Mrs. Susan Burnett's Family Spend Fourth at Her Home in An Enjoyable Family Reunion

Mrs. Susan Burnett, whose home is at 1905 Cedar street, was exceedingly happy on the Fourth by having all of her children home with her for an all-day reunion. There were present Mr. and Mrs. James Burnett, and their two daughters, Gladys and Doris, of Cheney, Wash., Mr. and Mrs. Benson Burnett, of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. John Burnett, and their two daughters, Helen and Marie, of Pleasant Valley, Mr. and Mrs. Scott Burnett, their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Burnett, and son, Golden, of Catherine creek, Mrs. Lulu Burnett, of La Grande, and then the big surprise of the day was the coming of Mrs. Burnett's only daughter, Mrs. Susie Bruce, of Kansas City, Mo. The dinner was served picnic fashion under the trees. It was a most memorable event.

Mrs. Burnett, who has been very ill, is now considerably improved, it is reported.

Mrs. Kiddie Aid Hostess

Mrs. Emma Kiddie entertained the members of the Ladies Aid society of the Island City Community church at her home in the Grande Ronde apartments for their last meeting. There were nine members of the organization present and one visitor, Mrs. Robert Eakin. Mrs. Reba Davis

DR. J. L. INGLE RETURNS FROM LOS ANGELES

Dr. J. L. Ingle has returned to La Grande from having taken a post graduate course at the College of Osteopathic Physicians and Surgeons at Los Angeles. Enroute home he stopped in Portland to assist with the examinations given by the state board of medical examiners of which he is a member. He was accompanied home by his younger daughter, Mary, who has been visiting with relatives in Portland.

EAGLES WILL MEET TONIGHT

Because D. D. Hale, state president of the Fraternal Order of Eagles, did not arrive in La Grande until too late for the engagement which he was to have had here, his appearance has been postponed until a later date. Announcement will be made of the date as soon as possible, according to officers of the local aerie.

The regular meeting was postponed until tonight because of the fact that Mr. Hale was to speak last night, and will be held at the hall, at the usual time.

favorable prices paid by the different European countries to their own growers. The amount received by wheat growers in most European countries is over twice that received by American growers.

He said he was impressed, too, with the extensive home-building throughout European countries, and the lack of such construction in the United States.

Over The Valley Personals

Have Picnic On Fourth—A group of relatives from the Valeria district enjoyed a picnic party Wednesday, selecting a nice place up Indian creek for the affair. In the party were Mr. and Mrs. Tom Wallinger, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Wallinger, Mrs. Martha Jane Moss, Mrs. Margaret Oliver, of Portland, Mrs. Will Adler and daughter, Genevieve, and Mr. and Mrs. Ray Fuller and son, Dick.

Visit In Valley—Mr. and Mrs. Walter Johnson and two sons, of Warren, Ore., are in the valley visiting Mrs. Johnson's aunt, Mrs. J. C. Briggs, in the Mt. Glen neighborhood, her cousin, Mrs. German, in the same district and her grandmother, Mrs. Preil, at Morgan lake. Mrs. Johnson is a former resident of this valley.

In Idaho—Mr. and Mrs. Albert Hamann, of the Island City-Cove road, drove to Sandpoint, Ida., Wednesday and spent the holiday with relatives.

Countrywomen Picnic—Following a long-established custom, members of the Countrywomen's club, their families and friends, held their annual picnic Wednesday, this year a place on the Grande Ronde river at Five Points furnishing the setting. There were 50 in all, present for the day devoted to wading, games for the children, conversation for the older folks and a gigantic basket dinner at noon with the club being responsible for the ice cream.

At Gaskill's—Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Gaskill had two of their daughters home for the Fourth, Mrs. Lola Hutchison and her two sons and Mrs. Wilma Hatt, all of La Grande.

On Fishing Expedition—Miss Hazel Crawford and Mrs. Crawford, of La Grande, Miss Geneva Suthpin, of Wallowa, Tom and Virgil Wallinger, of the valley, made up a fishing party on Bear creek over the Fourth.

Birthday Dinner Club—Mr. and Mrs. Ernest DeLong, of the Grande Hall neighborhood, were host and hostess to the members of the Birthday Dinner club, their families and several friends Sunday at Riverside park. More than 60 people were present for the potluck dinner served in the pavilion at mid-day. During the afternoon the children amused themselves with the amusements the park afforded, the young folks played croquet and the older ones visited.

A Popular Place—The Cove swimming pool was exceedingly popular on the Fourth with 50 or more of the clan seated for dinner at noon. There were numerous other smaller groups. The warm weather made patronage at the pool quite liberal all day, according to manager, Royal Borkgren.

North Carolina State college will hold a summer school for farm boys and girls belonging to 4-H clubs in that state.

MRS. F. A. PIERCE PASSES THURSDAY, FUNERAL SUNDAY

Mrs. Frances A. Pierce, wife of William M. Pierce, who is familiarly known as "Shory," died at their home at 1510 Jefferson avenue yesterday afternoon after a long illness.

Mrs. Pierce, who had made La Grande her home for the last 14 years, leaves her widowed husband and a sister, Mrs. Eleanor Haven, of Bakersfield, Cal., who is here at present.

Funeral services will be held Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Snodgrass and Zimmerman mortuary with burial at the Masonic cemetery.

TYLERS LEAVE FOR VILLISCA

Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Tyler left this morning for Villisca, Iowa, having been called by the critical condition of Mr. Tyler's mother. Mrs. Tyler Sr. was taken ill a few weeks ago while visiting at Omaha and the wife asked Mr. Tyler to make all haste in coming, as she had failed very rapidly within the last few days.
