Riveria Parent Teacher Association Has Installation Ceremonies And Close Work For the Present Year

Riveria Parent Teacher association closed a year's activities with installation of officers and a program of social work at the close of the year last evening at large chapel and very largely attended. Mrs. Herbert Evans had charge of the impressive installation exercises, the following being inducted into their respective offices:

Mrs. Matt Coalwell, president; Mrs. Gene Walker, first vice president; Mrs. John Lane, second vice president; Miss Ruth Smalley, secretary; Robert Wakefield, treasurer. Retiring officers were Mrs. Fred Read, president; Mrs. Henry Pieper, first vice president; Mrs. Leslie Stoen, second vice president; Mrs. Ruth Greene, secretary and Robert Wakefield, treasurer. Mrs. Read presided over the short business meeting. The program consisted of some whistling solo by Nephthi Combs, accompanied by Mrs. Combs, a group of popular piano numbers by Miss Emogene Weise, a demonstration in second class scouting by the troop sponsored by the Riviera school. Mr. McNulty is scout leader, but the demonstration was in charge of Robert Wakefield. Miss Nina Kame's third grade group received the picture for having the largest number of parents out last evening while John Bennett's room will receive the picture permanently for having the largest attendance of parents throughout the year.

Cake and coffee were served after the program. Mrs. John Lane, Mrs. John Bennett and Mrs. Hazy Pieper serving and Mrs. Gibson pouring. Meetings will be continued in the fall.

Miss Ruth Smalley Announces Date of Her Wedding Day

A clever engagement announcement party for Miss Ruth Smalley was given Friday evening at the home of Mrs. Marion Stoddard on Adams avenue. The idea of the "Sea of Matrimony" was carried throughout the evening both in games and in the lunch. At lunch, the new bride and the betrothed of Miss Smalley and Mr. Hagey came concealed in ring boxes which sailed on little salad ships.

Both Miss Smalley and Mr. Hagey are well known, the former having graduated from the La Grande High school and the Eastern Oregon Normal school and since has been teaching in the valley. Mr. Hagey is employed at the Pierce ranch. The wedding will take place June 24 at the Christian church.
