Sermonette Edited by Harriet R. MacDonald

I pray not that thou shouldst take them out of the world, but that thou shouldst keep them from the evil. John 17-15. Some believe that to live the life that leads to heaven, which is called the spiritual life, is difficult, because they have been told that a man must renounce the world, must divest himself of the lusts called the lusts of the body and the flesh, and must live spiritually, and they understand this to mean that they must discard worldly things, which consist chiefly in riches and honors; that they must walk continually in pious meditation on God, salvation, and eternal life, and must spend their life in prayer, and in reading the Word and plots and books. Such is their idea of renouncing the world, and living in the spirit and not in the flesh.

THE SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON IN RHYME By Carlos A. Plummer

REVIEW "The Gospel of the Kingdom" is subject of review: Last half of six month's lessons in Gospel of Matthew.

THE FIRST ONE is "Confessing and Following the Lord." "The Child and Heaven's Kingdom" is second to record. The third one is "Forgiveness," which Jesus made quite plain. Then, "All for Heaven's Kingdom," which every one should gain.

NEWS OF THE CHURCHES

Churches of City Announce Plans For The Sunday

Rev. Father Delahunty to Be Guest Pastor at Church of Our Lady of The Valley.

Church programs for Sunday, June 24, are to include the following: Church of Our Lady of The Valley [Rev. Thomas J. P. Brady, A. M., Ph. D., Pastor.]

On Sunday, June 24, the Rev. Father John Delahunty, recently ordained priest in Denver, Colorado, of the Diocese of Baker, Ore., will be the guest of the congregation and pastor in the church at 8 o'clock sharp.

First Presbyterian Church (1308 Washington Avenue) The minister, J. George Walz, said: "In concluding our sermon on 'Comfort shall be to them that fear God' begin last Sunday morning, we will speak more directly on 'The Nature of Christian Mercy.' The present and future rewards," said Mr. Walz, "which God has revealed to His people, will be bestowed in proportion to our Christian diligence and usefulness. A liberal Christian shall be established by liberal things; a useful Christian, who improves his talents, shall rule over many cities; and a Christian who suffers with and for Christ, is assured, that these sufferings work for Him and eternal weight of glory. The peace-makers shall be called God's children; the pure in heart shall see God; and the merciful shall obtain mercy." You are invited by the pastor and congregation to sit with them and think this subject through to its end, service beginning at 11:00 o'clock Sunday morning. The choir will sing the anthem "O For a Closer Walk With God" by Foster, and Mr. Charles Mixer, violinist, will play "Meditation" by Massenet. Mrs. Mixer will accompany Mr. Mixer on the piano.

Riverside Union Sunday School (First and Crook Streets) Sunday school will start at 10 o'clock Sunday morning and will be followed by preaching service at 11 when Carlos A. Plummer will speak. The sermon subject will be "The Gospel of the Kingdom."

Baptist Church June 19 was the one hundredth anniversary of the birth of Charles Haddon Spurgeon, the great Baptist preacher of London, and thought by many to be the greatest preacher of all time. His anniversary has been observed throughout the world, especially in England where the greatest of the nation have delighted to do him honor. At the morning service the pastor will take his life and work as his theme. Special music by the choir will be "All Shall Be Peace" by Wilson.

The subject of the evening sermon will be "Seed and Sows." A song service will precede the sermon. The young people's topic for discussion is "The Mind of Christ on Fear and Worry."

Hours of services are: morning worship 11:00; evening worship, 8:00; B. Y. P. U. 7:00; Bible school, 9:45; Thursday evening prayer meeting, 8:00.

All are cordially invited to these services.

St. Peter's Episcopal Church (4th and O Avenue) 8:00 o'clock Holy communion, 9:45 o'clock church school, 11:00 o'clock morning prayer and sermon.

Methodist Episcopal Church (South Cor. U and Fir) Sunday school 10 a. m. W. B. Starmer, Supt. All are cordially invited to this school and its classes.

Preaching at the 11 o'clock hour by R. U. Waldron of Corvallis, Ore. League at 7 o'clock in the evening and preaching again by presiding elder at 8:00 p. m. All are urged to come. A. J. Starmer, pastor.

Central Church of Christ (1208 Penn. Ave.) An effort is being made to have unusually interesting services at the Central Church of Christ Sunday Bible school will convene at 9:45 a. m. with study classes for all ages. Miss Dorothy Smuts is superintendent of the school. The morning worship service begins at 11:00 a. m. with the observance of the Lord's Supper the central feature. An anthem will be sung by the choir. Mr. Mortimore has announced that he will speak on the subject "The Eternal Certainty" at this hour. Christian Endeavor will meet at 7:00 p. m. The "Golden Wells" group of the Girl's Missionary circle, led by Sarah Draper, will have charge of the Endeavor program and discussion hour. This program promises to be very interesting and every young person of the church and friends are invited to attend.

The evening service will include an especially interesting feature—namely, two piano recitation solos. The orchestra will play a short prelude and congregational singing will be led by the choir. The sermon topic for the evening message will be "The Way, The Truth, The Life." We believe you will be encouraged and helped by this service; both messages of the day will be of a positive and encouraging nature. The public is very cordially invited to these services, especially since the evening services will be discontinued during the few weeks of vacation.

Zion Lutheran Church (M Avenue near Fourth) Certificates for those who attended the sessions of the Daily Vacation Bible School during the last two weeks will be distributed at the morning service at 11:00 o'clock Sunday. Handwork done during the vacation school will also be displayed after the service. The pastor, Edwin Bracher, will speak on the Ninth and Tenth Commandments "Thou Shalt Not Covet." A cordial invitation is extended to all who wish to attend this service.

Sunday school convenes at 9:45 for worship and study of Bible lessons in the Christian Life Course. Classes for all who wish to attend this school. At Ladies League, 7:00 p. m., Henry Jensen will be the leader. The topic for consideration is "Present Day Missionaries." This meeting is for young people. During the months of July and August the league will not meet on Sunday evenings. Picnic meetings will be planned, however, during the summer.
