Program Being Arranged For Annual Picnic of Folks From Illinois, Indiana and Iowa

R. J. Kitchen, chairman of the program committee for the Three-I picnic Sunday at Riverside park, is announcing that in addition to the dinner which is to be served at 1:30 o'clock and the customary business meeting, a short program is in the process of formation. There will be a community singing, which will be a new feature; among the music, there is to be a solo by Ray Williams and readings will be given from among the poems of James Whitcomb Riley, the Hoosier poet. The chairman this year, Rev. J. George Walz, will make some remarks. In addition to this program, games will be provided and other features of an amusing nature as well as time for visiting and reminiscing.

Park Setting For Meeting

The Women's Missionary Society of the Methodist Church, South, held a combined business and social meeting at Riverside park Thursday afternoon, attended by a very good representation of members. Mrs. Eula Webb, the president, had charge of the devotional exercises in which all present assisted. During the business meeting, reports were given which showed that the women have been doing much practical work and to help them in future projects, a rummage sale was announced for the first of September. The leaflet for the month "Can Wets and Drys Bear the Truth?" was read; Mrs. Webb and Mrs. Hazel Starmer sang a duet; Mrs. Charlton gave a reading "The National Live-A-Life" league. Mrs. Martha Graham served refreshments.

N. O. W. Hear Future Plans

There was a good attendance at the meeting of the Neighbors of Woodcraft held at the Odd Fellows hall. All the members are looking forward to the 1935 district convention which, according to a recent decision will be held at Arlington. A cooked food sale was planned for Sept. 1.

Meetings for the near future include an afternoon affair on Thursday, Aug. 16 when Mrs. Lily Alstott will entertain the members and visiting members in the city at her home, 2015 Oak street. The next regular meeting of the organization will be on Tuesday, Aug. 21 at 8:00 o'clock in the evening.

Mrs. Wilcock To Be Hostess

The La Grande Tent of the Daughters of Union Veterans will meet Monday afternoon, August 13, with Mrs. Elsie Wilcock, 3001 Second street. The meeting will open at 2:00 o'clock.

Parkdale Club At Mrs. Ingram's

Members of the Parkdale club were guests of Mrs. A. R. Ingram at the Pine Cone auto camp Wednesday afternoon. The afternoon was spent in conversation with refreshments which the hostess served. Eleven members of the club were present together with some visitors—Mrs. F. J. Fisher, Mrs. Alfred Hiatt, Mrs. K. E. Critchett, of Boise, Miss Annamaria Shaffer, Miss Helen Higgins, Miss Marie Rogers, Miss Evelyn Carbine and the Misses Phyllis and Frances Rynearson.

The club will meet again in two weeks at Riverside park.

Pendleton Wedding Of Interest Here

Miss Janet LaFontaine, daughter of Mrs. Rex Ellis, of Pendleton, became the bride of Leslie Hagen, son of Mr. and Mrs. I. L. Hagen Wednesday afternoon at the Church of the Redeemer, at Pendleton, Dear Ralph W. Hinkle reading the service which included the double ring ceremony.

The bride, who was given in marriage by Mr. Ellis, was especially beautiful in a lovely wedding gown of soft white satin, cut with train, and with high-necked, long sleeved bodice of lace. She wore a short veil of tulle, arranged in becoming fashion beneath a wreath of orange blossoms. Her bouquet was of bride roses.

Three cousins of the bride, gowned in charming pastel tinted flat crepe frocks, cut on long lines with short

GOVERNMENT NOT ASKING FOR THE FAMILY SILVER

By William L. Beale (Associated Press Staff Writer) WASHINGTON (AP) — Hold on to your silver spoons, watches and dimes — the government doesn't want them. And don't expect your quarters and half dollars to turn into any different kind of money tomorrow from what they are today.

These things were not changed by the presidential order nationalizing silver stocks.

What Mr. Roosevelt and Secretary Morgenthau are doing is calling into the treasury stocks of bullion silver which are traded in the commercial markets. These stocks may range anywhere from 45,000,000 to 250,000,000 ounces.

Buying in this silver at the rate of 50.61 cents an ounce is what is meant by "nationalizing" silver. It is taking government ownership of floating commercial stocks not being used in industry and commerce.

When gold was nationalized the government simultaneously adopted a policy of taking that metal out of circulation as money and storing it in huge treasury and mine vaults as a permanently guaranteed support for United States money.

But silver is not being taken out of circulation. You will still jingle dimes and quarters—if you have them—in your pocket.

The president's order is part of the administrative work in carrying out the act of congress directing the treasury to build up a stock of silver which in relation to the gold stock will be one of three. The exact amount will depend on the variations in the gold stock which now exceeds $7,000,000,000.

shares climbed on the Toronto stock exchange and the United States dollar was depressed at Montreal.

LONDON—Financial quarters were puzzled by the move. Several writers expressed doubt the program would have great effect outside the United States. Some ascribed the step as an inflationary move and the dollar dropped on yesterday's market.

TENNIS FORM STEADY, HIT TELL IT TO BELL-MANGIN!

SEABRIGHT, N. J. (AP) — A striking example of how tennis form can vary from one day to the next was seen in the men's double final here.

Wilmer Allison and John Van Ryan, one-time Davis cup doubles pair, played 98 games with Berkeley Bell and Gregory Mangin before darkness halted the match at two sets all and 12-all in the fifth set.

Next day the boys started all over again and the Allison-Van Ryan combination swept through in three quick sets, all at 6-3!

THIS CURIOUS WORLD

THE number of total solar eclipses that can be seen from the earth is about 70 to the century, but a person living in one place may count himself fortunate if he sees even one in a century. Up to 1715, London had not seen a total eclipse for six centuries.

FOREIGN LANGUAGE SIGNS BANNED BY CHINESE EDITOR

NANKING (AP) — China's nationalistic spirit was given a fresh fillip recently when General Chiang Kai-Shek forbade shop keepers to display signs in foreign languages.

Native magazines and other publications at the same time were prohibited from using alien tongues on their title pages.

Moreover, numerals for describing years, were banned from official documents. Instead of writing "1934," for example, the words "twenty-third year of the Chinese republic" must be used.

The new orders also forbade the use of fancy borders or type on Chinese book covers.

AFTER 40 YEARS YACHT BRITANNIA GOES ABROAD

LONDON (AP)—King George's racing yacht Britannia, when participating recently in the Havre (France) regatta, made her first appearance in foreign waters in nearly 40 years.

She first sailed in French waters when she raced against the American cutter Navahoe in 1894 from Cowes round Cherbourg breakwater and back—a course of 130 miles. The race was sailed in half a gale of wind, and Britannia finished 2½ seconds ahead of her rival.

Her only visits to foreign regattas were when the late King Edward took her to the Mediterranean in 1894 and 1895.

DOUBLE ROAD PERILS IN HOME
