

All Dressed Up and Ready for Celebration

Back in the days of high collars and short "revealing" coats — Mr. Hedden was fitting the railroad boys, for "Sunday best" or work day clothes —

All along the line, Sidney, Neb., Cheyenne and Rock Springs, Wyoming, Ogden and now La Grande, the present management of this store, Mr. J. L. Hedden, has, in one place and the other, catered successfully to the wants of the railroad men.

Then, as now he enjoyed their trade and patronage, and at this time of anniversary, desires to express full gratitude for the measure of success they have brought to him.

And Milady Favored High Plumes and Feathers Then---

and, as the style creation of the day, we had them and sold them as we have and sell the new, modern bonnets of today.

and high top Footwear that covered pretty ankles from any admiring gaze---

we had them too, and hundreds of other items such as any well conducted, enterprising store of that time should have. These are old time merchandise illustrations, yet—

Today, as then--- this store is ready to serve you with the newest, finest and most up - to - date nationally known quality merchandise — pleasing the most discriminating at prices that fit the working man's pocketbook.
