Mrs. Chrissy Lester, Richard Lyman Honored at "Welcome Home" Party Given Last Evening by First Ward

Mrs. Chrissy Lester, who has been absent from La Grande for some time on a mission for the L. D. S. church, and working in Minnesota and Canada, and Richard Lyman, who has been on a three-year mission to Germany, were honored at a "welcome home" party given last evening by the First Ward at the recreation hall. The party which was an exceptionally successful event from every standpoint was very largely attended.

A program occupied the early part of the evening, opening with community singing led by President David I. Stoddard. Interesting talks were given by the two guests of honor, who told of their travels and experiences. The Zaugg brothers made quartet songs and there was also music by a double mixed quartet directed by Mrs. Julia Hiett.

The remainder of the evening was spent with games, dancing and refreshments.

Germany Not to Be Discriminating In Transfers of Debts

American note of June 27.
"The German government is as ready to negotiate with the American government as with the governments of other countries relative to ways and means of making possible the servicing of the Dawes and Young loans," Ambassador Dodd was told.

It was pointed out there remains plenty of time for such negotiations since the next coupon payments on the loans in question are not due before Oct. 15 and Dec. 1.

The recent agreement with Great Britain reached at a conference in London calling for a continuance of interest payments on the Dawes and Young loans was referred to conditionally.

"Moonshiners" in the southern mountains are said to find rhododendron roots excellent fuel for their liquor distilleries because they make no tell-tale smoke for revenue officers to see.

Poke Bonnets, Hat Pins Too, In Revival

By Rita Ferris
(Associated Press Fashion Editor)
PARIS (AP)—Old-fashioned fancies such as mother wares in the gay nine-tenths and grandmother displayed in the elegant boutiques are creeping back into the mode.

In the midst of all the fashions which hail from the Orient and Spain appear many little touches which recall the beauties of America and Europe in the days of not so long ago.

At Hat Pins, Too!
Poke bonnets of straw—demure little affairs which hook under the chin—have been launched by Suzanne Talbot, and huge, flat-crowned, cartwheel hats reminiscent of those worn in 1919 appear on half the smart heads in Paris.

Even hat pins have come back. They are short affairs three or four inches long with a colored ball on the end, and are used to anchor firmly in place the wide-brimmed chapeaux which a gust of wind can send sailing off the head.

Veils, too, are occasionally seen and one Parisian has even "taken to" bangs, brushed in a swirl across the forehead.

Long handed bags recalling those of the belle époque in the 1910s and thirties are being carried again. Though their conception is modern, their inspiration is as old-fashioned as a Quaker bonnet. They come in the form of calfskin or pigskin pouches, sometimes with a pocket, sometimes with a pleated bodice finished with a double handle whose top comes eight or 10 inches above the bag. Black ottoman pouches are being seen in the afternoon and evening.

Throat Velvet
The nighttime show shows many old-fashioned fancies. New velvet bands are being tied about throats as an accompaniment to black lace or chiffon gowns. Long ostrich feather boas float by over the shoulders of modern evening gowns, and thin organza gloves in the warm long ago suggest the old-fashioned mits step out with organza evening frocks.

Airy evening gowns of mvalin and organza are appearing at summer dances. Many of them are designed with the deep square décollete and full lower skirts reminiscent of the worn long ago. The waistline of a number are clusters of colorful summer flowers.

ERRORS FIGURE IN COAST BALL SCORES FRIDAY

By The Associated Press
Maybe the arc lights were to blame, but whatever the cause, Coast League pastimes recuperated today from a bad case of baseball litters.

Pumbling the ball with abandon, seven teams committed a total of 170 errors last night, an average of better than two and a half a team, and more than four a game.

Only Los Angeles, which kicked away its Thursday game with sloppy field work, played errorless ball as Emilio Meola blanked Hollywood 7-0 with three scattered singles.

Despite three errors that gave the Missions three unearned runs, San Francisco breezed through to an 8-4 win behind Balfour's three-hit losing.

It was Herman Piletic night at Seattle, and the veteran Indian moundman delighted 7488 customers by hurling his third straight victory over Portland, 11-3.

With four Oakland infield misplays helping Sacramento to five runs, Paul Gregory, former Chicago White Sox twirler, had little trouble stopping the Oaks, 7-1, to give the Senators a 3-1 lead in the series.

LIONS WIN FROM GREENWOOD TEAM

Twilight league stadium ball games at the La Grande stadium last night resulted in a victory for the High School A. C.'s over the Union Pacific team 24 to 10, and for the Elks, who beat the Firemen 13 to 7.

Batteries: High School, Jack McGeehan and Cecil Waldron; Union Pacific, Carl Cook and Larry Meyers; Elks, Roy Farman and Layton Gramham; Firemen, Oscar Marshall and Oase Interlin. At the Greenwood field the Greenwood A. C.'s won from the Sacajawea Barbers, 12 to 5, and the Lions beat the Greenwood Juniors, 21 to 8.

The only game of the twilight league next week will be played on Monday night when the Greenwood team and the Greenwood A. C.'s will play the Firemen, both games at the Greenwood field. On the high school field the Lions will play the High School Juniors and the Barbers will play the Normal team.

Sonnenberg Wins Portland Match

PORTLAND, July 14 (AP)—While before Verne Harrington was lying on the ground outside the ring after going through the ropes from one of Gus Sonnenberg's flying tackles, Ted Cox turned on the Bostonian with a left to the jaw and proceeded to climb aboard for what should have been the deciding fall. But with no referee present it didn't count. When Harrington recovered and reentered the ring, Sonnenberg suddenly came from behind to clip the Californian and send him to the mat for the deciding fall.
