

WINNING ANGELS WALLOP MISSIONS IN SERIES 6 TO 1

By The Associated Press
Sergeant Gaddy Street's San Francisco Missions are just another ball team to the rampaging Angels of Los Angeles. The 1933 champions swept their three weekend games with the Reds to mark up their 34th consecutive series win by a 6-1 margin. The Reds, who have hidden roughshod over the other Coast League clubs, were trounced 5-2 in their first series with the Angels.

Fay Thomas bettered a 25-year-old league record Saturday in pitching his 17th consecutive victory in stopping the Missions 10-1 with 4 scattered hits. Sunday scores were 7-5 and 7-4.

Hollywood eked out a 6-4 triumph in the second half of the Sunday doubleheader with San Francisco to capture the series 4-3 and hold on to third place.

The Seals took the Saturday game 3-2 and outlasted the Stars to take the 12-inning opener yesterday by the same score.

After booting away Saturday's game 3-2 and taking a 10-7 trouncing in yesterday's opener, Seattle came back to take the nightcap from Sacramento 3-1.

The threat of President Tom Turner to sell every man on the Portland roster unless the team hit a winning stride, failed to help the Beaver fortunes last week. Oakland handed the Portlanders a double licking yesterday, 4-1 and 6-5, to walk off with the series, 5-2. George Burns, Beaver first sacker, started a 6-run rally in the 13th inning Saturday to give Portland a 7-1 win.

IRWIN FINISHES IN SECOND PLACE IN LOW HURDLES

La Grande High school's track and field team closed its competition for the spring at Corvallis Saturday, finishing second in the state meet. Irwin Irwin, who turned to hurdling halfway through the season, finished second in the finals after winning his morning heat in 26.5 seconds, three-fifths of a second faster than the winning time in the Eastern Oregon meet here, in which Irwin also ran second. Hogenson contributed the 1-9 point, tying with eight other boys for fourth place in the high jump. Hogenson leaped 5 feet 8 inches, one of his best jumps of the year.

Walden, javelin thrower, did better than he had done at anytime this spring with a throw of 156 feet, but it wasn't quite good enough to place. Stitt leaped 19 feet 7 inches in the broad jump, just short of qualifying. Other members of the team did well but simply were outclassed in their respective events.

Cochran Woodie, upon his return with the team last night, reported general opposition among the upstate coaches against the district scoring plan, which he said, gave Portland schools all the best of it. Indications are that there may be some change in this method before next spring.

Washington High of Portland won the meet with one more point than Grant High, favored to cop the title. Grant's relay team was ruled out because of a technical violation, similar to the one that cost Pendleton High the Eastern Oregon relay victory in La Grande this year. Four records were broken and one tied. Pendleton scored but three points.

Sport Slants

By Alan J. Gould
Unbutton your ears, my friends and listen to the extraordinary story of Francis A. Schmidt, about whom more will be heard this fall as head coach of football at Ohio State university.

At the outset it is a bedtime story. Schmidt, it seems, has a habit of hanging pad and pencil on a string tied to the bed so that he can jot down gridiron notes as they may occur to him between snoozes.

"Add a 150-watt bulb to the notebook and pencil and 'Schmiddy' will be satisfied," writes Joannie Porter, sports editor of the Fort Smith (Ark.) Southwest-Times Record. "I am speaking for one who occupied the same bed with the angular Kansas for a couple years when Francis was leading the Arkansas Razorbacks out of the athletic wilderness."

"That guy is the hardest working coach in the United States. Even the late Thomas A. Edison managed to get in more rest from his job than Schmidt, who was unhappy if he didn't work at least 18 hours a day. He slept with a pad and stub pencil under his pillow and as many as three or four times a night he snapped out of slumber, yanked the light cord and jotted down something which later was to cause rival coaches anxious moments.

"He reads every sports item that drifts his way and especially studies pictures of athletes in action. 'I remember on one occasion he saw a picture of a Texas high jumper clearing the bar at a fair height. 'Schmiddy' picked out a flaw in the jumper's form, told him and, the Texas coach about it (after the conference meet was ended) and the jumper (I forget his name) went on to win the national collegiate title later that spring."

"There are lots of things of interest about this enterprising fellow who coached a high school team in Kansas, Henry Kendall college (now Tulsa university), Arkansas and Texas Christian before stepping into the big league, but his versatility is amazing.

"He was a star baseball player and griddler at Nebraska, but never played basketball—the sport that brought him perhaps his greatest achievements as a coach. He was awarded an A.B. and LL.D. degree at Nebraska and later practiced law. While at Tulsa he played the 'lead' cornet in the National Shrine band. He plays a banjo, guitar, violin or piano with equal ease and sings quite well.

"As an architect he is above the average and is an expert in watch and clock repairing, as well as in photography. The fellow who wrote the adage 'Jack of all trades and master of none' apparently never heard of Schmidt. He is good at all of 'em. Oh, yeah, he volunteered for service at the outbreak of the World war and emerged, after active service on the other side, as a captain of infantry.

"Maybe he won't win the Big Ten football title his first year up, but that 'pencil and pad' story is no myth and the word might as well be passed along to rival mentors who work under the able supervision of Major John L. Griffith. He'll keep 'em awake many nights trying to figure out ways of stopping his strategic moves."

LEONHARDT VICTOR IN SCHOOL RACE

pects it would be completed tomorrow sometime.
There were no races close enough in this county, election officials believe, that an official count would change the result gathered from the unofficial totals, although a variance of a few votes here and there was expected.

FOUR AMERICANS WIN FIRST ROUND CONTESTS TODAY

PRESTWICK, Scotland, May 21 (AP) — Four of the first seven Americans to play in the British amateur golf championship today won their initial matches in a round featured by the thrilling uphill victory of George T. Dunlap Jr., United States amateur titleholder, in a 22-hole match.

Dunlap, a British semi-finalist last year, was dornie five to G. P. Packerham Walsh, former champion of India, when he staged a remarkable rally with sub-par golf. The slender American captured five holes in a row to square the match on the 18th.

Illness Lays Low "Oldest Man"

Whether Zoro Agha is 156 years old as he claims, the venerable Turk looked like a very worn and tired old man as he lay on a hospital bed in Istanbul. If he recovers, Agha, who claims to be the world's oldest man, will submit to rejuvenation experiments.

Sinus Operation— Lee Johnson, who teaches at Imbler, underwent a sinus operation last Thursday at the Bouvy hospital. Although recovering satisfactorily he will be confined to his home for several days.

From Elgin— Fern Ketter, of Elgin, was a business visitor in La Grande Saturday.

Dean Boys Pitch Cardinals Into Runner-Up Place

By Hugh S. Fullerton Jr.
The St. Louis Cardinals, perched proudly in second place in the National league standing, can look back on a fine stroke of business—signing of the Dean boys from Bradentown, Ill., for pitching duty.

In the course of the Cardinals' winning streak which has brought 16 victories out of 20 games and carried them from a seventh-place tie to a spot only a single game behind the pace-setting Chicago Cubs, Dizzy and Paul Dean have accounted for seven victories between them without a single loss.

NEW ENGINE ORDERED BY FIRE CHIEF

It will be remembered that the pumper crackshaft broke when the truck was en route to the Hot Lake sanatorium fire. Since then the man-chine has been disabled. Investigation by city officials and others resulted in the finding that the old engine was no longer adequate to furnish protection for a city this size, it is said.

The old truck was purchased in 1925, and its engine has been in service here for nine years. Disposition of the engine has not been decided on as yet.

Health

To clear the skin of pimples or, as this condition is designated, of acne, is no simple task. Scrupulous cleanliness and perseverance in treatment are essential to success. To begin with, the sufferer's personal hygiene, and particularly his diet and diet habits, must be scrutinized and corrected wherever they are defective. Too many are inclined to consider pimples as merely a local skin blemish, forgetting that the skin is deeply affected by the constitution and the working of the other body organs.

The sufferer should obey the common rules of good, personal hygiene—regular hours, plenty of sleep, exercise in the open, simple diet.

Fruits and vegetables should have a prominent place and he should avoid stimulants, such as tea, coffee and alcohol.

In local treatment, the affected parts should be washed thoroughly with hot water and soap. If the skin is not too tender, and when it is rough, a gentle pumice stone soap may be used.

When the skin has been so washed, it should be dried and alcohol applied. If the pimples are large and numerous and contain much pus, it may become desirable to open them as they "ripen." The technique for doing this should be learned from your physician, who will also prescribe a lotion to be applied to the skin after the pus evacuation has been accomplished.

Certain cases of acne benefit by treatment with ultra-violet irradiation. This, too, must be administered under medical supervision, except when the irradiation is taken in the form of sunbath on the beach or in the open country. Caution should be taken against excessive burning.

"O, thou merry month complete;
thy very name is sweet!"

THIS being May, we'd like to drop back through history a few hundred years and see the May-pole which James II (then the Prince of Wales) caused to be erected in The Strand, London.

The king wanted a kingly May-pole . . . a big one! So the topmost tuft of flowers and ribbons waved from a shaft ten stories high!

But the part we like best about old May Day customs was bringing in the hawthorn blossoms. The young folks did this; starting off "a-Maying" early in the morning through every country lane, they brought back enough branches to deck every house in the village.

There's something about this Maytime that makes us long to bring the Spring indoors. Have you thought yet about crisp ruffled curtains and cool, flower-shaded slip-cover and thin summer rugs, for your own rooms? A cotton bedspread is new pleasure, and just slipping your pillows into print and gingham covers cheers up the indoor atmosphere. Saves fine fabrics from dust and fading too.

So it's pleasant to change dress indoors for Summer and thrifty to take advantage of the many special offerings in the advertisements. The stores have many fresh, novel new things for Spring and prices are surprisingly low.
