Miss Mildred Hawksworth, who has a fascinating summer travel abroad in prospect, was complimented yesterday afternoon by Mrs. Robert Quinn and Mrs. Raymond Gray, who received a large company of friends at several different hours, at the home of the latter in the Melville apartments. A large bowl of mixed flowers in gay colors, smaller bowls of giant pansies and other beautiful flowers were used with taste about the rooms. Mrs. Quinn and Mrs. Gray were assisted in serving by Miss Mayne McCarter, Miss Hope Inlow and Mrs. Helen Groulx. The first hour and by Miss Margerite Horton and Mrs. Mildred Tiss, the later hours.

JURY DISAGREES IN FROST-STAGE CO. CIVIL ACTION

The jury in the case of Leila Frost, suing the Wallowa Coach company for $5200 damages, failed to agree after an all night session which began yesterday afternoon. It was stated unofficially that there would probably be a motion for a new trial, but no definite action has been taken.

The last case to be considered this week in the circuit court will be a civil case in which Della V. Gibbs is bringing suit against the First National Insurance Company of America, for the payment of loss by fire on household furniture on which she had a policy with the defendant. The defense protests that a false claim was filed and that policy provided that under any such circumstances, the policy be void.

Argument on this case was begun this morning with Green and Hess appearing for the plaintiff and Hallock, Donald and Banta, attorneys of Baker, for the defendant.

At the conclusion of this case, court will adjourn until Monday when Judge C. H. McCulloch, of Baker, will preside over the case of Schnoor versus Wallowa National bank in which a change of venue was granted.

With reference to the junior certificate, the catalog states the time of the student taking junior college work is spent in fulfilling the requirements for a junior certificate, leading to upper division standing. The requirements for the junior certificate are as follows:

- (1) Term hours: minimum, 93.
  - (2) Grade point average: minimum, 1.00.
  - (3) English: A general examination in English required upon entrance. If this examination is not passed, a course designated as corrective English (English K) must be taken and passed.
  - (4) English composition: 9 term hours unless excused.
  - (5) Physical and health education: 6 term hours unless excused.
  - (6) General hygiene.
  - (7) Group requirements: Students are required during the first two years to complete a prescribed amount of work selected from three "groups" representing comprehensive fields of knowledge. The three groups are as follows: language and literature, science, social science.
- The standard normal course, uniform in the three state normal schools, is unchanged and continues through two years, leading to graduation and certification without examination to teach in the elementary schools of Oregon. Graduation from Oregon normal schools, likewise, admits to certification in 34 of the other states of the Union.

A broad program of student organizations is outlined, including athletics, forensic and dramatics activities, glee clubs and orchestra, and professional and scholastic honorary groups. Five loan funds for the aid of students who need financial assistance in college are listed. Living conditions and costs are particularly favorable according to information presented by the Normal school catalog. With student fees totalling $14.00 per term, or $42.00 per year, the entire expense for one year per student is listed at $285.00 compared with the estimated cost of $451.00 at the University and State College, as

Included in the 1933-34 catalog. A very substantial saving of nearly $200.00 per year is made to Eastern Oregon students who obtain their first two years of college work here. The catalog is well illustrated with typical scenes of campus activity. Local high school students and others may obtain copies at the Normal school office.

Kinsel made the low medal score and Miss Jane Stange, low net, each receiving prizes for their achievements. Miss Mildred Stuebel, of Baker, made their low score with a 91. The day was ideal for the Baker people entertaining at a lovely luncheon at the club house, with only the deplorable accident en route home, marring what up to that time had been a perfect day.

A women's team match is in progress within the La Grande club at present, Mrs. Harry McKinley being captain for the alices and Mrs. H. E. Dixon for the hooks.
