MAN BUILDS TRACTOR AND GETS U. S. HELP

CLINTON, Ark. (AP)—The ingenuity of Walter Gatterwhite, Van Buren county farmer, brought him governmental aid.

Without a team to plant his crop this spring, he built a tractor with odds and ends salvaged from abandoned motor vehicles in the community. The whole thing cost him $24. A federal farm loan committee, observed the efficiency of his tractor in plowing and readily approved his application for a loan.
