Mrs. Mildred Hoyt Lundstrom, of Alaska Is Honored at Two Society Events Friday Afternoon at Grande Ronde

Mrs. A. Lundstrom, of Alaska, who is visiting in La Grande with her mother, Mrs. L. M. Hoyt, and her sister, Mrs. Myrtle Hoyt, was the honored guest at two parties given yesterday by her mother and sister at their home in the Grande Ronde apartments. Guests to form three tables were invited for dessert at 1:30 o'clock with the afternoon hours devoted to bridge. Mrs. George K. McDonald received the prize for having made the high score and Mrs. Lundstrom received a guest prize.

In the evening, a second group was entertained at a dessert bridge, with three tables at play. First prize was awarded to Miss Vina Conley and the guest received a gift.

Francis Brown Auxiliary Elects For Next Year

Thirty-five members of the Francis Brown auxiliary to the Sons and Daughters of Union County Pioneers were present for the important meeting of Thursday afternoon at the Sacajawea Inn. The hostesses were Miss Minnie Holman, Mrs. William McWilliams, Mrs. Charles Hoke and Mrs. B. F. Owsley. During the business meeting, election of officers was the chief item, and all the present incumbents were chosen for another period of service. Mrs. Kate Hanley, president; Mrs. J. J. Conley, vice president; Mrs. Phillip Lockwood, secretary, and Mrs. Charles Hoke, treasurer. The president appointed the following members to serve on the executive board, Mrs. Julius Roesch,

Local People Wed Tuesday

According to word received in La Grande today Miss Gertrude Conrad of this city and Charles Hicks were married by a justice of the peace in Walla Walla Tuesday of this week. Mr. Hicks has been teaching the Summerville school. No further particulars of the event have been received.

Mrs. Leslie Keffer Complimented

Mrs. Leslie Keffer, a recent bride, was complimented with a party last evening when Miss Leah Bramwell, Mrs. Daniel Turley and Mrs. Jack Coolidge entertained 27 guests at a dessert bridge at the Coolidge home. At the five tables that played during the evening, high score was made by Miss Connie Ray and fourth by Miss Marva Lyman, of Salt Lake, who is a guest of friends in La Grande.

Eagles Auxiliary Sponsor Shower

Nearly one hundred Eagles and their friends spent what is reported to have been an enjoyable evening Thursday evening at the hall when the ladies auxiliary gave a kitchen shower for Mr. and Mrs. Earnie Bush, who recently lost all their household possessions by fire. Mrs. Bush received many useful gifts. After the men had been dismissed from their lodge meeting, the entire group was served some delicious refreshments and then there followed a few hours of dancing.

Mrs. Earl Hooker Luncheon Guest

Twelve members of the Thursday Bridge club shared in a lovely no-hostess luncheon Thursday at 1:00 o'clock at the La Grande hotel, honoring Mrs. Earl Hooker, a former member of the group. Mrs. Hooker has been spending a few days here, coming from her present home at Longview, Wash., and her La Grande friends were glad for the opportunity to spend a few hours with her informally as was done on Thursday.

Junior B. Y. P. U. At The Park

Members of the Junior B. Y. P. U. of the First Baptist church were entertained at a weiner and marshmallow roast Thursday evening at Riverside park, with games, singing and refreshments rounding out an evening. Those present were Cleo Campbell, Betty and Peggy McEwen, LeRoy and Susan Buckner, Marjorie Walker, Kenneth and Betty Houck, Alpha and Mickey Stringham, Opal, Lucille and Ethel Sherman, Cleo and Clara Mae Woodell.
