Daughters of American Revolution Observe Flag Day With Program Given at Riverside Park

The great value to the city of beautiful Riverside park is often pointed out during the milder seasons. That it is very widely used may be seen any fair day during spring, summer and autumn, but yesterday was one of the days when several different organizations were accommodated for stated meetings, for family reunions, for annual picnics and other events, with not only plenty of room for all but with a lovely spot available for each group with more or less privacy.

Among the interesting affairs staged there was the Flag day observance of the Grande Ronde chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution held near the rocky and the lily pond. Mrs. A. T. Hill, the new president, presided at the business part of the meeting. Mrs. Robert Eakin taking her office as secretary. In the absence of the chaplain, Mrs. Hill had charge of the opening exercises. Three of the four new members were introduced, Mrs. A. L. Richardson, Mrs. Clarence Kopp and Mrs. Flavia Sherwood, the fourth Mrs. Arthur Wight sending greetings from Monroeville, Ind., which were read. Each year the Daughters present to their retiring regent one of the chapter's pins. Mrs. W. B. Pickens having one of the emblems, Mrs. Hill with very gracious remarks presented Mrs. Pickens with a lovely corsage which was very tastefully fashioned of colors of red, white and blue.

The program of the afternoon was presented by the Gatusi group of Camp Fire Girls under the direction of their guardian, Mrs. Ray Williams, which seemed exceptionally fitting. Four years ago this group was organized with the D. A. R. as sponsors. The girls have now completed their work, nine of them received the highest rank, that of torch bearer at yesterday's affair and their last meeting together has been held. They have made a remarkable record also. Twelve girls were members four years ago. Yesterday nine received their highest honors and are now ready to go out as guardians, one did not quite finish as a year's absence from La Grande retarded her work, two

Aid Society In Picnic

When the Riverside Ladies Aid society held its annual picnic Thursday afternoon at Riverside park, there were 30 present—members of the Aid and of their families. The crowd assembled in the morning in one of the shady corners of the park and spent the entire day visiting, sewing and doing other enjoyable, informal things. A potluck dinner of immense proportions was spread at noon, the committee in charge consisting of Mrs. Stinden, Mrs. Gibson and Mrs. Hale.

Mrs. Ellen Stoddard Returns Here Today

Mrs. Ellen Stoddard returned this morning to La Grande to her home at 1502 Fourth St., after an absence this time of ten months from the city. She has been with her youngest son, Robert, who was graduated last week from Stanford university and who has already taken an excellent position in Palo Alto where he will be for the present.

K. D. Clubbers At Riverside Park

Mrs. Jean Ball and Mrs. Lucy Winburn were hostesses to the members of the K. D. club Wednesday afternoon at Riverside park. The afternoon was spent in sewing and games. Prices were won by Mrs. Sarah Young, Mrs. Hazel Starmer, and Mrs. Laura Winburn. Mrs. Lena Winburn was taken into the club as a new member. The next meeting of the group will be June 27, with Mrs. Ella Baker and Mrs. Alta Winburn as hostesses.

PHILADELPHIA SPILL GOOD RECORD
 PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Art Fletcher, coach of the New York Yankees, was in the American league eight years before being ejected from a game—because he tittered discourteously when a foul tip struck umpire Lou Kolls' mask in a game here. The giggle also cost him $25.

My Impatience

The city streets were crowded today
 And crowded far into the night;
 There was bustle and scurry everywhere
 And the streets were flooded with light.
 I paused a moment and stopped to think
 And then watching the people there,
 I found that many were sad and wan
 And their faces were carved with care.
 I wondered whatever made it thus,
 That the people should worry so;
 Can they not enjoy the lovely breeze
 Nor the beautiful sunlight's glow?
 Must they ever walk the marts of trade
 With no time for the finer things
 And know they not the joy of a book,
 Nor the pleasure a picture brings?
 And 'twas then I had another thought
 That I've held quite tight to my breast,
 For I knew that I was so selfish
 And I prayed as I went to rest.
 I said: "Oh God, give us earthlings rest
 And take my impatience from me;
 Help me to help as I go through life
 Yes, to help Thy sons know Thee."
