Local Delphia Chapter Concludes A Very Interesting Year Of Study at The Hugh Brady Home

With the literature of the late Renaissance as the general study topic for the evening, the Delphia chapter met last evening with Mrs. Hugh Brady, 1809 T. 1st street. This concluded the study meetings for the year, but the chapter arranged a dinner meeting for June 7 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Pierce near Hot Lake.

At last evening's session, Mrs. C. E. Anderson had for her topic "The Ideal Courtier," while Mrs. Pierce gave a "Glimpse of Cellini." Mrs. Miriam Rettig spoke of "Michael Angelo as a Poet." Miss Hilda Anderson summarized the Renaissance. Mrs. Fred Siegert described the "Parts of Villan," and Mrs. E. E. Hurley presented Villon, "The Father of French Poetry." Miss Ida McMeekin, Mrs. Brady and Miss Hilda Anthony presented in order, Iphigeneia, the man and his writings, Montaigne, and Thomas Moore and his Buttopia.

attendance of 36 members when they met Tuesday evening at the Odd Fellows hall. Special guests were Mrs. Shadon and her daughter, Ted, of Corvallis. Mrs. Shadon is an organizer for the Neighbors of Woodcraft and is in La Grande for the purpose of securing new members for the local circle. She plans to spend some time in Eastern Oregon.

It was announced that the Past Guardian Neighbors club would put on the work at the next meeting which will be June 5 and to that meeting all members are urged to attend as well as all those who belong to circles in other towns but who live here now. The meeting will be held in the I. O. O. F. hall. Refreshments served by the May committee concluded Tuesday evening's session.

Thursday Bridge Club Guests Of Mrs. C. Zimmerman

Pink roses, which are the attraction in La Grande gardens now, Mrs. Clyde Zimmerman used for her table decorations yesterday when she had for her guests, the Thursday Bridge club, her general color arrangement being pink and white. The luncheon was served at 1:30 o'clock and bridge occupied the succeeding hours, there having been three tables. Prizes for scores were received by Mrs. Fred Speth and Mrs. H. M. Howard.

Mrs. Clyde Bunting will be hostess on May 31.

Rebekah Lodge Enthusiastic Meet

The last three meetings in May and November of each year of the Crystal Rebekah lodge are full of interest. The report goes, as at the first meeting of the three officers for the ensuing term are nominated and at the others they are elected and installed. Wednesday night, being the first of these, the attendance proved that the members of the lodge have a right attitude toward the good of the order and a lively interest prevailed throughout. During the business meeting plans were made for a cooked food sale to be held at a store on Adams avenue this Saturday as a benefit for the cemetery improvement fund.

Improvement Club Wednesday

The new entertainment committee of the Northside Improvement club, with Mrs. Bragg actively in charge, were responsible for a fine program when the club met Wednesday afternoon at the L. D. S. church, with flower discussions provided by that committee. Mrs. O'Neal and Mrs. French. Mrs. Pratt had for her subject "Plant and Garden Enemies," and Mrs. McMasters, "Garden Combinations." Mother Price presented "The Bouquet of the Month—Roses." The final event, in charge of Mrs. Bragg, was an amusing questionnaire on flowers, trees and vegetables. This provoked considerable fun and Mrs. Price received a prize for being able to answer the most questions.

The next meeting of the club will be on the third Wednesday in June.

Planning Social For Tuesday

A social is being planned by the C. A. C. committee of the M. I. A. for next Tuesday night, May 22, at the small recreation hall, to close the regular class work for the year. The program will include stunts from each class and will commence at 8:00 o'clock. Dancing will follow the program with good music having been provided. All members of the mutual and their friends are given an invitation and all officers and teachers are requested to be present. There is no admission charge.

Auxiliary Group Enjoy Meeting

The regular meeting of the L. S. to the B. of L. P. and E. held Wednesday evening in the Eagles hall was presided over by Mrs. Maude Charlton. The announcement was made that the meeting of the social club which had been postponed, would be an event of Friday, May 25, at 2:00 o'clock with Mrs. J. K. Charlton. After lodge, the committee, Mrs. Helen Lane and Mrs. Bessie Harvey served seasonable refreshments.
