ham, inner guard, and Frank Lee, Tyler.
J. H. Pearce acted as installing officer and other past exalted rulers who assisted with the installation were Joe Green, Colon Eberhard, DeLille Green, Lester Bramwell, Chester Thompson, Claude Berry and Sherwood Williams.

The installation marked the close of a very successful year, and the opening of a new year expected to be full of accomplishments.

The lodge also decided to curtail meetings during the summer. During this month, one more meeting will be held, on the third Thursday. In July and August meetings will be held only on the first Thursday, and in September, on the first and third Thursdays.

A feed was enjoyed before adjournment.

GRANGES ARE PLANNING FOR FALL EVENT

also are being made this year for a greater exhibit of livestock, with the Smith-Hughes students in the county to take a more active part.

The chamber of commerce will follow the same plan used in former years, it is said. President George Walker has appointed as the chamber of commerce committee in charge of its part of the show: Ernest DeLony chairman; Lyle Kiddie, Clyde Bunting, R. F. Tyler, H. A. Zurbrich and Lester Kingsley.

Announcement was made by the committee in charge of the annual "scream" which is to be held next Thursday, Friday and Saturday at their hall, that plans are rapidly taking shape and that the concessions, etc., are being put in place starting today.

CARAVAN OF LA GRANDERS VISIT UNION

pleted during the day although the beef cattle and horses were judged this forenoon. Dr. McNary of Pendleton, recognized judge and authority on good quality stock rated the Bell brothers' Jersey herd from Cove very high. He said they were in excellent show shape and should they be exhibited at the Pacific Internaional in the fall they would make a creditable showing. Mr. Geisler of La Grande made some good winnings with his Guernseys, Eleanor Richards and June Conrad have some prize-winning Aberdeen Angus calves. (Competition was keen among the beef calf exhibits belonging to members of the 4-H club. Among the 17 entries were some fine fat steers that made judging difficult. Arleen and Rena Choate of Summerville, the Blackland boys of Island City and Jean Ann Richards exhibited some fine Hereford animals. In fact Jean Ann's Hereford wears a blue ribbon.) In the absence of Jimmie Mills, Jay Breshears of Cove was appointed superintendent of the dairy division.

R. G. Johnson, county agent from Canyon City, gave some fine educational instructions to the boys and girls. After judging the beef calves in each division he carefully went over each calf and gave reasons why each calf placed where he did.

There is a fine representation of members of the Future Farmers of America from six Eastern Oregon chapters and the Smith-Hughes instructors who accompanied the boys are: Otis Dearborn, of Ontario; Rollin Schadd, of Halfway; Walter Erick, of Imbler; C. A. Thompson, of Wallawa; E. G. Axtell, of Enterprise; and Cecil Orings, of Union.

Five classes of stock—Jerseys in the dairy divisions; Herefords in the beef class; Duroc swine; Hampshire sheep and Percheron horses—were used in the stock judging contest that proved interesting and instructive. The Wallawa team placed first with Dick Fernald, high point man; Enterprise, second with McAllister, second point; and Imbler third. The F. F. A. members held a meeting at the Union hotel in the evening and reports of work done in each of the chapters were given. Among the speakers who gave brief talks to the boys were Herb Chandler, D. E. Richards and Dan Clark.

The exhibits in the horse division are the best in many years. Ten head of draft horses belonging to the Ponderosa Pine company and six to Bert Shelton are on exhibition. One Belgian horse in the Ponderosa exhibit weighs 2200 pounds and is a fine animal to look at. Jack Hendley of La Grande has a good-looking team of Clydesdales and John Peterson, a fine registered Belgian stallion. In the light horse class, are some promising looking animals. Mildred Standley has a new saddle horse that makes a fine show animal. Gus Levy, of Baker, has a string of saddle horses as his the Conley brothers of Cove.

The classes of fat lambs and hogs sponsored by the Blue Mountain Livestock Shipping association are well filled, there being nine pens of fat lambs and several of hogs. These were judged by Closser, of Portland, head buyer for Swift and Company.

Among prize winners at the show was a fine Hereford steer exhibited by Henry Day of Halfway, F. F. A. member. Leonard Huffman, of the Eastern Oregon Meat market, bought him at a good price.

Donald Ward, Union F. F. A. member, exhibited a prize winning registered Hampshire sow, and her litter of ten husky youngsters also won a blue ribbon. Mrs. Joe Johnson, of Wallawa, also an F. F. A. member, took second on a Duroc sow and litter of eight pigs. This is the first year that F. F. A. members have exhibited beef stuff. Seven Halfway boys have a fine exhibit of fat Herefords, 14 in number.

Josephine Fisher, of Allice, showed a prize winning ewe yesterday and today she is quite proud over a new baby lamb that arrived at the show grounds during the night.

Judging of stock was being completed this forenoon with Sherman Guttridge, of Prairie City, judging the beef cattle and R. G. Johnson, of Canyon City, the horses.

Florida citrus growers have found the repeal of national prohibition has increased the sale of limes, which are used in various drinks.
