

LaGrande Evening Observer

(Incorporated)
An Independent Newspaper
Phone Main 500

H. W. FREDERICKS Publisher and General Manager

HAROLD M. FINLAY Business Manager

Published evenings, exception Sunday, at 1710 Sixth street, La Grande, Oregon.

Entered at the Postoffice of La Grande, Oregon, as Second Class Mail Matter under act of March 2, 1879.

OFFICIAL PAPER OF UNION COUNTY AND THE CITY OF LA GRANDE

MEMBER OF ASSOCIATED PRESS

The Associated Press is exclusively entitled to use for publication of all news dispatches credited to it or not otherwise credited if published here. All rights of republication of special dispatches in this paper and also the local news herein also are reserved.

National Advertising Representative

M. C. MOOREHEAD, Inc.
San Francisco, Los Angeles, Seattle, Portland, Chicago, Detroit, New York

JOE PALOOKA

OLLY OF THE MOVIES by Ollendorff

O fear the Lord, ye his saints: for there is no want to them that fear him. The young lions do lack, and suffer hunger; but they that seek the Lord shall not want any good thing. Psalm 34: 9, 10.

CONTRADICTING THE CALAMITY HOWLERS

If you read the magazines, go to the movies or listen to lectures, you probably know all about modern youth. Modern youth, as all these agencies have assured us over and over, is flighty, reckless, irresponsible, and generally bound for perdition. Home is just a place to sleep and parents are just people who provide food, clothing and pocket money to keep things going. School has become simply a meeting place to originate, organize and conduct youthful social life principally of the necking variety. That's the picture anyway.

And it would be a situation indeed due considerable concern by sincere, serious minded grownups were it not for the real picture that flashes on the screen here and there ever so often in entire dispute of the predictions who would lead us into a general assumption that present day youth is headed for the dog house.

One of these real pictures is vividly portrayed in the present graduating class of La Grande High school in person of Tom Zivkovich. Tom's record, in closing his four-year high school life, strikes us as a positive refutation of the dogma of many that the day of youthful enterprise and attention to the real things is past.

Tom has been on his own for some time now, working his way through school by doing a janitor's job at L. H. S., and by grasping any other opportunity that presented itself to earn an honest dollar. Yet, in spite of these physical tasks Tom found time to not only complete his high school education, but complete it with honor, take a leading part in extra-curricular activities and wind up his senior year with splendid accomplishment.

Tom goes out of high school president of his class, with a remarkable record of punctuality and attendance that dates back to his grade school days, with a coveted Hi-Dad honor certificate, with letters earned in basketball, track and baseball, and in addition to this served as sports editor of the Tiger Hi-Lights, editor of the snap section of the Mimir and took part in the Christmas play. A fine example of what can be done by a boy when ambition and willingness to work are in harmony.

When one gets down to thinking about it, is it not very probable that a lot of our talk about the wildness of youth comes from a subconscious sense of guilt? We will have to admit that generally during the last fifteen years we have given youth a pretty cock-eyed world to look forward to, what with wars, profiteering, adult high speeding and then the consequent turmoil of depression.

We have expected youth to kick over the traces because deep in our hearts we know that the state of the adult world has been an indictment of our own shortcomings, and our talk about youth's failings has reflected on us more than on our children.

It is interesting in a sane, sincere survey of the situation to find here in our own midst and elsewhere throughout our country the records of the Tom Zivkovich's and many, many others like them. They are refreshing and true contradictions that fail to justify the calamity howling against present day youth.

The Weather

WEATHER FORECAST
Oregon: Fair tonight and Friday but unsettled with local showers on the extreme north coast tonight; local frost east portion tonight; fresh west and northwest wind offshore.

LOCAL WEATHER
Wednesday: Maximum 63, minimum 50 above. Partly cloudy.
Today: Minimum 41, 7 a. m. — 47 above. Rain .01 of inch. Clear.

City Reverently Honors War Dead

(Continued from Page One)
can Legion and their Auxiliary and the La Grande Legion drum and bugle corps headed by J. R. Garity, drum major.

Services were held, following the parade, at the Masonic cemetery, which included the firing of a salute by the members of the national guard.

A dinner was served in the I. O. O. F. hall to all veterans and others who took part in the parade.

Midshipmen at Annapolis are paid $78 00 a year.

OESTERLING TO GRADUATE AT N. D. COLLEGE

Ben Oesterling, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Oesterling, of this city, having completed a four years' course, will be graduated from the Northwest Dental college, Portland, at exercises to be held Tuesday evening, June 5. His mother, Mrs. Oesterling, and his sisters, Mrs. Gladys Douglas and Mrs. Thelma Lyon, will go to Portland for the commencement and later will go on to Grants Pass to visit their daughter and sister, Mrs. Grant.

Nearby Service Clubs To Hear of Jubilee

(Continued from Page One)
and explain to members of the clubs the details of the queen contest for the celebration. An attendant will be selected from each of these counties with three also to be selected from La Grande, as also the queen will be selected from this city.

Efforts to advertise the celebration will from this time on be centralized in points near La Grande, as contact has already been made by the committee throughout the United States and Canada. Very favorable reports are being received from distant points, and from present indications there will probably be around 10,000 visitors at the celebration, according to Jim McLaughlin, general manager.

Claude Berry, chairman of the housing committee, promises that all visitors will be taken care of, Ar-

LOCAL COUPLE TO BE MARRIED

A marriage license was issued Tuesday from the office of the county clerk to Victor H. Gamble, of Union, and Colleen Plummer, of La Grande.

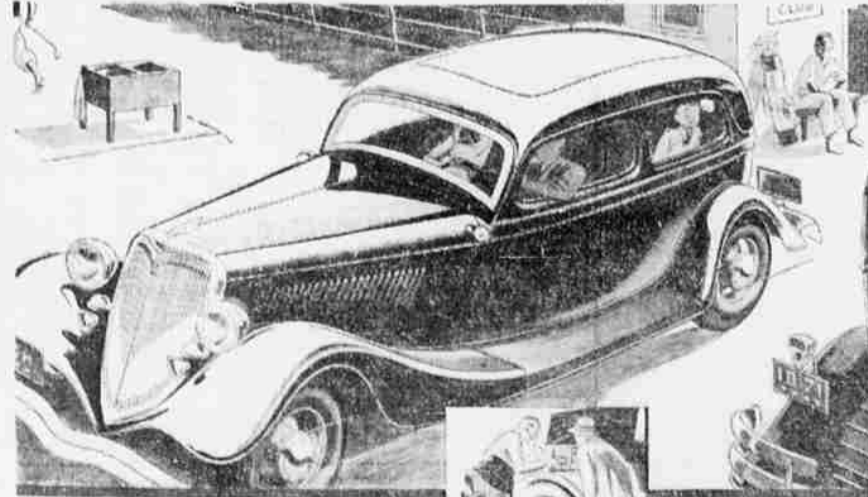

After demi-tasse, cover bottom of small cordial glasses with finely chipped ice and then pour in this cherished cordial. Sip slowly, enjoy its delicate, true flavor which characterizes Lyons liqueurs... famous throughout America since 1852.

also LYONS' BELVISTA California WINES

This advertisement is not intended to offer alcoholic beverages for sale or delivery in any state or community wherein the advertising, sale or use thereof is unlawful. This advertisement is Not Paid for by the Oregon Liquor Control Commission.

THE WORLD'S FINEST TYPE OF MOTOR powers America's Fastest Selling Car!

THE V-type engine hurled a plane through the air at 7 miles a minute... swept a racing car to the land speed record of 270 miles per hour.

SEE YOUR NEAREST FORD DEALER

NO INCREASE IN FORD V-8 PRICES — $515 and up F. O. B. Detroit

The clean Center Leaves are the mildest leaves They Taste Better!

SMOKERS are talking about the whole-some goodness of the fine tobaccos used in Lucky Strike. The reason is, we use only the clean center leaves—these are the mildest leaves—they cost more—they taste better. And their goodness is increased because

"It's toasted" ✓ Luckies are all-ways kind to your throat

Only the Center Leaves—these are the Mildest Leaves They Taste Better