Mrs. O. K. Smith and her two daughters, Eleanor and Marjorie, who are here from Oakland, Cal., visiting Mrs. Smith's parents, Judge and Mrs. U. G. Couch, have figured in a number of social events the past few days. Yesterday morning Mrs. P. A. Epling, Mrs. Thomas McGuire and Mrs. George S. Brink entertained a few friends at breakfast. The affair was held on the beautiful Epling lawn with other guests besides the Californians being Mrs. Couch, Mrs. Clyde Setz and Miss Martha McKennon.

During the weekend the party were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh McCall at Haines, the lovely dinner served by Mrs. McCall being supplemented by a swimming party at Radium Springs.

Saturday being Mrs. Couch's birthday, Mrs. Smith and her daughters invited the members of the several families in the McCall connection to a dinner which they served at the Couch home at Island City. It was a most enjoyable occasion.

A vari-colored semi-paper sphere served as a centerpiece on a long table, and cleverly concealed in pockets in the sphere were china doll favors, attached to yellow and white ribbons. Around the centerpiece were favors representing prehistoric animals, with candy suckers attached. A color scheme of yellow, white and green was followed through and the birthday cake was in yellow and white.
