Two Alumnae Eastern Oregon Normal, Brides in Weddings Celebrated During The Past Few Days

Tuesday at high noon at the country home of Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Fishman in the Willowdale district was solemnized the marriage of Miss Bethel Fishman and Mr. Melvin Courtney, young farmer of the Troy vicinity in Wallawa county. The young people were unattended and took their places before the officiating clergyman, Rev. Paul deP. Mortimore, who read the single ring service in the presence of the members of the bride's family and two close friends. The bride's gown was of shell pink silk crepe and she wore a corsage.

A wedding dinner immediately followed the service and then Mr. and Mrs. Courtney left for their home on a farm in the Troy section. Mrs. Courtney's going-away dress was a brown silk ensemble.

The bride of this event is very well known in this locality, being a member of a well-known valley family. Completing her course at the La Grande High school, she attended the Eastern Oregon Normal from which she was graduated and has taught in both Wallawa and Union counties, having been re-elected for the Willowdale school for next year. Mr. Courtney is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George Courtney, of Troy.

Announcement is being made today of the marriage on Saturday of Miss Joyce Kirby and Layton Graham of this city at the home of the minister, Rev. Mr. Zimmerman at Dayton, Wash. The bride wore a gray swaggar suit with gray accessories. They will make their home here, where the groom, well-known local young man, is connected with the Farnam Supply Co. Mr. Graham is an alumnus of the La Grande High school. Mrs. Graham is an alumna of the Eastern Oregon Normal and for the last three years has taught the Myrick school near Pendleton. They were accompanied to Dayton by Herman Wolfe and Miss Roberta Kirby.

Historical Group Meets

One hundred people attended the meeting of the Union Historical society last evening at the Sacajawea. Mrs. Kate Hanley, the president, was in active charge and announced during the evening that committees were at work in the various centers of the county, assembling historical data which, upon completion, will be securely filed and carefully preserved. An effort will be made, likewise, to secure some permanent place where relics may be kept.

The following program was offered: Community singing led by Miss Lydia Hug, with Mrs. George Birnie furnishing the accompaniment; reminiscences of the life of A. C. Smith, written by his daughter, Miss Bernice Smith, of Enterprise, and read by Mrs. Harriet MacDonald, Mr. and Mrs. Smith and their three daughters came to Cove in 1863 and lived there until 1878, taking a prominent place in affairs in Cove and Union county. Two dances "My Dancing Lady" and "The Military Dance" were given by the O'Brien twins of Pendosa, accompanied by Mrs. Mildred Mills. Mrs. Lynn Chadwick, of Cove, sang two numbers, accompanied by Miss Clara Roberts, "The World is Waiting For The Sunrise" and "The Rosary." Miss Mabel Doty reviewed an article "The Bustle."

It was announced that a special meeting will be called in August and the regular meetings would be resumed in September.

Shafer Reunion Is Sunday Event

The annual reunion of the Shafer family was held Sunday at the Riverside park with about 50 relatives and friends present. The day was spent more or less informally, the chief features being the business meeting, the short program and the potluck dinner at noon.

In the absence of the president, Mrs. A. E. Hug served as the presiding officer and Mrs. Isaac Shafer served as secretary. Ray West was elected as president of the clan, Newton Shafer, vice president, and Mrs. Charles Sanderson, secretary-treasurer.

Mrs. Isaac Shafer presented the following program, report of historian, Mrs. Flora Shafer Hug, family story of long ago, Mrs. A. E. Hug, instrumental duet, "Lilac Waltz" Louise and Henry Hug, reading, "The

Committee Revises Allowance For Old Timers Celebration

Some revisions in the budget for the Old Timers celebration to be held July 19, 20 and 21, were made last night at a meeting of the executive committee. Reductions were made in some items, in order that the expenditures might be concentrated on the more outstanding events.

Lower Cove Personal

Partners have been anxious for warm sunshine so as to finish their haying. The first cutting of alfalfa was only about one-third crop and was mostly cheat grass. Frost damaged some gardens.

Lavon Koger left last week for Roosevelt Beach where he has a position on a government surveying crew. Rep. Walter M. Pierce helped him get the position as Lavon is one of our "outstanding young men."

Mrs. Nell Kight who had the misfortune to fall and injure her back is slowly improving.

T. B. Johnson sold four fat cows this week.

Miss Valda End of Summerville, is helping at the N. P. Kight home at present.

Nelson Kight, who has spent the past five months at the home of his son Neil, left Monday for the home of his daughter, Mrs. P. H. Cooner of Lyle, Wash.

Miss Vera Case closed her fourth successful term of school at Frosty last week. She has a position at Hilgard for the coming year, while Miss Madeline Fraser will teach at Frosty.

All of the pupils at Frosty school were promoted and Elda Mae Childers and Betty Kight won perfect attendance certificates from County School Supt. Sayre.

Several friends of Mrs. Roscoe Tinknell, formerly Miss Anna Hacker, have called at the hospital in La Grande to offer congratulations to Mrs. Tinknell and her baby daughter, Arlene Lorraine.

J. E. Wiseman and N. P. Kight each sold a load of fat hogs to the local butcher recently.

Irish Army May March In Brian Boru Uniforms

DUBLIN (AP)—The Irish Free State's army may revert to the uniform of the Erin of centuries ago. A proposal is being considered by the government that the army dress as did Brian Boru's soldiers when they routed the Danes at the battle of Clontarf. At present the soldiers are garbed like American troops, except that the uniforms are green.
