CAVELLI BEATEN BY CECIL PAYNE

PORTLAND, Ore., June 6 (AP)—With a cool, calculated, murderous attack Cecil Payne found his range and scored a technical knockout over Ernie Cavelli in the third of a scheduled 10-round fight here last night. The four knockdowns which brought the decision climaxed a spectacular card on which five of the six fights ended in knockouts. It was whole hog or none in every fight.

Early Post Office, Founded In 1817, Closed By U. S.

STUTTGART, Ark. (AP)—The post office at Arkansas Post, earliest settlement in the state, which once served territory between St. Louis and Monroe, La., with monthly mail delivery, has been closed by orders from Washington.

Established 117 years ago, the office was reputed to have been one of the first west of the Mississippi river. Two years after its opening, William E. Woodruff landed a canoe load of printing equipment and founded the Arkansas Gazette. That newspaper, which some say is the oldest west of the Mississippi, is now published at Little Rock.

For several years the population of the Arkansas Post community has been growing smaller. After the recent death of Lewis Cornell, postmaster for 63 years, the office was ordered discontinued.

Announcement that the order had been received brought a last-minute boom in postal receipts. Stamp collectors hurried there, bent on obtaining cancellations.

H. P. FLETCHER NEW HEAD OF G. O. P. PARTY

country has been "backward in social legislation" and said such questions "demand attention by the government."

They declared, however, that American institutions "are in greater danger than at any time since the foundation of the republic" of being engulfed by the authority of "an all powerful central government."

The statement of policy took the form of a creed, setting out Republican beliefs. Among them were: "We believe in an economic system based upon individual initiative and the maintenance of competition."

The statement added parenthetically that competition should be "checked by government regulation."

The committee's statement, drafted as a platform for its campaign to win back congressional seats in the fall, was issued as the party leaders went into the second day's session here.

A charge that a "small group in Washington" sought "complete government control of agricultural production and all business activity" was in the statement, along with one that the administration was guilty of reckless spending.

Ru Travis, 4-H club member of Catawba county, North Carolina, recently raised 102 turkeys from six hens and sold them for $220.

From Elgin—John P. Hall, of Elgin, was a business visitor in La Grande yesterday.

Improved—Mrs. Maggie A. Couch, who has been ill at her room in the Seacawee annex, is reported to be much improved and it is expected will soon be able to be out.

From The Dalles—Dallas Norton of The Dalles, an alumnus of the Eastern Oregon Normal school, is in La Grande to attend the commencement week festivities. Mr. Norton taught the past year in the Maupin schools.

Returns From Bend—John Speckhart has returned from Bend where he spent almost a week on a fishing trip with C. P. Neiswonger, father of Mrs. Floyd Reynolds of this city, who has visited here frequently.

Have Chicken Pox—Mrs. Roy Skeen and her two daughters, Joan and Marilyn, visited over Memorial day with relatives in Colfax, Wash. While there the two girls came down with the chicken pox and their return home was somewhat delayed.

Visiting Here—Mr. and Mrs. Alma D. Katz are visiting in La Grande from Portland with Mr. and Mrs. Jack Biggs. Mr. Katz is Oregon-Washington manager of the Mutual Life Insurance Co. of New York.

Choir to Rehearse—The La Grande A Cappella choir will meet for rehearsal this evening in the music room at the High school at 8:15 o'clock. The choir is working on music to be presented during the semi-centennial U. P. celebration.

Here For Commencement—Miss June Marr, of Weston, who was graduated last year from the Normal school, is visiting among her friends on the campus and will remain through the commencement week program.

At Pullman—Miss Alice Inlow, who recently completed her year's successful teaching at Rock Creek, has gone to Pullman, Wash., where she is spending a few days among her friends and sorority sisters on the Washington State college campus.

To Hermiston—Miss Eileen Morelock has gone to Hermiston where she will spend several days visiting her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Morelock.

Visits—Mrs. P. L. Smith of Mt. Vernon is spending several days in La Grande receiving eye treatment. While here she is a guest at the home of Rev. and Mrs. Howard Smith.
