Junior-Senior Prom Outstanding Social Event of Commencement Season at La Grande High School

As a substitute for the customary junior-senior banquet, the outstanding social event of the high school commencement festivities was the junior-senior prom, held at the La Grande high school gymnasium last night. The prom was a most elaborate affair, and was attended by a large number of guests. The prom was held at the La Grande high school gymnasium last night. Speaking in the moral and spiritual world. . . All progress is personal. Another never progresses for you. Think! Idle hands make idle hands. It is usually the poor lives who quarrel with life.

In his closing remarks, he pointed out that only One can be trusted for the highest and most perfect and ideal character, and said: "Study to show thyself approved unto God, a workman that need not be ashamed." Rev. B. Marcus Godwin served as chairman and gave the invocation after the L. H. S. Orchestra played "Coronation", a processional march. The boys glee club (unaccompanied) sang "Integer Vitis" by Fleming and "Let How a Rose Ever Blooming" by Proctor and Rev. E. W. Bracher gave the scripture reading. The Girls glee club (unaccompanied) sang "No Shade of Grass Can Flourish" by Bach, and following Mr. Walz's sermon, the A Cappella choir sang "Send Forth Thy Light" by Balakirev, prayer from

"Cavalleria Rusticana" by Mascagni and "O Bone Jesu" by Palestrina, with Georgette Fleser playing the violin after the second number. Capt. Daniel Body pronounced the benediction.

Commencement exercises will be held at the L. O. S. tabernacle Tuesday night at 8 o'clock with Dr. Eric W. Allen, dean of the school of journalism of the University of Oregon, delivering the commencement address, and Chairman Colon R. Eberhard, of the school board, making the presentation of diplomas.

Ehrman Hall and Alfred Tartar had minor cuts and bruises. The car was wrecked. The injured persons were taken to the Baker hospital. Ehrman Hall and Alfred Tartar went on to Halfway where they played in a losing game, with a 9 to 1 score. Turner, another member of the Union nine, remained in Baker with the injured. Mrs. Dean regained consciousness yesterday and put in a good night so that her chances for recovery seem favorable.
