Annual Alumni Banquet Closes Commencement Week Festivities For Eastern Oregon Normal School

Upwards of 100 people attended the annual alumni banquet held last evening in the main dining room of the La Grande hotel with a large representation of old graduates of the Eastern Oregon Normal school. The speaking program which followed the dinner carried out the "Code" idea as did the menu, and the place favors and was exceptionally clever. For example, Administrator Posey served as toastmaster and the subjects for some of those who spoke were "Continuously Changing Children," "Poor Wages As Usual," "No Relief At All," "Always, Asking and Answering," "Child's Wants Attended," "For Every Room—Apples." The speakers were Mrs. Bess Cook, William Hall, Leo Johnson and Dallas Norton for the alumni, and President Inlow, who introduced staff superintendent of public instruction, C. A. Howard, a special guest, interspersing the speaking program were songs by the E. O. N. sextet, a group of young women whose work in musical lines is very well known, and by the alumni quartet—Phil Robbins, of Milton, Doris Porsch, William Caldwell and Austin Dunn.

The class of '34 was introduced and was represented by their president, Roy Conklin, of Union. The "Bell ceremony" which is such an impressive part of each alumni banquet, formed a very important part of the program. Ted Thompson, president of Theta Delta Phi, explained the history and significance of the bell and called for representatives of all the classes who have left the Normal school walls to tap the bell a number of times corresponding to the years that have elapsed from the founding of E. O. N. to their year of graduation. Miss Harriet Ahearn '30, of Nyssa, tapped the bell once, Cecil Posey '31, tapped it twice, Austin Dunn, '32, three times, Donn Pouch, '33, four times and Harry Dawson, '34, five times. School songs were sung between courses and the program proper closed with "Alma Mater."

New officers of the Alumni association installed as follows: president, Austin Dunn, La Grande; vice president, Dallas Norton, The Dalles; secretary, Ruth Fraser, La Grande. They succeeded Cecil Posey as president, Austin Dunn, vice president, and Miss Fraser, secretary.

Women Plan Mysterious Event For Tonight

Division C of the Loyal Sisterhood of the First Christian church have issued invitations for an evening which is certainly enshrouded with mystery. The invitations read "You are invited to the marriage of Miss ? ? ? to Mr. ? ? ? at the Central church of Christ on Friday evening June 8th at eight o'clock. Reception afterward." The invitation is extended to the public and as church weddings are always very attractive, the members of this group of young women are hoping that the attendance may tax the capacity of the church.

Presbyterian Aid Meets Wednesday

The Presbyterian Ladies Aid held its regular monthly meeting Wednesday afternoon at the church with the president, Mrs. J. R. Williamson, presiding. Mrs. H. R. Hanna led the devotionals which included the singing of the hymn "Saviour, Like a Shepherd Lead Us," an appropriate poem, the recital of the 23d Psalm and prayer. Miss Maurine Moore, a former resident of La Grande who is visiting here, pleased the society by singing "A Brown Bird Singing," "Mah Lindy Lou," and "He Met Her on the Stair." She was accompanied by Mrs. Harley Richardson.

Mrs. Gracia Roland Victim of Surprise

Mrs. Gracia Roland was given a very pleasant surprise Thursday evening when her daughter, Mrs. John Garity entertained a group of friends at her home in honor of her mother's birthday. Games and visiting were engaged in during the evening which concluded with the serving of dainty refreshments by the hostess. The guests were Meses. Lillie Alstott, Mary Waldorf, Margaret Arnett, Mabel Strain, Della Vorps, Ethel Mann, Marie Endberg and James Garity. Miss Thelma Strain, Billy Fleener, the guest of honor and the hostess.

Shafer Reunion Is Slated

The annual reunion of the Shafer family will be held Sunday, June 10 at the Riverside park. Potluck luncheon will be served at 1:00 o'clock.

Miss Hoyt Is Party Hostess

Miss Myrtle Hoyt was hostess at a party Wednesday evening at her home in the Lyman apartments. Games were arranged for a full evening, among them two tables for bridge at which Miss Corrine Baker made high score and Mrs. Siles, third. Miss Hoyt served her guests who were Mrs. Ella Siles, of Portland, Mrs. Maya, of Eugene, Miss Maurine Moore, of Hillsdale, Misses Kathryn Moran, Marguerite Klopfenstein, Margaret Geddes, Marguerite Zweifel, Corrine Baker, Zelva Clement and Mrs. Avis Ferris.

Swimmers Have Party Thursday

The group of La Grande people who have been participating in swim week recently at Cove held a splendid party Thursday evening at the Tyler home on First street with games and refreshments occupying the evening. Present were Janice Mattot, Mrs. Mattot, Jean Hyde, Ben Garrett, Alice Brown, Gwen Hertzog, Helen Hertzog, Fred Hertzog, Jean Wilhelm, Norma Lee Hauntz, Mrs. L. M. Hoyt, Myrtle Hoyt, Mrs. Tyler.

Eagle Ladies Install New Office Holders

Twenty-five women, members of the Eagles Auxiliary, witnessed the impressive installation of officers at the meeting Thursday evening. The following were inducted to the several stations: Mabel Miller, past madam president; Esther Hildebrandt, president; Agnes Andrews, vice president; Annie Serree, chaplain; Grace Comstock, inner guard; Ivy Shultz, secretary; Hazel Seward, treasurer; Winifred Cass, musician; Goldie Hyatt, madam conductor; Erma Gaeriner, captain of the drill team; Mary E. Morris, reporter and Mrs. Mable Higgins chairman of the sewing club. Mrs. Effie Hughey was given the initiatory degree.

It was announced that the Sewing club would meet next Wednesday, June 13, at the City park.

Potluck Dinner Next Monday

Monday evening, June 11 at the depot club rooms, the Ladies Auxiliary will serve a pot luck dinner at 6:00 o'clock to all members and the men of the Old-Timers club and their friends. After the dinner the regular monthly meeting will be held.

L. A. L. Club Meets In The Valley

Members of the L. A. L. club drove to the country home of Mrs. Charles Hibberd at Rhinehart for their meeting Wednesday afternoon. Three guests, Mrs. Albert Wardell, of Island City, Mrs. Hugh Huron, of Brooks Lane and Mrs. Will McClure of the valley, with the members of the club, made three tables for bridge. Mrs. Wardell received the prize for high score and Mrs. L. C. Smith for second high. Mrs. Hibberd used snapdragons for her decorations in the dining room and about the house.

The club will meet in two weeks with Mrs. Charles Karther, this completing the play for the season.

Methodist Women At Mrs. Clark's

Thirty-five members of the Ladies Aid society of the First Methodist Episcopal church were undaunted by the rain of Wednesday and drove to the country home of Mrs. Renwick Clark, north of Island City, for their June meeting. Mrs. Will Adler presided during the discussion of business matters. It was announced that the public dinner would be held on Saturday, June 16 at the church. The organizing committee presented their report and the following officers were chosen for next year: president, Mrs. Adler, vice president, Mrs. W. M. Pierson, secretary, Mrs. Glen Wagoner, and treasurer, Mrs. A. W. Burnett.

The program of the afternoon included a group of piano solos by Miss Genevieve Adler, some songs by Miss Lillian Knautz, who played her own accompaniment, and a reading by Mrs. Clark. Lunch served by the committee—Mrs. Clark, Mrs. Robert Clark, Mrs. Paul Knautz, Mrs. Floyd Reynolds, Mrs. J. M. Koehenpfer, Mrs. G. C. Headley and Mrs. E. E. Hughes, was the last feature of an interesting meeting.

Visitor Honored With Party

Miss Clara Helen McDougall who has been visiting her aunt, Mrs. H. G. Dow, was honored at a party which Mrs. Dow gave her the first of the week. The evening was devoted to bridge, dancing and refreshments. Guests were Miss Norma Hanko, Miss Genevieve Flexer, Miss Melba Hanko, Mrs. William Heugan, of Boise, Miss McDougall, Arlor Noyes, Charles Skinner, Howard Paddock and Linton Gray, of Alameda, Cal. At bridge, Miss Flexer made the high score for the women and Charles Skinner for the men.

JOE SAYRE IS DIRECTOR OF PLAYGROUNDS

Joseph Sayre, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Sayre of this city, and an alumnus of the Eastern Oregon Normal, is director of the community playground project at Coquille which was inaugurated Wednesday, according to an announcement appearing yesterday in the Portland papers. Joe has been teaching the past year in the junior high school at Coquille, has been re-elected for next year, and when the playground was initiated he was made its head.

HOLD RINEHART REUNION THIS WEEK AT DAYTON

The annual Rhinehart reunion, originally held in Union county, but now held at various places in the northwest, is under way this week at Dayton, Wash., beginning Wednesday and continuing through Saturday.

T. A. Rhinehart, a native of this county and born and reared at Summerville, accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Mack and daughter, Mary Elizabeth, to Dayton to attend the reunion. Mr. and Mrs. Mack returned to their home Thursday, but Rhinehart remained for the entire celebration.

The reunion is held in the open, the company of about 150 people living in tents the entire four days of the celebration. Two programs are given each day and meals are served at one long table which will seat about 100 persons. Members of the Rhinehart clan were at Dayton from Idaho, California, Oregon, Montana, and Washington.

Others who attended from Union county were Mrs. and Mrs. Bill Wilkins and family, of La Grande, Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Crum and family, of Elgin, Jim Eubanks, of Walla Walla, who formerly made his home in this section, was also present.

An interesting fact about this reunion is that it is the 36th year that it has been held and there were present E. A. Rhinehart, grandson of the first Rhinehart who settled in Union county, and five others who were in attendance at the first meeting of the clan.
