Saturday was "Baby Beef Feeders' day" at the experiment station at Union and a group of 125 interested stockmen from eight Eastern Oregon counties visited the station.

The meeting began at 11:00 in the morning with a tour of the grain and grass plots. At the noon luncheon choice steaks from one of the bevers from the experimental lot, were featured.

The program in the afternoon was presided over by P. M. Brandt, head of the animal husbandry department at O. S. C. He called on President A. Schoenfeld, dean of the school.

Among the other officials present at the meeting in addition to President Peavy and Dean Schoenfeld were F. L. Ballard of Corvallis, state county agent; Phil Fortner, county agent of Baker; Walter Holt.

Both teams scored in the first frame—Pondosa started the tallying when Lee reached first on Evan's bobble; Peffley singled over second—Lee going to third and scoring when
