Lucile Metcalf, Robert Harrison Married Sunday Morning; Will Make Home Here After Trip to The Coast

The marriage of Miss Lucile Metcalf, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Metcalf, and Robert Harrison, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Harrison, of Baker, was an event of Sunday morning. The ceremony was performed at the home of the bride's parents, 1206 Second street, which was beautiful with its decorations of red and white gladioluses.

The wedding music was played by Mrs. Gertrude Lachner Haysner, and James C. Haysner, bartenders, of Portland, sang "I Love You Truly" and "Thanks Be To God," preceding the ceremony. Rev. Lloyd Welch officiated. The bride, who was given away by her father, wore a dress of egg-shell satin made in princess style and carried a shower bouquet of pink rosebuds and orchid sweet peas.

Following the ceremony, a wedding luncheon was served to the bridal party and members of the family at the Seaside Inn. Only immediate relatives were present for the wedding, including Mrs. W. J. Lachner and Mr. and Mrs. James Charles Haysner, of Portland.

The couple left Sunday morning for Portland and coast points and on their return will take up their residence at the Seaside Inn. The bride's going away costume was navy blue crepe with aqua marine accessories.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Harrison are quite well known locally. Mr. Harrison is owner of the Blue Mt. Candy Co. Mrs. Harrison is a graduate of the La Grande High school and has been in the employ of local business concerns for the last few years.

Mrs. C. H. Reynolds Entertains At Saturday Luncheon

Honoring Miss Jane Stange and Mrs. Charles Kinzel, of Merrill, Wis., Mrs. Charles H. Reynolds was a gracious hostess Saturday, entertaining 16 friends at a 1:00 o'clock luncheon in the main dining room of the La Grande hotel. Table decorations were roses and the favors were in keeping with the event which the party anticipated. Following the luncheon, the guests played bridge in the gold room, Mrs. Charles Kinzel receiving first prize and Mrs. O. N. Ashby, second. Miss Stange and Mrs. Kinzel received guest prizes. Miss Stange was also showered with many lovely kerchiefs by her friends during the afternoon.

Entertain At Breakfast

Mrs. Elwood Hilt, Miss Judy Moore, Miss Mildred Standley and Miss Lash Branwell were hostesses at a breakfast Sunday morning with Miss Jane Stange as the guest of honor. Breakfast was served to the 20 guests in the main dining room of the La Grande hotel at 9:30, the guests being seated at one long table which had garden flowers for decorations. Later the group adjourned to the mesanine for a time at bridge. Miss Connie Ray made high score. Miss Stange was presented with a gift by the hostesses. Miss Janet King, of Los Angeles, Cal., a cousin of the honoree, was a guest from out of the city.

Virginia Hunter Weds in California

WALLOWA (Special) — Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Hunter received word this week from their daughter, Virginia Lee, who has been visiting in California and at the games which were arranged, Mrs. Ella Baker and Mrs. Jean Ball were the prize-winners. Refreshments were served.

The next hostesses will be Mrs. Hazel Starmer and Mrs. Agnes Winburn, the time and place to be announced later.

Legion, Auxiliary At Pine Cone

Members of the American Legion and the Legion auxiliary will hold a picnic Wednesday evening at Pine Cone. Those attending are supposed to take their own lunch, and coffee, cream and sugar will be furnished. Supper will be served at 6:30 o'clock.

City Park Is Picnic Place

Members of the Eagles lodge and the auxiliary gave a picnic party Sunday evening at the city park in honor of the Ferris family who are moving soon to Enterprise and also for Mrs. Blanche Cochran, of Klamath Falls, and Mrs. Nora Ordway, of Seattle.

The women visited, the men pitched horseshoes, the children used the playground facilities of the park and then all came together at 6:30 for the big picnic dinner. It is reported to have been quite a successful as well as most enjoyable event.

A transposition in a head in the society column Saturday gave out a wrong impression of a Friday evening party. The head should have read: "O. E. S. Club Gives Party."

Wallowa County Pioneers Meet

LOSTINE (Special) — The Wallowa County Pioneer association held their annual picnic near Lostine Wednesday, July 26. As dinner was being spread on the tables, a drenching rain fell and every one got wet through and through. After the rain, the sun came out and the president, Mrs. Frank Pearce, called the meeting for the election of officers as follows: Pres., Jay Dobbin; vice president, Chas. Zurcher; secretary, Harley Horner; memorial work chairman, Mrs. Frank Pearce. The committee to get a permanent place for meetings each year was heard from, but nothing definite was agreed upon. The Methodist camp ground at the lake, an acreage near Enterprise and the place at Lostine where the picnic was held were submitted.

The program was appreciated: violin solo, old time music by W. P. Warnock, accompanied by Mrs. Warnock at the organ, and the gentle voice of Langston's bull dog, which caused much amusement; a trio by three Wallowa girls, address by Mr. Halfmoon; address of welcome by James Leonard; response to address of welcome by the new president, Jay Dobbin, who has been in Wallowa county 40 years; reading, "Sunday Outing," Richard McDaniel, of Wallowa; James Clark sang two numbers accompanied by Margaret Poley; song by Genevieve Holloway, of Flora, and another shower closed the program for the day. Thus closed another episode.

Or two for Portland.

Yesterday morning he realized the end was near, and he requested that members of the Portland team be his pallbearers.

Baseball, as his whole life, and he was crushed with disappointment when he returned to baseball only to have a cellar team.

When he was able to purchase the players he wanted Portland won five pennants and made money. Penants came in 1906, 1910, 1911, 1912 and 1914. The Portland team which finished in second place last year was practically "liquidated" and a host of young players formed the roster at the start of this season.
