Miss Dorothy Blake, Homer West Both of Baker Wed Here Sunday At Home of Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Green

MISS DOROTHY—LEAD—Society An impressive wedding ceremony took place Sunday, July 8, when Miss Dorothy Blake was united in marriage to Mr. Homer West, both of Baker. The marriage was solemnized at the home of the bride's sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Green, 708 N. Avenue. Preceding the ceremony Ralph Geibel, of La Grande, sang "Oh Promise Me," and "I Love You Truly," then to the strains of Mendelssohn's Wedding March, played by Mrs. R. J. Green, the bride entered the room on the arm of her father, George A. Blake, who gave her away. Before an altar banked with flowers, the two knelt before the Rev. C. F. Trimble, who read the impressive marriage service. The couple's only attendants were Mr. and Mrs. Marion Chandler. The bride was radiantly lovely in a white silk gown caught with orange blossoms and carrying a bouquet of bride's roses. Mrs. Chandler, as matron of honor wore her lovely wedding gown. After the ceremony, a delicious wedding breakfast was served to the 50 guests present. The young couple left soon on their honeymoon trip to the coast, but before departing the bride tossed her bouquets which were caught by Merna Burgess. Mrs. West's going-away truck was a white sports auto with red accessories. Mrs. West is the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George A. Blake, of Baker. She is an accomplished pianist, being a graduate of the Philadelphia Academy of Music. Mr. West is the son of Mr. and Mrs. D. W.
