefly the auxiliary's history and her remarks lead to a presentation of an excerpt of a program given perhaps 14 or 15 years ago, Miss Jean Williams, in costume, singing "My Cherry Bossom." Miss Annetta Johnson referred to the programs that are outstanding for their humorous side during the years, her talk being followed by a skit presented by the Misses Hellen Hertzog, Margaret Slater and Mary White.

Mrs. Etha Wallsinger in her very clever way talked of the present. She announced as her feature a walking rehearsal which was formally dedicated to Miss Amanda Zabel. Immediately, Mrs. Martha Wagner, Mrs. Vada Fallow, Mrs. Pearl McClay and Mrs. Grace Tucker, directed and accompanied by Mrs. Ruby Skeen, gave the production, "The Three Little Pigs," also in costume.

"The Future" was the introductory of the incoming president, Avis Ferris. Her happy remarks bespoke a busy year for next year and members were convinced, also, when the monthly programs with chairmen were read by Mrs. Annetta Johnson program committee chairman. A glimpse into the future—oh say 50 or 75 years hence—followed the president-elect's address and was given by a group directed by Miss Sara Williamson and Miss Ruth Brown.

Music during the evening consisted of some beautiful soprano solos by Mrs. J. W. Leonhardt who furnished her own accompaniment, and by Miss Eileen Cochrane who brought the banquet to a most effective close when she sang sweetly "Only a Rose" passing among the guests as she did so, handing each a lovely Grande Ronde valley rose as a favor.

The year is now closed for this organization, the work to be resumed in September with a meeting in charge of the officers.

Juveniles In N. O. W. Program

When the Neighbors of Woodcraft met last evening for their regular meeting, the opening hour was set for 7:30 in order that a program arranged by the "Juveniles" might be presented first. And the contribution of the young folks was most interesting and enjoyable their elders report. First they exemplified their ritualistic work and then followed: recitation, Jean MacCuskere; play, Frank Burnett, Frank Flanery, Doris Schultz, Paul Robbins, and Helen Skinner; violin solo, Fern Duncan, accompanied by Miss Clark; recitations, Lee and Leal Graham; tap dancing, Helen Miller; play, "Mother's Helpers," Jean Wetzel, Doris Schultz, Genemary Sullivan, Helen Skinner and Jean Wilhelm; spelling "Mother" Alidean Chadwick, Lois Rassmussen, Marilyn McLain, Arleen Patt, Pat Wetzel and Helen Miller.

The regular meeting of the N. of W. immediately followed. There were 31 members present and Mrs. Edith Moser was initiated as a benefit member. It was announced that the next meeting would be Tuesday evening, May 15 and that the social club would meet with Mrs. Yeske on Thursday the 17th.

Storm Warning Is Posted on Coast

PORTLAND, May 2 (AP) — For the first time in many weeks, the weather man today posted storm warnings for the Oregon and Washington coast.

A storm approaching the coast from the southeast was expected to reach gale force tonight. A disturbance of considerable intensity was believed headed in this direction from the gulf of Alaska.

MRS. MARIAN ROGERS SPENCER

Mrs. Marian Rogers Spencer, home economist, will conduct the three-day Safeway Stores "Kitcheneering" cooking school here May 9, 10 and 11 at the Sacajawea Inn ballroom.

HIGH SCHOOLS MAY OBTAIN PAINTINGS

Word has been received by County Superintendent E. A. Sayre that the government has available and will give to any of the high schools which desire them, paintings made by unemployed painters who have been given aid by the government.

The one stipulation as to these gifts is that high schools receiving these paintings must promise to frame them themselves. Most of the high schools of Union county are expected to accept this offer.

LOCAL COUPLE GET LICENSE

A marriage license was issued in the office of the county clerk yesterday to Daniel L. Turly and Mildred Catherine Smith, both of La Grande.

WINTER-DIRTY CURTAINS BRIGHTENED BY TURNING

The appearance of a pair of curtains which have become discolored during the winter heating of a house may be improved by turning the curtains upside down. Just a little hemming and pressing and new life appears in them.

And if, during the spring cleaning, it is difficult to keep the children out of your way and yet amused at the same time, let them have little dust-cloths and brooms and give them a corner in which to work. They may be of great help.

Brief Biography of a Systematic Saver . . .
F. A. Epling of La Grande, Oregon

F. A. EPLING, owner, Grande Ronde Meat Company, producers of the famous Mt. Emily Brand meat products.

The Equitable is the strong right arm of scores of successful men and women in the Pacific Northwest because Systematic Saving usually plays an important part in the lives of such people. They prosper by adhering to the simple but sound principle of steady saving as fostered by this Association. Here is the brief biography of one of these men—F. A. Epling, successful manufacturer, owner of three retail stores, and one of La Grande, Oregon's first citizens:

1910—Mr. Epling arrived in La Grande, Oregon, a 24-year-old school teacher just out of normal school, to establish a commercial department in the La Grande High School.
1913—Quit teaching to enter the employe of the Grande Ronde Meat Company as office manager; soon advanced to secretary-treasurer. Began saving a definite sum each month in Equitable.
1923—Owner wanted to retire, and Mr. Epling had an opportunity to buy the business for $100,000. Must raise $50,000 cash; withdrew $16,000 he had saved in Equitable and was able to borrow the balance because he had proved that he could save.
1924-31—The business advanced steadily; two additional retail meat and grocery stores were added. Cash reserve for business emergency established in the Equitable and steadily added to.
1932—Crisis! La Grande banks suddenly failed. The Grande Ronde Meat Company had just mailed scores of checks to farmers for livestock; weekly wages had to be paid employees. Mr. Epling wrote to Equitable withdrawing some of his savings. Inside of 48 hours he had $6,900 in cash on hand, and possible failure of the business was averted.

The Grand Ronde Meat Company plant, at La Grande, Oregon. Only meat packing plant in Eastern Oregon. Livestock is purchased in the same district served by this huge plant—the entire Eastern section of the State.

"I count that day in 1913 when I became acquainted with the Equitable Plan of Systematic Saving, one of the most important days in my life," says Mr. Epling.

Write for full information about the Equitable plan of Systematic Saving.

Son Golan is an Equitable Systematic Saver.

Worth, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Epling, also saves in the Equitable.
