Miss Jane Stange Weds Ford Palmer In Home Wedding Yesterday; Will Live In Los Angeles After Trip.

A beautiful home wedding was that of Miss Jane Priscilla Stange, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Stange, and Ford Theron Palmer, of Hollywood, Cal., yesterday afternoon at the home of Miss Stange's parents.

Promptly at 4:30 o'clock the candles were lighted by Miss Mildred Stangle. Preceding the ceremony which was read by Rev. J. George Wain, of the First Presbyterian church before the fountain in the sun room, banked with white gladioluses and ferns, Jack Dennis, of Pendleton, sang "On Promise Me" and "Because." Mrs. Newton Ashby played the wedding music. The little Misses Loralee Warnock and Ellen Meyers, Nancy Bohnenkamp and Joan Bouvy formed an aisle to the altar with ribbons.

The bride who was given away by her father wore an ivory satin dress made in princess style and trimmed with pearl bands, her tulle veil fastened to a crown of old Brussels lace and trimmed with a pearl band. She carried an old-fashioned bouquet of gardenias and lilacs-of-the-valley. Mrs. George Decker, of Beverly Hills, Cal., sister of the bride, acted as matron of honor and wore a yellow taffeta frock trimmed with antique blue, with a large hat to match, and carried an old-fashioned bouquet of blue blooms. Mrs. Hester Hopkins Gregg and Mrs. Virginia Warnock McClench, both of Portland, and Miss Gilda Ashby and Miss Bernice Wilson, of La Grande, acted as bridesmaids and were gowned alike in antique blue net trimmed with yellow and wearing matching hats. They carried old-fashioned bouquets of yellow glad blooms.

George W. Decker acted as best man for Mr. Palmer.

Following the ceremony, the guests were received in the parlors, Mrs. Palmer and Mrs. Stange receiving with the bride and groom. In the dining room, during the first hour, Mrs. L. K. Kinzel cut the loaves and Mrs. Fred King, sister of the bride, poured and during the second hour, Mrs. G. L. Larison and Mrs. Oscar Warnock, assisting in the rooms were Mrs. Mildred Smith Turley, Miss Marva Lyman, Miss Janet King, of Los Angeles, Mrs. Edna Mae Wilson Keffer, Miss Leah Bramwell, Miss Sally Siegrist, Miss Jean Prager, of Pendleton, Miss Peggy Bohnenkamp and Miss Judy Moore. Punch was served by the Misses Janet Bingham, Betty Ruth Bohnenkamp, Mary Free, Judy Siegrist and Mary Ellen Stoddard.

Mrs. Palmer attended the University of Oregon and University of Southern California and was a member of Delta Gamma. Mr. Palmer is a graduate of U. S. C. and was captain of the 1933 football team and is a member of Sigma Chi.

After a wedding trip along the coast, Mr. and Mrs. Palmer will be at home Sept. 1, in Los Angeles.

Guests from out of the city in addition to members of the bridal party were Mr. and Mrs. M. P. Palmer, of Hollywood, Mrs. Fred W. King and daughter, Janet, of Los Angeles, and Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Kinzel, of Merrill, Wis.

TOOK PILLS FOR YEARS THEN CEREAL BROUGHT RELIEF

Kellogg's ALL-BRAN Corrected His Constipation

If you are troubled by common constipation, read this letter:

"Just a word in appreciation of what your ALL-BRAN has done for my health. For years, I had been dosing myself with pills and other dopes for constipation.

"I decided to try Kellogg's ALL-BRAN. Now I am in good health and haven't taken a drop of medicine for six months."—Thos. F. Little, 564 E. Wheeling St., Lancaster, Ohio.

Headaches, loss of appetite and energy, sleeplessness—any one of these may be caused by common constipation. Yet this condition can be corrected, usually, by eating a delicious cereal.

Tests show Kellogg's ALL-BRAN provides "bulk" and vitamin B to help promote regularity. ALL-BRAN also furnishes iron for the blood.

The "bulk" in ALL-BRAN is much like that in leafy vegetables. How much safer than patent medicines! Two tablespoonfuls of ALL-BRAN daily are usually sufficient. Chronic cases, with each meal.

If seriously ill, see your doctor. ALL-BRAN makes no claim to be a "cure-all."

Serve as a cereal or use in cooking. At all grocers in the red-and-green packages. Get ALL-BRAN, not a part-bran product. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek.

The table decorations were quantities of lovely nasturtiums, following the color scheme of orange and white. Mrs. Robert Pakin, vice-president, presided in the absence of the president, Mrs. Andrew Loney. Mrs. Ellis Russell expressed the greetings of the hostess group. The matron or some representative of each center was introduced and each responded.

President Paul Von Hindenburg, Germany's great field marshal, died at 9 a. m. today. To the man who had fought in his 86 years of life through every hell of war, death came quietly.

State physicians had done their best against a prostate gland disorder and the infirmities of old age, but at the last, all they could do was stand by, astonished that the strong old heart could stand out against these complications for so long. They had given up hope early last night.

The news placed a pall of silence over this community and the rest of Germany as well. The sorrow of the villagers was too deep for expression. They stood dumb.

To the residents of Neudeck and of the nearby city of Freystadt, the passing of Von Hindenburg meant more than the death of a president—it meant the departure of a close, personal friend.

And that, here, meant more than any such questions as the ascendancy of Chancellor Adolf Hitler to new power.

An infantry regiment of honor moved into the estate from Deutschemann to pay proper military tribute.

His burial will be at Neudeck at 11 a. m. Tuesday.

Tannenberg, where Von Hindenburg turned back the Russian advance in the early days of the war, will be the scene of a memorial service over the body of the dead president tomorrow.

The body will be taken to Hohenstein, a small town close to the Tannenberg monument. The scene of state observance. Government officials, diplomats, and Von Hindenburg's brothers-in-arms, as well as a large number of fellow citizens from all parts of Germany, are expected to attend.

Von Hindenburg not only was the hero of the German people, but even more so of the reichswehr. He was generally credited with being able to do as he pleased with the aid of the military.

Milestones along the road of Germany's late president, Paul Von Hindenburg, follow:

October 2, 1847 — Born at Posen, now in Poland, the son of a Prussian officer.

1868 — Entered cadet school at Wahlstatt in Silesia.

1866 — Joined the 3d foot guards at Danzig, soon to enter his first battle; decorated for heroism at battle of Sadow, while a Subaltern in Austro-Prussian war.

1870 — Decorated for bravery at Sedan, in Franco-Prussian war.

1877 — Promoted to general staff of German army.

1900 — Raised to rank of major-general.

1904 — Elevated to lieutenant-generalship.

1911 — Retired from the army.

1914 — Called back into service, to lead Germany on the eastern front; won battle of Tannenberg; from Russia.

1916 — Became chief of staff.

1925 — Elected president of the German republic.

1925 — Re-elected president.

August 2, 1934 — died.

Roosevelt Off Astoria Coast This Afternoon

Preparations for President Roosevelt's "tour of inspection" of federal development projects he promised two years ago before entering the White House were being rushed here today.

Traveling in the first completely air-conditioned train to cross the continent the president and his entourage will see thousands of men at work harnessing the mighty Columbia and Missouri rivers.

Almost as soon as the president's feet touch American soil again after his month's ocean voyage, about noon Friday, he will be off to the site of the $31,000,000 Bonneville hydroelectric and canalization project, 40 miles up the Columbia river from Portland.
