There is that scattereth, and yet increaseth; and there is that withholdeth more than is meet, but it tendeth to poverty.—Proverbs 11:24.

IMAGINE HITLER RULE IN U. S.
To get a real idea of what life under German Fascism is like, use your imagination and transplant the whole business to American soil. Pretend, that is, that we are laboring under Nazism and that the things that have happened in Germany of late have really happened over here. It may put a strain on your imagination, of course—but try it, and see what you get.

You start by imagining that all political parties but the Democratic party have been forcibly suppressed. Herbert Hoover has been driven into exile; Henry Fletcher runs what is left of the Republican party from a safe haven in Mexico City. Ogden Mills is languishing in Leavenworth; many other well known personages and leaders have been shot.

Congress is composed solely of party henchmen picked by Jim Farley; but that makes little difference, for it meets only when Mr. Roosevelt says it may, and it does exactly what he tells it to do. There won't be any fall elections; if there were, all the voter could do would be to make a blanket endorsement of all Democratic candidates, with a flock of Tammany thugs around to beat him up if he refused.

The editor of your favorite newspaper prints an editorial suggesting that the NRA is somewhat less than perfect, and is immediately thrown in jail. You yourself happen to remark that you think General Johnson is a flat tire, and the Department of Justice lugs you off to a concentration camp in Georgia. No public speaker, no editor, no magazine writer dares to suggest that Mr. Roosevelt is anything but the wisest president we have ever had.

Then, to cap things properly, imagine that the Democrats have had an internal row, and that the president settles it by having Carter Glass, Huey Long, Bernard M. Baruch, and Al Smith executed with only a semblance of a trial. All this makes a dizzy, nightmarish picture. Yet it is only a pale approximation of the reality in Germany today and looking at it like that is a good mental exercise. It should impress upon your mind how unutterably precious the liberties of a democracy really are. Without them, life becomes grotesque and horrible. Their preservation is the greatest responsibility we can possibly have.

path to the central court, on a raised platform, and the princesses, the queen and juvenile attendants marched to the coronation. There Lee Hanford, acting as the king's regent—Hanford is chairman of the general committee in charge of the celebration—and president of the Old Timers club sponsoring the jubilee, placed the royal crown on Queen Faye's brunet locks, and the Ladies' Choir sang into appropriate song. Then Queen Faye delivered her address, accepting the reign, which was followed by a solo by Joyce Hendrickson.

Then came a series of dances in celebration of the gala event, first the flower girls providing a spring dance and then some 200 girls, in two sections—the smaller children in the first and the older ones in the second, presented a series of mass dances that delighted the huge audience. Appropriately dressed and with every movement clearly seen under the brilliant illumination, the dancers presented a beautiful picture.

Following this band music opened the closing ceremony, the triumphal return of the queen and her princesses to the scene of the coronation to the scene of Queen Faye's reign.

Band music was furnished by the La Grande band and the Ogden band, two of the best known musical organizations in the west. The buglers were Clifford Crowley and Stewart Wyde, sixth and seventh graders, respectively. Phyllis McLaughlin was the crown bearer.
All in all, it was a magnificent service, one that will linger long in the memory of the audience, and a fitting beginning of the closing two days of the semi-centennial here.

Corrigan Takes Note Of Nepotism Charges

here attending the Semi-Centennial Union Pacific celebration.
"In view of the criticisms which have appeared in the public press within the past few days with relation to game administration and which seriously threatened the game program in Oregon," Corrigan stated, "I have requested an early meeting of the commission for the purpose of bringing the matter to the official attention of the entire commission."
Further than that, Corrigan had nothing to say. The date of the forthcoming meeting will be set later.

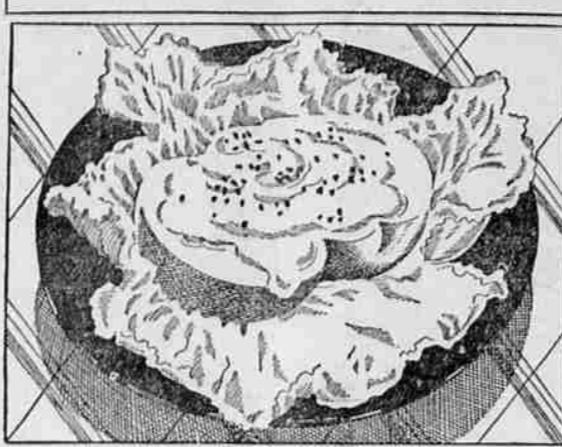

Charges of nepotism have been aimed at Corrigan by several sportsmen's organizations this week, claiming that a plan was on foot to place Marion Corrigan, his son, in the position now held by Gene Simpson, bird hatchery supervisor.
Corrigan also commented on the elk season for this year, declaring he believed all differences had been ironed out and proper provisions made for law enforcement. The commission, he said, followed written recommendations of local sportsmen in setting the season.

ST. HELENS—The value of western eye grass as an emergency crop that will make hay the same year it is planted has been demonstrated in Columbia county where considerable of it was planted this spring after the winter floods and excellent results are being obtained, according to George A. Nelson, county agent. On the Herman Mahnen farm just Midland western eye grass was planted the first of April and will be ready to cut 80 days later. It will undoubtedly produce two and three tons per acre, Mr. Nelson said.

A $1.00 Dinner for 4

THE salad is the grisly of the menu. While the other courses hold rigidly to their conventional order of appearance, the salad rounds, sometimes entering at the beginning of dinner, sometimes as a main dish, and sometimes as a dessert. In this menu, it comes last, ending the dinner with serene charm. And what a dinner this is—considering the fact that it serves four people at a cost of only twenty-five cents apiece!

BEND—Believing that head lettuce for fall markets may be established as a profitable cash crop in Deschutes county, a number of farmers are cooperating with County Agent Gus Hagglund in trials to obtain comparisons on time of planting and soil fertilization. The Deschutes climate, with its cool summer nights, is said to be decidedly favorable for the production of a September lettuce crop, and it is believed that there is sufficient market in the month of September to warrant such a project, Mr. Hagglund says. Eight varieties and strains of the best certified lettuce seed obtainable are being grown as practical demonstrations on the farms of Rasmus Petersen, Carl Blomberg and J. L. Metts, all of Redmond.

PHILADELPHIA PHILS' SHOW

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Two baseball oddities occurred in a double header here between the Phillies and the Boston Braves. In the first game the Braves finished without having a single man on base, and in the second not a Philly outfielder had a single fielding chance.

The nobody-left-on-base feat was done with a vengeance on June 22, 1929, when the Athletics and the New York Yankees played 14 innings without any base-runner being stranded.

THE TIRE SENSATION OF '34 Sells on Sight!

To SEE it is to buy it! That's the way extra value stands out in the new Firestone Century Progress Tire. We found out what car owners wanted most in a tire—then we gave it to them. Out of more than ten million visitors to the Firestone Factory at the World's Fair last year, we obtained this opinion: "Give us Blowout Protection, Non-Skid Safety, and Long Wear, at a Moderate Price."

So we built the greatest tire ever made to sell at these low prices. Then the wave of buying started—car owners from Coast to Coast bought—not just one or two tires—but a complete set!

Go to the Firestone Service Dealer or Service Store in your community TODAY! See the new Firestone Century Progress Tire—just look at the broad, husky shoulders, massive flat tread, deep-cut non-skid and Gum-Dipped cords. Did you ever see so much tire for so little money? ## A Champion's Advice..

"Eat a White Star Tuna sandwich before every game!"

White Star Tuna is a "quick energy" food. Because only the tender, delicate light meat is packed, it is an easily digested, easily assimilated food.

White Star Tuna contains Vitamins "A" and "D"... iodine, effective preventive of nutritional goiter, and other valuable minerals. No wonder it's the choice of champions, both in sports and in business, who want to stay away from "heavy" foods which slow up their activity!

More of this quality tuna is sold than all other brands combined! It's the one food delicacy that costs no more than "staple" foods!

For 21 years the preferred brand, because only the finest of the catch is packed.
