

SEATTLE MAKES IT 3 STRAIGHT OVER PORTLAND

By The Associated Press
Seattle isn't going any where in the Coast league pennant race, but Dutch Rueter's Tribe is giving the hometown fans something to cheer about. The Indians shelled Portland 6-1 last night behind Phil Redonni's 8-hit tossing for their fifth straight victory and thirteenth in their last 18 starts. Since returning home from their last trip south, the Indians have taken five out of seven games from Oakland, divided an eight game series with Sacramento and marked up three wins in a row over Portland.

Forty-five hundred fans turned out to see the seventh place Seatleams win and honor the late Daniel E. Dugdale, northwest baseball pioneer and old-time major league star, with "Dugdale night."

Jamming over two runs in the eighth on Jimmy Reese's single, Elmer Gudat's triple and a weak infield tap, Los Angeles beat San Francisco 3-2.

Bud Hayes' homer, a Hollywood error and two walks gave the Missions the short nightcap 3-1 after Tom Sheehan had hurled 6-hit ball to give the Stars the opener, 4-1.

With the bases loaded and the count tied 5-5, in the last half of the eleven at Sacramento, Manager Ray Brubaker of Oakland hit a pinch single to drive home a run for 6-5 Oak win.

MAX MUST FIGHT PRIMO THURSDAY NIGHT FOR TITLE

NEW YORK, June 8 (AP)—Max Baer and Primo Carnera today reported in "satisfactory" condition for their 15 round heavyweight championship fight Thursday night in Madison Square Garden bowl and the New York athletic commission ordered the fight to go on as scheduled.

The announcement was made by Chairman J. Phelan after both boxers had been given an exhaustive examination at commission headquarters by three commission doctors—Dr. William Walker, Dr. Morris Beyer and Dr. Vincent Nardillo.

No vote in the commission was necessary as the decision of the physicians as to a fighter's condition is mandatory under the laws of the state.

throp, Wash., school teacher believed lost in the forest, presumably in an effort to reach Sellick.

Battling fog and foul weather as it roared over the Cascade mountains last evening, the 10-passenger twin-motored ship thudded into the mountain 10 miles from Sellick, in sparsely settled and inaccessible country. In the plane were:

Pilot Ben Redfield, Spokane, who was injured, but was able to concern himself about the safety of the passenger after the accident.

Co-pilot Dwight "Swede" Hansen, Spokane, who staggered, painfully injured, through the timber to civilization last night, using the airliner's compass to reach a telephone and call for help.

Marian Bennett, Salt Lake City, stewardess who cared for passengers after the crash.

P. C. Beezley, Seattle, who made his way to Sellick today with first news that the girl was missing.

Miss Helen Curran, Seattle, who suffered a leg injury.

Robert Clark, Wenatchee, injured.

Mrs. O. G. Johannesen, Spokane.

Miss Mercedes Boyd, Winthrop.

That's Quite a Statement. Let's See if We Can Prove it.

We say that a Michaels-Stern tropical suit at $22.50 is the greatest bargain on the entire La Grande clothing counter.

We say that it has better style than any summer suit you ever tried on... that it will dress you better... keep you cooler and stick to its job longer than any summer suit you ever owned.

No other suit on earth can offer more... and if we haven't proved our claim here on paper... it won't take us a jiffy here in the store.

the security of the men, women and children of the nation first."

"People," he said, "want decent homes to live in; they want to locate them where they can engage in productive work; and they want some safeguard against misfortunes which cannot be wholly eliminated in the man-made world of ours."

Regarding homes, he said the government already has appropriated millions for housing and a housing bill now before the legislators can "stimulate the lending of money" to modernize homes and build new ones.

Of the "problem of readjustment of the population," he said "hundreds of thousands of families live where there is no reasonable prospect of a living in the years to come."

"When the next congress convenes," he declared, "I hope to be able to present to it a carefully considered national plan, covering the development and human use of our national resources of land and water over a long period of years."

It involves abandoning millions of acres for agricultural use and replacing them with better land.

"You are completing," he told members, "a work begun in March, 1933, which will be regarded for a long time as a splendid justification of the vitality of representative government. You and I, as the responsible directors of these policies and we may look to the past 15 months with reasonable satisfaction."

As a body, the house Democrats arose at the conclusion of the message, applauded and cheered for more than a minute. The Republicans sat in their seats.
