

CLARK SHARP NEW MANAGER OF PACIFIC CO.

Clark Sharp, of Spokane, arrived in La Grande this first of the week to assume the management of the Pacific Fruit and Produce company office here. He is a former resident of La Grande, having moved to Spo-okane a number of years ago. Russell Parlett, who has been manager of the company for some time, has accepted a position with the L. Veitman Produce company.

Returns to Weiser—
C. C. Rich returned Wednesday to his home at Weiser, Idaho, after spending several days in La Grande. During his stay here Rich received eye treatment at the Bouvy hospital.

Ward's Coast-to-Coast August Sales for the Home--Featuring AUGUST CLEARANCE SALE

Don't fall for the "bait" of cheap price in buying MEATS—or any other product. Inferior quality is expensive at ANY price. For health's sake—and goodness' sake—buy the BEST at the IGA Store—where high quality does not mean high price. Where cash means a lower price—no profit added on your purchase to cover costly credit losses and bookkeeping expense.
