Miss Eileen Morelock, Jesse Andrews Are Married in Quiet Ceremony Saturday, Will Make Their Home in La Grande

A wedding which has considerable local interest was that of Miss Eileen Morelock and Jesse V. Andrews, which was solemnized Saturday evening. The ring service was impressively read by Rev. J. George Wals at 8:30 o'clock in the presence of Mr. and Mrs. A. V. Andrews, parents of the groom and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Hiatt, Sr., Mr. and Mrs. Andrews left at once on a short honeymoon to Walla Walla Lake and on their return will take up their residence at 904 Penn avenue.

Mrs. Andrews, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Morelock, until recently La Grande residents, is a popular local young woman and for a number of years has been a successful teacher in one of the grade schools. Mr. Andrews, a prominent young business man of the city is active in numerous circles particularly the American Legion and is an officer in the national guard.

E. O. N. Students Enjoy Picnic

The annual summer school picnic for the students at the Eastern Oregon Normal school was an event of Friday evening at Pine Cone. The picnic supper was served early in the evening and there were several hours devoted to swimming, baseball and other sports. A campfire with singing and games concluded the evening. Miss Helen S. Moor, dean of women and Elmo Stevenson, dean of men, had charge of the arrangements.

The L. S. to B. of L. F. & E. will meet at the Eagles hall, Wednesday evening, July 18, at 8:00 o'clock.

Idaho Visitor Is Honored

Raymond Brown, of Gooding, Ida., who is in La Grande at present visiting with his grandmother, Mrs. Frank Wilson, was honored at a party given Saturday at the playground. The day was his birthday anniversary and the party was given by Mr. and Mrs. Frank DeKalb.

Missionary Group Have Lawn Party

Members of the Women's Missionary society of the First Presbyterian church enjoyed a lawn meeting at the home of Mrs. Mammie Lewis, Friday afternoon. The hostess committee included Mrs. Lowell Williamson, Mrs. Lewis and Mrs. Nancy Young. The program of the afternoon consisted of a dramatization of "The Missionary Called Home" the parts having been skilfully taken by Mmes. Lewis, Eakin, Pickens, E. E. Hurley, A. T. Hill and Williamson. The committee served late in the afternoon.

PLAN PROGRAM AT ASSEMBLY ON TUESDAY

The assembly program to be presented Tuesday, July 17, at 11:15 o'clock in the Eastern Oregon Normal school auditorium will be of special interest to citizens of La Grande because of its correlation with the Semi-Centennial U. P. celebration to be held this week. Using puppets, which they have made in their art classes, as their medium of expression, pupils of the sixth, seventh and eighth grades will portray in pageant form high spots in their unit of study on Oregon. Progress in means of transportation is the predominating theme.

proceeding with all possible haste to prepare plans for a general strike. This was being done, the committee declared, because the attitude of the ship owners makes it useless and impossible to continue efforts to compose the differences existing in the waterfront controversy. Sixty locals were reported to have cast overwhelming secret votes to stage a general walk-out, despite the statement of union leaders that no union had yet voted.

ty, and girls from Wallawa and Baker counties will be announced shortly. Among the other contestants was Miss Alice Wilde, of Union, who in the last days of the contest, obtained 4710 votes. The queen began her round of activity yesterday when she posed for photographs, conferred with Mrs. Donald Rohan, in charge of preparing the royal costume, and was busy with other items of a similar nature. Miss Walker is a great-granddaughter of Albert Good, valley pioneer who homesteaded what is now known as the McCall place. He left Pennsylvania in the early spring of 1865, coming by rail to St. Joseph, Mo., then by oxen across the plains to Salmon Falls, Idaho, where he was engaged with Briggs & Clark to operate a ferry. In the following spring he came on to La Grande where he freighted until 1872, when he turned to farming. Her grandfather, Frank Carpenter, was for 40 years a railroad employe and her father, Emmett Walker, also has been employed by the U. P. for many years. Mrs. Lizzie March and Mrs. Jesse Hoak are aunts of Miss Walker. Both are valley pioneers.

2,000 MORE GUARDSMEN CALLED OUT

roving bands of strike pickets attempted a complete stoppage of food supplies to the population of 1,300,000 persons. However, a definite program to continue all food supplies to the strike-torn city was announced today by Jack Shelly, secretary of the executive committee of the labor unions. "Permits will be issued for the transportation of groceries, etc.," he said.

Increasing outbreaks of violence were reported as thousands of workers were forced to walk to their jobs when all street car service was halted by the strike. Officers in Oakland were reported raiding communist headquarters this afternoon. Four were arrested after a pitched battle. Tanks were loaded on railroad flat cars at Salinas and sped on their way to the "hatterfords."

Raiders by mobs, on grocery stores increased. Rioters threatened the proprietors supplies. The fear of starvation caused state highway police to provide immediate escorts for the first food trucks which attempted to reach the area from Sacramento. The state has 7,000 troops at its command and a regular army officer here said he believed the soldiers would be able to take care of the situation. Should the regular troops be called, however, the officer said 500 men of the 30th infantry were ready and 300 more soldiers could be mustered almost immediately. Police issued "mow on" orders to all groups congregating in the downtown streets.

Mayor Rossi was the center of a disturbance in front of the hall of justice, where he went to confer with Chief of Police William J. Quinn on the crisis. Six alleged communists surrounded the mayor and shouted epithets at him. Chief Quinn personally went to Rossi's aid and locked up the disturbers. WASHINGTON, July 16 (AP)—While no request for federal assistance have been received, official Washington scanned carefully all reports from the San Francisco strike area today and army, navy and relief agencies evidenced a readiness to act if the emergency demanded it. SCRANTON, Pa., July 16 (AP)—William Green, president of the American Federation of Labor, says he does not look for a quick settlement of the general strike called in San Francisco. "I see no prospect of any immediate clearing up of the San Francisco situation," he remarked when questioned about conditions on the Pacific coast. SEATTLE, July 16 (AP)—Labor leaders reiterated here today that Seattle is not facing a general strike. "I know of no one in authority who has even contemplated the idea," said Davis Beck, northwest organizer for the International Teamsters' union. Two men were beaten last night in connection with the longshore strike. SACRAMENTO, Cal., July 16 (AP)—Mayor Con J. Franke of Stockton today called upon Acting Governor Frank P. Merriam for national guard troops to protect the Stockton waterfront where large consignments of products, tied up by the maritime strike, are accumulating. Portland Quiet With Strike Board Meeting (Continued From Page One) ions of gasoline was left in the city and adjacent territory for the motoring public. The labor "strategy" committee said "a statement" would be issued at the conclusion of today's meeting. A statement made by the group Sunday declared "this committee is

JUNIORS NOSED OUT 5 TO 4 BY PENDLETON NINE

The La Grande American Legion Juniors lost a close game to the Pendleton Juniors at Pendleton yesterday being nosed out 5 to 4 in a hard-fought interesting contest. It was of an exhibition nature and the outcome does not affect either team's chances in their district schedules. Some time ago Pendleton won from La Grande here 8 to 1, indicating the improvement the La Grangers have made since that time. The batteries were: La Grande—Koyke and Walden; Pendleton, Webb and McKee.

MAX BAER WON'T FIGHT THIS FALL

NEW YORK, July 16 (AP)—Max Baer, through his manager, Ancil Hoffman, today notified Madison Square Garden that he chose not to defend his heavyweight boxing title this fall. Colonel John Reed Kilpatrick, in announcing receipt of the message, said he would have something to say later as to the garden's plans. It was expected he would announce a series of elimination contests among would-be challengers, including Carnera for the fall and winter to select an opponent for Baer next June.

Pupils Present Program Friday At East Normal

Pupils of the fourth and fifth grades of the J. H. Ackerman Training school summer session showed considerable creative ability in the program presented Friday July 13. An orchestra made up of instruments found or made by the pupils played themes, some of which were composed by members of the classes. All members of the group participated in the orchestra. The program was as follows: Prologue—Played on the Victrola accompanied by the orchestra. Firefly—A song composed and sung by the entire class. Stars—Sung by the group and played on the tuned glasses by Adrienne See. Le Secret—Victrola with orchestra accompaniment. Summer is the Time For Play—A song composed by the class, sung by the group then transposed into the key of C and played on the xylophone by Richard Rode. I Have a Little Pony—An original song, words composed by Adrienne See, melody by Richard Rode. Sung by Richard Rode, Jimmie Saling and Eugene Alford. Butterfly Dance—Victrola with drum accompaniment, dance by five girls. America, the Beautiful, by the audience. Following the music section of the program a scene from Guki, the Moon Boy, was presented by members of the Dramatic club under the direction of Miss Frances White. Effective lighting, stage setting and dramatic ability on the part of the pupils made this an interesting part of the program.

Oklahoma's 1 per cent general retail sales tax returned about $4,000,000 in its first year of operation ending early in July.

Fair Bathers Take Shower

On a warm afternoon a half dozen beauties from Neptune Follies at the new World's Fair slip away to enjoy the cooling spray of a shower in the largest bath tub in the world at the Crane & Company exhibit. They seem too happy to notice that their play is being laughingly overseen by men who peep at them through the glass window that forms a part of the side of the tub. But, after all, they are more or less on exhibition, and they did not tremble at public gaze.

ANGELS DROP 2 SERIES IN ROW IN COAST LOOP

By The Associated Press The winning fire Seattle knocked out of Los Angeles the week before last has not flamed again. Today the once all-powerful Angels who ran away with the first half Coast League title languished in a fourth place tie with the Missions after dropping their second straight series. Until the Seattle blow Jack Lettvelt's crew had not lost a series this year. Now the 1933 champions have taken the count twice in two weeks. Holywood's rejuvenated Stars did the trick yesterday, trimming the Angels in a twin bill, 5-4, 8-7, to take the series 4-3. Outlasting San Francisco in 12 innings Saturday 10-9 and taking the Sunday opener 10-0 as Dutch Lieber allowed but six hits, the Missions captured their hometown series with the Seals, 5-3. After Portland had come out ahead 4-3 Saturday night, Dutch Ruetter's surprising Seattle Indians turned on the pressure to win the Sunday doubleheader, 8-3, 9-0, and the series 5-2. Oakland made the only weekend sweep, walloping Sacramento 12-3 Saturday and 4-3, 1-0 yesterday to take the series 5-2.
