F. F. A. at Imbler Sponsor Big Barn Dance Fri. Night

IMBLER—The barn dance sponsored by the Imbler Future Farmer chapter at the Imbler school gymnasium Friday was attended by an enthusiastic crowd of 75 couples. The "Do Re Do" orchestra of La Grande furnished music that was a rare treat for the Imbler community.

From 8:00 till 9:00 as a special feature of the evening's entertainment, skits and music were presented. The famous radio entertainers, "The Oregon Trail Buckaroos," held the crowd spellbound with their excellent pseudo radio program that gave everyone a chance to meet in person the "root-in", lootin', high falutin', sons o' guns from Oregon." It was one of the best musical programs ever presented to an Imbler audience. They were outfitted in gay western fashion from high heeled boots to 10 gallon hats which fitted in very well with the atmosphere of the "Barn Dance." Their repertoire included cowboy hits and other favorites that were sung beautifully and accompanied by their string instruments. Several skits were presented before the dancing was started. A one-act play, "A Yard of Arguments" in which "Newlyweds" argued about the details of planting a spring vegetable garden, greatly amused the audience. "He" was played by Delmer Fowler and "She" by Marjorie Woodell. An animated burlesque, "Juno," performed remarkable feats of mental and gymnastic maneuvers at the crack of Ringmaster Charles Noyes' whip. Rex Ott sang and played several cowboy ballads during the intermission.

The gymnasium was transformed by sales of hay, farm implements and the walls were bedecked with old buggy wheels and horse collars loaded down with fragrant lilac blossoms.

The high school home economics department served delicious refreshments throughout the evening and supper during the intermission under the direction of their adviser, Miss Gertrude Gehler. The chairman of the committee for the evening were: music, Dick Howell; skits, chapter adviser, Walter E. Ehrlich; decorations, Elton Fitzmill; tickets and advertising, Delmer Fowler; refreshments, home economic club. The committee chairman were ably assisted by all of the members of the F. F. A. chapter.

and in its place came a feeling of admiration. The choir sang with fine intonation, excellent attack and releases, fine balance of tone and tone quality. It is little short of marvelous that Mr. Loney has accomplished so much in so short a time, and that he has attracted so many young people to this, the highest form of choral singing. He deserves the highest praise and the hearty cooperation of every citizen of La Grande and he also deserves all the moral and financial support the citizens may be able to give him. Such a performance as the choir gave would bear favorable comparison with some of the larger high schools of the country."
