Christian Church Resumes Regular Services Sunday

July Vacation Ends — Episcopalians Observe August As Vacation Period.

Programs in La Grande churches for the coming Sunday, Aug. 5, include the following:

Central Church of Christ
(Pennsylvania Avenue)

Services at the Central Church of Christ are expected to be unusually interesting next Sunday morning. Miss Goldie Ruth Wells, an Oregon missionary to Africa, who is home on furlough, will speak at the morning worship service, immediately following the observance of the Lord's Supper. Miss Wells is a speaker who can tell many thrilling experiences which have come while working with the black people along the Congo. Her manner in relating these experiences expresses a sincerity and earnestness in her work which captivates and holds the attention of her hearers. Her talk will, no doubt, be very educational as well as inspirational. The church of Christ wants everyone to feel welcome to this service.

Bible school at the Church of Christ will begin at 9:45 a. m. At 10:55 the school assembles in the main auditorium for worship in the communion and sermon. The pastor, Rev. Paul DeP. Mortimore, is also expected to be here for these services, as the Young People's Conference which he has been directing at Wallowa Lake this week, will close on Saturday morning. A full house is desired at both the Bible school and church services. All are invited.

Baptist Church
(Spring and Sixth)

The subject of the morning sermon at the Baptist church will be "The Church." Special music has been prepared by the choir.

The subject of the evening sermon will be "The World." A song service will precede the sermon.

The subject for the young people's discussion is "This is My Father's World."

Hours of services are: Bible school, 9:45; morning worship, 11:00; B. Y. P. U., 7:00; evening worship, 8:00; Thursday evening prayer meeting, 8:00. The public is cordially invited to these services.

Presbyterian Church
(Sixth and Washington)

Knowing that the possibility of a righteous character lies within the most modest earth life, and the development thereof is wholly due to man's discovery of certain laws, which laws are ever the thoughts of God, the minister, Rev. J. George Walz, is offering the first sermon in a series on "The Crises of the Soul," using for his theme "Man Distanced From God," for the Sunday morning sermon, 11:00 o'clock. All not attending service elsewhere are cordially invited. Strangers in the city will always be welcome. The quartet will sing the number by Humanson, "Spirit of God." Mrs. C. C. Long, organist, will play the "Prelude in F" by Read, and the postlude "Marche Pontificale" by Becker. Bible school meets each Sunday morning at 9:45. Harold Finlay is superintendent.

Christian Endeavor hour is at 6:30 p. m. in the church, led by some one well prepared to make the study interesting.

All are invited to these services.

Zion Lutheran Church
(M avenue near Fourth)

In the Sunday school, which convenes at 9:45 a. m. Sunday, a new series of Bible lessons will take the place of the regular Scripture reading, and will be used in addition to the class lessons. Their purpose is to give the boys and girls an opportunity to use and read their Bibles. The first lesson is called, "Boys and Girls Who Helped." Everyone who wishes to attend is welcome at this school.

The morning worship service begins at 11:00 o'clock. Mrs. Charles Ward will play the service and the pastor will preach. A cordial invitation is extended to all who desire to worship at this service.

St. Peter's Church (Episcopal)
(Fourth street at O avenue)

The Episcopal church will have no services during the month of August, vacation time.

Riverside Union Sunday School
(First and Crook streets)

Sunday school will begin at 10 o'clock and will be followed by preaching service at 11 when Rev. F. A. Carpenter will speak.

Last Sunday following Sunday school at the chapel, the school went to Riverside park where a delightful picnic was enjoyed, with a basket dinner including ice cream, during the noon hour.

First Church of Christ, Scientist
(First and Washington)

Services are as follows: Sunday school 9:45 a. m., morning service 11 o'clock; Wednesday evening meeting at 8 o'clock. The reading room in the West Jacobsen building is open daily from 1:30 to 5 p. m.

The subject of Sunday's service will be "Love."

Among the citations which comprise the lesson-sermon is the following from the Bible: "Thou therefore, my son, be strong in the grace that is in Christ Jesus. . . . Study to shew thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth" (II Tim. 2:1. 15).

The lesson sermon also includes the following correlative passages from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy: "What we most need is the prayer of fervent desire for growth in grace, expressed in patience, meekness, love, and good deeds. . . . The habitual struggle to be always good is unceasing prayer. . . . Simply asking that we may love God will never make us love Him; but the longing to be better and holier, expressed in daily watchfulness and in striving to assimilate more of the divine character, will mould and fashion us anew, until we awake in His likeness" (p. 4).

First Methodist Episcopal Church
(Spring avenue and Fourth)

After two weeks without preaching services in this church, the regular services will be resumed on Sunday morning. The pastor, Rev. W. H. Hertzog, has returned from Wallowa Lake and will be in charge of the services preaching on the subject "Knowing Oneself." There will be special music and a cool, pleasant place where worship may be fully enjoyed.

The Sunday school meets at 9:45 a. m. and the Epworth League at 6:30. The La Grande Epworth League was awarded the "Efficiency Banner" at the summer institute for the amount and character of the work that was done during the past year. All are invited.

Island City Community Church

The regular services will be conducted at the Island City church Sunday morning with the pastor in charge. The preaching service and morning worship is at 9:45 followed by Sunday school at 10:45. All are welcome.

Church of Our Lady of the Valley
(Rev. Thomas J. P. Brady, A. M., Ph. D., Pastor)

Services in the local Catholic church for next Sunday, August 5, will consist of low masses with short instructions at 6 and at 8 a. m., both of which will be celebrated by the pastor.

Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament will be given before the 8 o'clock mass.

Next Friday will be the first Friday of the month of August and there will be mass in the church with exposition of the Blessed Sacrament during the mass. Confessions will be heard on Thursday afternoon and evening at 3:30 and at 7 o'clock. During the summer months there will be no confesstons heard before the 6 o'clock mass.

The feast of Saint Vianney, the heavenly patron of all parish priests, will be celebrated on August 9 with a solemn high mass in the church at 7 o'clock and the panegyric of the saint. The feast will be preceded by a solemn triduum of prayer and daily masses with brief instructions in the morning at each mass and with rosary, sermon and benediction of the Blessed Sacrament in the evening at 8 o'clock instead of the usual evening devotion hour of 7:30. This Triduum will be preached and directed by the Rev. Father Carroll, O. M. Cap., a Capuchin father from Hermiston, a mature and zealous priest and scholar from Cork, Ireland, and a graduate of the University of Cork.

All foreigners in Peru were required to register during July.

Sermonette
Edited by Harriet R. MacDonald

Open thou mine eyes that I may behold wondrous things out of thy law, Psalms 119-18.

The Bible contains the Word of God. There is a spiritual sense within the letter of the Word, like the soul within the body.

The Word of the Lord in its ultimate sense (or outermost meaning) is natural, in its interior sense it is spiritual, and in its inmost sense it is celestial, and throughout it is divine.

The inner sense of the Word of the Lord is revealed by the "Science of Correspondences"—a key which opens the spiritual cause and meaning expressed in terms of earth, which style of expression in the Scriptures joins heaven with earth.

The creation of the world as told in Genesis is entirely correspondential, and describes the creation of the "New Man," or man's spiritual rebirth.

ELISHA HELPS THE NEEDY
2 Kings 4:1-44.

Elisha, called "The man of God,"
A major prophet great,
Was once a tiller of the sod
In Canaan's ancient state,

A statesman, scholar, diplomat,
And head of prophets' school,
His counsel helped Jehoshaphat
And other kings to rule.

He was a friend of rich and poor,
A pastor and a seer,
And taught Jehovah's worship pure
Through all his long career.

He multiplied a widow's oil,
Relieved her pressing need,
Saved her two sons from slavery's toil
And proved a friend, indeed.

At Shunem, which he often passed,
Some friends a room prepared
Where he could lodge and eat repast
With him quite gladly shared.

And when death claimed their son and heir
By parents both adored,
Elisha came, and through his prayer,
The child to life restored.

When he received a gift of bread
In time of dearth and need,
He ate it not—gave it instead,
The needy poor to feed.

ORDINARY FISH INHABIT NEW UNDERGROUND RIVER

HARMONY, Minn. (AP)—Fish which may never have seen the light of day are thriving in turbulent underground channel waters of the recently-discovered scenic wonders case near here.

The source of the underground river remains undiscovered. The stream rushes through a 300-foot rock-lined chamber and, piercing a stone abutment, crashes 60 feet down to lower cave regions not yet explored.

The fish species, though unverified, are held to be common varieties.

LEXINGTON, Ky. (AP)—Miss Mary E. Hughes, promotion director of Hamilton college, claims the distinction of having visited every one of the 3,072 counties in the United States.

JUDGE RULES ON DITCH SUIT IN WALLOWA CO.

JOSEPH, Ore. (Special)—The suit of I. G. Pace and others vs. L. E. Thornburgh and others, involving the use of the waters of Prairie creek, which has been in litigation for three years, was decided Wednesday in favor of the defendants by Judge J. W. Knowles. The farmers of lower Prairie creek had sought to restrain the farmers of upper Prairie creek from using waters of the stream for irrigation purposes on the ground that the practice deprived them of stock water.

Judge Knowles sustained the contention of the defendants that they had not used more water than they were entitled to under their adjudicated water rights, even though the use thereof might deprive those living further down the stream of stock water.

Hug Funeral At Elgin Church This Afternoon

Amid these surroundings she worked for various people and grew through her childhood and youth.

As a young woman she joined a band of people who were going to America. Six weeks on a little German sailboat brought them across the Atlantic. Days on the primitive railroad bounced them along until they crossed the continent as far as Omaha.

From Omaha the summer was spent in traveling by ox train to Salt Lake City. Miss Muller walked beside the train and earned her living by baking bread of evenings over a buffalo chip fire. Out of provisions, tired and with her three pair of tough leather shoes worn out and gone the company reached Salt Lake as the first autumn snows were falling.

In Salt Lake she met Henry Hug whom she married. Her first home was in a tent bought from an abandoned U. S. army camp. An adobe house in St. Clara, Southern Utah, then became the pioneer home where her six children were born.

In 1879 the family loaded its belongings into a covered wagon and came to Oregon. The first winter in Oregon was spent on the old Norval place at the foot of Pumpkin Ridge in Union county. The next year Mr. Hug bought the farm on Cricket Flat now owned by Albert Hill. This became the Hug home until 1901 when Mr. Hug moved to Elgin and left the farm to his sons. He died shortly afterwards, and Mrs. Hug continued to live in the Elgin home until it was destroyed by fire in 1930, and she was obliged to start housekeeping anew in another house.

She remained alert in body and mind until last September, when she suffered from a fall, probably caused from a light stroke. Since that time her four sons arranged so that one of them has been constantly at her bed side.

From her century of strenuous life Grandma Hug, or Aunt Ann, as she was commonly called developed a cheerful disposition and a philisophic outlook on life. She spoke three languages, was a good cook, loved flowers and children and nearly always had a cheerful smile. When she lost her home and cherished belongings (among these a letter from President Wilson complimenting her on the number of pairs of socks that she had knit for the soldiers of the World war) at the age of 94, her friends offered sympathy. She told them that her house was rather old and she guessed she needed a new one. Without complaining she adapted herself to her new surroundings, planted herself a new flower garden and seemed quite happy.

She leaves five living children: Julius C., Walter Fridoline, Henry H., Eugene F., and Huldia Tucker; all of Elgin; eight grandchildren and eighteen great-grandchildren.

JOHNSON HITS AT PRESS

CHICAGO, Aug. 3 (AP) — Hugh S. Johnson has struck back at newspaper critics of the industrial recovery act.

Referring to his critics as "academic mercenaries who write for a controlled and dominated press," the NRA administrator accused them of garbling, suppressing, and coloring news, in an address celebrating NRA day at a Century of Progress last night.
