Golden Bears Appear Certain to Be American Choice For 1936 Games in Berlin.

By Foster Bailey (Associated Press Sports Writer) POUGHKEEPSIE, N. Y., June 19 (AP)—Rowing followers today were still singing the praises of two great west coast crews, the California varsity and the Washington freshmen as they reviewed the results of the renewal Saturday of the intercollegiate rowing regatta on the Hudson.

Here's the stirring sprint past the finish that thrilled more than 75,000 spectators lining both banks of the Hudson River as a great California crew nosed out Washington, its west coast rival, by three quarters of a length to win the Intercollegiate Rowing Regatta at Poughkeepsie, N. Y., for the second time in a row. In this photo may be seen the Navy, Cornell and Penn crews coming up in third, fourth and fifth places respectively.

Spraying has been done before this time and it is thought that this very obnoxious weed may be done away with before it makes any more headway in this section.

YANKS STILL LEAD AMERICAN LEAGUE

The fourth act of their cut-throat series had left the New York Yankees and Detroit Tigers exactly where they were when they started and given the rest of the American league a chance to catch up. Detroit's 6-4 triumph over the Yankees yesterday squared the series at two-games all and left Babe Ruth and company still in first place but by a margin of only four slender percentage points. Moreover, the dog-eat-dog competition between the two leaders had allowed the fifth place Boston Redsox to draw up to within four games of the lead.

Helen Wills Moody Anticipates Return To Women's Tennis

NEW YORK, June 19 (AP)—Helen Wills Moody is looking forward to a return to tennis competition next year. Just before she sailed for England early today, the former champion said the back injury which forced her to quit tennis last season was responding to treatment. "I still can't bend very well," she said, "and I have to be careful about moving or turning quickly as it irritates the elastic nerve. But my back is so much better that I am hopeful of being able to get back on the courts in the fall. "I intend to play in small local tournaments where my father (Dr. Clarence A. Wills) can be near to watch my condition, and gradually work up to the big events of 1935." Mrs. Moody will attend the British championships at Wimbledon as a spectator and tennis commentator.
