ENTERPRISE HAS BIG CELEBRATION

Mr. and Mrs. A. K. Parker and son were among the representatives of La Grande at the Enterprise celebration and report a most successful affair. There was a tremendous crowd at the neighboring county seat. The parade was exceptionally fine with 60 floats arranged by business men and houses of Enterprise. There was also a good race program. It is reported, with events moving along rapidly and a good string of horses on the track. The celebration was underwritten by the Enterprise business men who report that the financial outcome will be satisfactory.
