The Ageing Alone of Rainier BEER

takes more time than the entire brewing process of ordinary beers!

IT MAKES a difference in the taste . . . and in the way you feel afterwards. No indigestion or "down in the dumps" feeling when you stick to good old Rainier . . . the beer that ferments in the brewery, not in your stomach. It's aged for months in wooden casks. Rainier is not just a most pleasing drink . . . it's a health food as well.
