Stadium by belting the ball around the park for nearly two hours and nosing out the Cove Cherrypickers, 11 to 8. This left the local team in second place in the second half standings.

The game was replete with extra base-knocks and excitement. Five two-base clouts, five three-bagers, and a home run—in addition to 16 base bingles, kept the fielders racing around with their tongues hanging out, and the base-runners panting and puffing as the scores piled up.

3 COAST TEAMS REJUVENATED BY LAST HALF RACE

By The Associated Press
From a hectic second week of the Coast League's split season three teams—Hollywood, San Francisco and Seattle—have emerged apparently completely rejuvenated by the trend set in the 1934 pennant battle.

Hollywood, a bad fifth when the first 12 weeks of campaigning ended, now leads the circuit, with San Francisco, which finished the first half in fourth place 26 games behind Los Angeles, half a game behind.

Making its hits count, Hollywood swept its weekend engagements with Sacramento, winning Saturday 8-7 and yesterday, 4-3, 8-6.

Portland fumbles and effective pitching gave San Francisco its three weekend classics with the last place Beavers and the series, 7-1. Wyn Ballou and Ed Stutz handled the Seal hurling, as the Seals won Saturday, 4-2, counting two runs on Beaver boots. Walter (The Great) Mills stopped the Portlanders 3-1 with five hits in the Sunday opener. Lefty Herrmann followed with an 8-hit job in winning the second game, 10-3.

Decisively Oakland 30-6 Saturday and 8-1 in the Sunday nightcap, the Missions captured the long series, 6-3.

A considerable decrease in the number of applications for seed loans is regarded as a sign of marked economic improvement in the extensive farm belt of Eastern North Carolina.

MILITIAMEN TO CAPTURE ROBBER GANG

piece from Union. This cannon was made in England 100 years ago and later dropped in the Columbia river, presumably by an English merchantman. Later it was grappled from the river and found a permanent home at Union.

Captain Walter A. Bean will command a company of militiamen organized in uniform of the times, and will give a demonstration of capturing the stage coach robbers.

The script for this pageant was completed today, and the episodes are self explanatory, with the loud speaking equipment at the stadium so give explanations. Only characters who actually were in this section in early times appear in the pageant. Characters such as Lewis and Clark, Sacajawes and others who did not come through the Grande Ronde valley, will not be included.

Workmen began placing blocks for seats at the stadium today, and it was announced that the tennis court would be converted into a press box. Passes for the grandstand will be available at the chamber of commerce office only for the aged and infirm, and others need not apply.

Today an announcement was made that old-time riders should register immediately with the chamber of commerce for the celebration contests. Competent judges will be in charge. Piddlers will be asked to play one tune they may select, and a second tune selected by the committee.
