HISTORY OF OLD OREGON RE-ENACTED

Figures of Pioneer Days Step Forth to Walk Once More.

INDIANS PLAY AN IMPORTANT PART

Pageant of Transportation Follows Historical Prologue in Closing Event of Jubilee.

Builders of the Oregon country, long since passed on to their final reward, stepped from the pages of history here Saturday to play their famous parts again—for the reverent attention of 10,000 Semi-Centennial U. P. celebration attendees, who gathered in the La Grande stadium for this final event of the jubilee regardless of cloudy, threatening weather.

But the re-enactment of scenes of a century gone by was not all. It served as a dramatic prologue to an equally effective portion of the closing program of the celebration, replete with show and thrilling episodes. Queen Faye and her court took their place preceding the opening of the pageantry, and then half a hundred Indians appeared over the edge of Table mountain—west of the stadium—soon to ride down the slopes over the original Old Oregon Trail, a sight that has not been seen here for many, many decades, and may

60 Boys Enroll For Camp To Be Held Near Union

About 60 boys have already registered for the camp on Catherine creek to begin July 28 and continue through August 5, according to Elmo Stevenson, who is in charge of activities at the camp. It is expected that there will be close to 100 boys registered for the camp, regarded as a very good attendance. About 20 of those already registered are from Union and it is expected that there will be an equal number yet to register from there.

Stevenson stated that the camp is not only for Boy Scouts, but for all boys of the city who wish to attend. The attendance, however, is usually made up mainly of Boy Scouts but no boy need be kept from attending the camp because of non-membership in a Boy Scout troop.

CELEBRATION SUBJECT OF SHORT TALKS

"PHANTOM CARAVAN" WRITTEN BY SHAW

During the Semi-Centennial U. P. celebration pageant at the stadium Saturday afternoon the significance of a song sung by Mrs. W. H. Parkinson was missed by many in the thousands of spectators. It was "The Phantom Caravan," theme song of the event, and was written as a poem shortly before the Mescham Old Oregon Trail celebration in 1923 by Wilbur Shaw, then pressman for the Observer but now of Pocatello, Idaho. Later Mrs. Parkinson volunteered to write music for the poem and Leo Cullen Bryant assisted in arranging the score for the band.

The poem by Mr. Shaw follows: THE PHANTOM CARAVAN Impatient, with the urge of life And fierce desire, that dared the strife. They gave the promises of years

Will Finds Lots Of 'Alibis'

S. S. MALOLO, San Francisco, Cal. July 23 — Just steaming out of the beautiful San Francisco bay. Putting a bridge across it. They will bridge to Honolulu if the government don't run out of credit. Could wire later in the afternoon, but better get this off while I am able.

As a sailor I am a big success as a "red" trying to run a strike. Drove to San Francisco and stayed all night. You have seen towns full of many things, but did you ever see one full of "alibis"? Everybody on both sides of the strike had nothing to do with starting it and every one of 'em was responsible for stopping it. Everybody has a sore back from taking bows.

Nobody seems to be responsible for starting this strike. I just know it was that darn Dillinger again. That fellow should be deported. Ship ahoy!

REED AND KUNKLE WIN IN SNAPPY WRESTLING CARD

Robin Reed, 157, of Reedsport, Ore., added another victory to his long list here Saturday night when he defeated Mickey McGuire, of West Salem, also 157, and Del Kunkle, 158, of Salt Lake City, surprised the fans with a win over Bulldog Jackson, 161, of Portland, in the Semi-Centennial U. P. celebration wrestling and boxing card. It was the closing sports event of the jubilee and attracted a crowd of approximately 1,100 persons from Eastern Oregon and Walla Walla.

Both main events and the two boxing matches pleased the crowd, which

ESCAPED WALLA WALLA CONVICT CAPTURED HERE

John Carl McKenzie, escaped trustee from the Walla Walla penitentiary, was being held in the county jail today awaiting the arrival of Washington state officers to return him to his cell.

McKenzie was arrested here Sunday by City Policemen Ray Fullmer and Robert Coy after he hit Henry Nibler in a downtown alley near Depot street with his fist, breaking Nibler's jaw. The convict at first attempted to hide his identity under the alias of Murphy but information received from Walla Walla enabled officers to recognize him.

McKenzie is alleged to have assaulted Nibler, who was taken to the Grande Ronde hospital for treatment.

Enterprise Float Wins First Prize In Saturday's story of the winners of first prizes in the Friday Semi-Centennial U. P. celebration parade here, there was an unintentional omission. The float entered by Enterprise was awarded first prize by the committee in the non-competitive entries from outside communities.

To stake their claim on strange frontiers. They pause not at the dreamers' dawn That men call death, but hurried on To blaze the way and drop the bars. Of trails that stretch beyond the stars.

A. L. JUNIORS WIN TITLE SUNDAY 3-2

La Granders Defeat Baker And Burns to Take Championship.

The La Grande American Legion junior baseball team, coached and managed by Raymond O. Williams, won the district championship in a playoff at Baker Saturday and Sunday, defeating Baker 14 to 2 in the first game Saturday and winning from Burns 5 to 3 in the championship game Sunday.

As a result, the local team will participate in the playoff for the Eastern Oregon district some time before Aug. 19, with the winners of The Dalles, Hood River and Bend groups. If La Grande were to win then, they would enter the state championship finals at Astoria later in August.

It was the second time La Grande won the district championship in the last several years, and the title game yesterday with Burns was a thriller. In the eighth inning, with the score tied at 3-3 and with two Burns runners on bases, McCoy made a spectacular running back-handed catch to stop a Burns rally. Earlier in the game Harlan Pratt cut off two Burns runs when he snared a difficult drive between Second and

GRAVE CONCERN IS FELT FOR SAFETY OF ADMIRAL BYRD IN ANTARCTICA

LITTLE AMERICA, Antarctica, July 23 (AP) — Grave concern for the safety of Rear Admiral Richard E. Byrd was felt today. The trail leading to his lonely weather observation outpost was lost. A tractor party which set out Friday to bring him back to the main base reported it could not pick up the trail.

The group was 50 miles out on the 123-mile run. Orange flags with which the trail had been marked could not be found past that point, the relief party reported yesterday. Byrd followed the trail four months ago to take up his lonely sentinel duty.

Dr. Thomas C. Poulter, in charge of the group, said it had battled in bitter weather to reach the 50-mile station. Temperatures ranged from 50 degrees below zero, to 71 degrees below.

The expedition traveled 130 nautical miles to attain the 50 nautical miles. Dr. Poulter reported, zig-zagging back and forth over the ice barriers.

A nest of deep crevasses lies ahead. Members of the group had been sleepless since 5:30 a. m. Friday. The flaps were completely snowed under in places and elsewhere were barely visible. A scouting crew on skis was endeavoring to pick up the trail, aided

Murphy made a net score of 72, the gross score being 80 with a handicap of eight. Johnnie Beck, Walla Walla, made second low net score of 74 and Fred Spaeth, of La Grande, was closest to the hole on the sixth and thereby won a set of club-head covers. Henry Enoch, of Portland, was closest to the hole on the third and won three Silver King golf balls.

On Friday Jack Murphy also won a Run Stub iron for being closest to the hole on the seventh.

DILLINGER IS SLAIN SUNDAY BY U. S. AGENT

No. 1 Public Enemy Shot Down in Trap As He Leaves Neighborhood Theatre.

(Copyright, 1934, by Associated Press) CHICAGO, July 23 (AP)—Dillinger's death!

He swaggered from a neighborhood theatre last night into the raking fire of government guns. Too late he saw the gleaming steel of the trap set for him.

His hand went for his gun. Too late. Three bullets tore into his body—one in the neck, two in the body. He staggered, fell.

It was the end of John Dillinger. The hour was 10:40 p. m., Chicago daylight time. The place was just outside the Biograph theatre, a neighborhood movie at Fullerton and Lincoln avenues, on the northwest side, in territory where the blood of many a Chicago gangster has flowed before.

Had the climax of this bank robber-desperado-killer's career, been pre-arranged it could have been no more sensational. There was even an audience, loitering about the vicinity of the theatre, drawn by the presence of so many department of justice agents that for a time some believed a holdup was planned.

POLAND FACING TYPHOID TERROR

WARSAW, July 23 (AP)—Outbreaks of typhoid fever in some sections of Poland were reported today as drinking water was polluted and 200,000 were estimated nearly destitute because of the floods.

The threat of a typhoid epidemic throughout the flood area caused apprehension while Warsaw awaited with fear a fourth flood crest moving from Cracow down the Vistula river.

The known dead already number 240, and tens of thousands homeless. The lack of drinking water is pressing because the rivers have been polluted by corpses and are unfit for use. Damage is estimated in excess of $200,000,000.

HEAT WAVE TOLL NOW AT 275 IN MID-WEST, EAST

By The Associated Press. While the heat wave gripping the country brought the toll of the dead to higher levels today, the north-eastern states were given a welcome respite.

The temperature in New York City was only 75 at noon, compared to 83 at the same time yesterday. Pennsylvania and the New England states reported generally more moderate temperatures.

The death list now stands at approximately 275, with the heaviest casualties being reported from the center of the Mississippi valley. All sections have paid tribute to the sun—the cities with lives and the country with livestock, ravaged crops and Winning this banner covers records and activities of the entire year, as well as points made at institute.

DILLINGER SEES GUN MOVIE BEFORE DEATH

By The Associated Press. The coup which brought about John Dillinger's end was executed without a flaw. Commendation poured in even during the post-midnight hours. "Gratifying as well as reassuring," Attorney General Cummings declared at Washington.

Department of justice agents had known for several days that Dillinger was on the north side. Purvis learned he planned to attend the Biograph theatre. He selected 15 crack shots—by a grim coincidence one for each victim of murders attributed to the Dillinger marauders. The source of the information was unrevealed.

EMPLOYERS AGREE TO SUBMIT CASE

All Votes to Be Counted in Frisco — Portland Pickets Fail to Stop Gas Deliveries.

PORTLAND, Ore., July 23 (AP) — In the hands of the longshoremen who called the strike, today rested the fate of a universal peace proposal that would end the 76 days of commercial paralysis resulting from the walkout of maritime workers May 9. A thousand guardsmen, meanwhile, were stationed at Camp Withycombe near here.

Employers have agreed to arbitrate all phases of the dispute. Today longshoremen voted whether to submit their entire case to arbitration at the hands of the president's mediation board.

Between noon and 8:00 p. m. Portland longshoremen were cast their ballots. E. P. Marsh, department of labor conciliator, brought 3,500 ballots with him by plane from San Francisco today.

DILLINGER SEES GUN MOVIE BEFORE DEATH

Captain Tim O'Neal of the East Chicago, Ind., police department, who participated in a gun battle against Dillinger and John Hamilton during an attempted bank robbery there last January, also brought four of his men to the showhouse. The slaying of Sergeant William O'Malley in the East Chicago skirmish furnished the only murder charge against Dillinger. Two Chicago detectives swelled the force. The federal men were assigned to stations and assumed the nonchallant airs of so many idlers.

The $10,000 placed on Dillinger's head by the government and the $5000 offered by the state of Indiana cannot be accepted by the federal men, Purvis said. He added that he doubted any of the Indiana patrolmen would share in the rewards either.

John Dillinger was 32. For 31 of those years, passed uneventfully in
