Committees Active
In A. G. S. Social Events of Late

Much work is done, and done well, when an A-G-S party is set before the girls of this school. Numerous committees help in carrying on a party. The success of the party depends much on these girls.

A social committee functions just a bit more than other committees in preparing entertainment. This committee invites mothers to the parties; arranges for the permission of a room in which to give the party; and do innumerable other things which call for constant attention during the said party.

A publicity committee posts announcements concerning the party in the halls so that all may know of the event. This group also writes up the articles concerning A-G-S functions which appear in the High School weekly.

The program committee is detailed to arrange for entertainment and dance music for each party as it occurs.

And of course, there is the refreshment committee. What would a party be if there were no edibles.

Minute girls are those girls who do errands for teachers and make themselves useful in general to the faculty.

The art committee decorates for parties, teas and others of the organization's functions.

Clean-up girls have a lot of work to do afterward, but they have a good time during the frolic.

General assistance is important, too, during a party. A committee has been organized to help in this way.

At semester beginnings the Big Sisters' group figures quite prominently in the introducing of the incoming girls to their respective Big Sisters.

There are numbers of other committees which help to make the A-G-S a successful organization; all of them equally important.

State Parent
Teacher President
Here This Week

The Parent Teachers' association was very fortunate in having the state P. T. A. president, Mrs. William Kietzer, visit La Grande. Monday a banquet was held in her honor and the following high school teachers attended: Mr. Gralapp, Miss Palmer, Miss Hanks, Miss Kirby, Mr. Taylor, Miss Vernon, Mrs. Hall, Miss Osborne, Miss Hattberg, Miss Myers and Mr. Wright.

Through The Keyhole

Oh, Oh! Methinks the storm clouds are gathering. Hughie Irwin was seen flirting with Kenne Webb's girl, (Janet Binger).

Are the girls falling for Johnny Inseth. Maybe it's his tap. Mary you'd better watch out for Shirley Zion. She has been seen exchanging notes with him.

Maybe she was thinking about him when she forgot to go to home room Thursday morning and to Glee Club that afternoon. Heh, Heh!

Great Minds at Work

"He thrills me!"—Winnie Scott.

"All the women should be starved."

—M. E. Huffman.

"Of course I hold the record for davenport sitting!"—Muriel Webb.

"Percy said..."—Ethel James.

"Boy, I tell 'em!"—Miss Sartin.

"O. O. McHenry's column says..."—Miss Palmer.

"How class, it's like this..."— —Dorothy Lee says she's in love. Roscoe says he's in love.

The great philosopher, Johnny Williams says, "Love is a funny feeling between two fools"—so what?

This week we give you a sample of the correspondence that is being circulated among the students of L. H. S. Get this:

"Alas! Are you all dated up for this Saturday night? If not, may I have the honor of escorting you to the shindig at Pleasant Grove? You would be the queen on the hill and I know you would have a good time."

Wait! Wait! Wait! This is rather sudden, isn't it? What about your girl friend? I wouldn't like to have my hair all pulled out. Of course, it doesn't amount to much, but it's mine and I want to keep it.

I'm afraid I couldn't anyway on account of I think I'm going to Wal-lows Lake Saturday. Sorry.

Atta.

Kenne Hagalin, who is famous for his song "I got forty-nine women, I only want one more," has got his other woman in the person of Mar-jorie Gray. How about the other forty-nine, Kenne?

What's this we hear about Sylvia Hodgins and Norman Hogensen?

Does anyone know who was with Anna Berry in the car that was parked about nine miles out toward Mt. Glen?

What's this Viola Rogers is saying about not being able to catch somebody even though she makes eyes at him till she's black in the face?

Our Right Honorable President, Wayne Gooderham, suffered considerable embarrassment at the assembly Friday morning when Lavin Price very politely removed his chair as he was about to sit down. The latest reports are that although certain parts of his honorable person were slightly affected, he is otherwise wholly.

Congrats, Hugh Brinten. That was

Tri-State Meet
Topic of AGS
Assembly

An A. G. S. assembly was held Wednesday at 1 o'clock for the purpose of telling the girls about the Tri-State League conference at Pendleton.

Daphne Bowers introduced the following speakers: Gloria Swan, who spoke on the conference as a whole; Stella Jean Ingle, registration and hospitality; Doris Schultz, the party; Mary Freese, the speakers; Mary Ellen Stoddard, songs and yells; Kathleen Pearce, the luncheon; Lavelle Hanna, the business meeting.

At the end of the assembly it was announced that the conference next will be held in La Grande.

The president for the year is always a member of the school which is hostess for the conference. The election for the president of the league was held Friday in the home room. Helen Melville and Mary Freese were nominated, and Mary was elected.

A swell crack you took at me last week. People might wonder, though, why you are so interested in Dorothy Bailey.

We don't think that Oma Mae Herold will make any more bets with Bob Reuter. Well, not unless she intends to have Miss Palmer handy.

Executive Board
Of Letter Girls'
Club Meets

A meeting of the executive board of the Letter Girls' club was held last week. The chief purpose of this meeting was to nominate officers for next year. The officers nominated were: president, La Wanda Cantrell and Betty Bohnenkamp; vice president, Kathleen Pearce and Ellen Torrance; secretary-treasurer, Neva Stein and Marjorie Grey; sergeant-at-arms, Paye Walker and Mary Freese. Election for these officers will be held in the near future according to provisions in the Letter Girls' constitution.

Another important plan that was discussed was the forthcoming picnic which will be held at Cove. This picnic will honor the new members and will be made as entertaining as possible.

Miss Vernon, dean of girls, attended the meeting and also gave a short talk on her impressions of the Letter Girls' club.

Pep Contest Now Hot Race
Between Rooks And Seniors

The Pep contest has three more events: the Junior play ticket sale, P. T. A. and the May attendance which will conclude the Pep contest for 1934.

The Seniors won the contest last year as Juniors and want to repeat this year to be the second class to ever repeat the feat in LHS.

The Freshmen want to win and be the first Freshman class ever to perform the feat of winning the Pep contest in High School history.

The winner of the contest will have the class numerals engraved on the silver cup.
